

22 AUTOISTS FINED BY MUNICIPAL JUDGE

Dr. T. A. Bailey Assessed $150 for Driving While Drunk.

POLICE BEGIN CAMPAIGN

Boys Declared Cause of Large Percentage of Traffic Offenses Committed in City.

One motorist was fined $150 on a charge of driving while drunk and another was assessed fines ranging from $50 to $1 in municipal court yesterday as the result of the first day of the crusade inaugurated by the police officers of the traffic department on orders issued by Mayor Baker.

Lieutenant Ervin, in charge of motorcycle police announced yesterday that the campaign would be continued with a view to cutting down traffic violations on the main streets, particularly in downtown districts and on dangerous streets and intersections.

"We have found that a large percentage of the violations are caused by boys from 16 to 19 years of age, and especially those driving delivery cars about town," he said.

Dentist Fined $150.

A large percentage of the riders of the traffic department have been on the lookout for watching for traffic violations.

T. A. Bailey, a dentist, who was arrested by Patrolman Thompson on a charge of driving while drunk, was fined $150 in municipal court. He was arrested for his machine had struck a parked car at Third and Morrison streets belonging to Roberts Brock and driven by D. J. Leahy.

The judge announced that he would hold Bailey's driver's license for 30 days was suspended.

G. Marinelli, whose truck struck and injured Bert Hicks at Fourth and Stark streets April 15, was fined $50 on a charge of reckless driving. Marinelli's truck struck Hicks, injuring his side and cut scratches on his head and hand.

Other Fines Imposed.

Fines levied for various other traffic violations were as follows: Fred Mauer, improper license, $1; Ben Bukowski, speeding, $5; Pink speeding, $10, payment suspended; W. J. Edwards, speeding, $5; H. J. Jorg, jockeying on bridge, $1; R. Spence, jockeying on bridge, $1; C. W. Decker, jockeying on bridge, $2; E. Vanshler, leaving motor running unattended, $2.50; F. W. Thoms, jockeying on bridge, $2; G. W. Anten, cutting corner, $5; Thomas Economy, open cut-out, $5; A. K. Montgomery, driving on wrong side of street, $5; M. Malone, jockeying on bridge, $10; R. E. Sheehy, jockeying on bridge, $4; E. C. Larson, jockeying on bridge, $4; C. A. Strickland, no light, $2.50; C. Dawson, no light, $4; F. C. Ralph, cutting corner, $4, and Mike Fager, no tail light, $1; Charles E. Eastman, jockeying on bridge, $1; W. Minkler, jockeying on bridge, $2.

Women's Activities

THERE will be a meeting at the assembly hall of the central library, Friday evening, April 22, at 8:00 o'clock. Girls are invited to attend and take their mothers and members of the family to meet the newly appointed Y. W. C. A. dramatic leader, Mrs. Everett Marshall Hurd. A dramatic club is being formed among the girls.

Miss Ruth Lowengart entertained yesterday at a small tea for Miss Gertrude Naphaly of San Francisco, who is her guest. For tomorrow evening a party will be given at the home of Mrs. Allison Raymond, Mrs. Ruth Schweitzer, Miss Marian Sichel, and Mrs. F. S. Grant and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Metschan and daughter. The party will probably end with a dance at the Whitehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lang, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jaeger.

Lincoln-Garfield Women's Relief corps will entertain with the last card party of this season Friday evening at 8 o'clock in room 525, courthouse. An invitation is extended to members of the post and corps, also their friends. Refreshments will be served. The corps will meet for sewing all day Friday in room 525, courthouse.

Miss Dorothy Stroebe is being welcomed after several months spent in New York, where she was the guest of Miss Virginia Williams and was feted at numerous smart affairs.

Mrs. Holt Cookingham will entertain Friday for Mrs. H. C. Cornwall of Short Hills, N. J., who, with Mr. Cornwall, has come west to be present at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Huber and Cliff Cornwall on Saturday.

Miss Jean Mackenzie's marriage to Eric Whitney will be tonight's premier social event.

Miss Helen Sutherland, Miss Gwendolyn Voorhies and Miss Loretta Quinn will be other attractive brides of today.

A marriage that was decided surprise to the friends of the couple was that of Edna Beck D'Arcy and Andrew Irvin Howard, which was solemnized on April 16 in the presence of about 60 guests. Thirty couples had assembled at the home of the bride for a card party, they believed, and just as they were ready to begin the game of bridge in came Dr. E. H. Pence of Westminister Presbyterian church and in walked the bride and bridegroom and the ceremony was held and, after congratulations and good wishes, the guests completed the evening with bridge and a supper. The bride was given in marriage by her father, John H. Beck. The family home, at 419 East Eleventh street North, was the scene of the marriage and card party. The bride is a popular young matron and the bridegroom is manager of Fiberg Bros.

WEDDING BELLS ARE RINGING MERITLY THIS WEEK FOR MANY LOVELY BRIDES

WEDDING bells are ringing meritoriously this week for many lovely brides. Last night Miss Frances Riesch's marriage to Clarence W. Twining was solemnized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Riesch. The bride wore an attractive, girlish gown of white satin with real lace trimming and becomingly arranged well. She carried orchids and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor, Miss Anne Riesch, was gowned in pale blue taffeta and a tiny ring bearer, Betty and Rose, in white tulle, smart frock of blue. She carried the ring in the heart of a lily. Dr. William Wallace Youngson officiated. The ceremony was solemnized at an improvised altar which the decorators had built for the occasion and the room was banked in flowers and palms.

Clarence Brazell was best man. The bridesmaid entered first, then came the dainty flower girl and then the bride, her father, Mr. Riesch, who gave her in marriage. Mrs. George Rodgers played the wedding march. Mrs. Riesch, sister-in-law of the bride, and hostess for the evening, was lovely in a gown of king blue over white satin with a trimming of old rose ostrich tips. Mrs. Riesch, mother of the bride, wore a gown of black satin with corsage of orchids. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. William S. Nash, Mrs. H. Howell and Mrs. Bernard Buck.

About 60 guests witnessed the ceremony. A supper followed. The bride is a charming girl who has been feted extensively since the announcement of her betrothal.

Mr. Twining is a member of an old and well-known family.

Mrs. T. C. Warner was hostess last night at a bridge party for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. H. J. Warner of Pendleton.

Mrs. Holt Wilson and Mrs. Howard Mather are expected to arrive in Portland Saturday. They have been to Honolulu for the past six months and are now in San Francisco. They will be at the Matory, where they have engaged apartments.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Falk of Boise are in the city for a visit with Mrs. Falk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Citron.

The many friends of Miss Alice Foster and Eugene A. Weltman were surprised to hear of their marriage Wednesday evening, April 13. As Mr. Weltman is stationed on the coast with the United States marines, the young couple have left for California to make their future home.

Waukeena club will give a dance and card party tomorrow night in Woodmen of the World temple, 128 Eleventh street. The party is for the benefit of the drill corps of Oregon Assembly, No. 1, United Artists. The assembly plans to send its drill team to Astoria to compete there and to this end the parties are given to raise a fund.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus of Cottage Grove and their little daughter, Marjorie Ellen, have been the guests of Mrs. C. R. July, Mrs. M. H. Whitehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lang, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jaeger.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Grant and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Metschan and daughter. The party will probably end with a dance at the Whitehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hirsch, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lang, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Jaeger.

A bridegroom of Friday afternoon will be Mrs. E. L. Thompson, who will entertain in her home on Portland Heights.

MARSHFIELD, Or., April 19.—(Special.)—Mrs. O. K. Kronberg, with the approval and support of the Bandon Woman's club, has inaugurated a campaign for a community building in that city and her efforts will attract a large portion of its financing in memory of her husband, the late John L. Kronberg, who before his death had planned several philanthropic movements, which his death prevented being carried out. The woman's club and Mrs. Kronberg intend having the building on the most comfortable buildings of community character in the state, with a dimension of at least 150x30 feet, 40 to 50 feet high, with two stories and conveniences. The tentative plans encompass a large assembly room, with a dance floor, dining kitchen, ladies' rest, room and men's smoking room on the first floor, with gymnasium, basketball court, shower bath, etc. on the second floor.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, April 19.—(Special.)—Madeline Slotboom of Portland, "laboratory technician" of the university infirmary, has materially strengthened the infirmary by her assistance this year, according to Dr. E. H. Sawyer, university health officer.

Miss Slotboom is a major in zoology and has been making chemical and bacteriological analyses of disease germs and bacteria from the infirmary. This is the first year such work has been done. Because epidemics can be detected at an early stage, this work is particularly important to university health. Miss Slotboom also makes daily tests of the water in the swimming pools, as well as assists Dr. Bertha Stuart in caring for underweight university women.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, April 19.—(Special.)—Miss Bertha Young, dean of women at Reed college, is on the campus to address the class in vocational guidance. Miss Young is the guest of Elizabeth Fox, dean of women, and is being extensively entertained. A dinner was given in her honor at Hendricks hall and Mrs. P. L. Campbell sponsored a tea in her honor.

Community Service girls will be hostesses this evening at a dancing party at 8:30 o'clock in the hall, 13th and Commercial streets, near Market.

Phaena temple No. 17, Pythian Sisters, will give a card party Friday afternoon at the K. of P. hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. The proceeds will be used in entertaining the district of Astoria, which is to be held in Portland in the near future. All members of the order and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Final temple's Altruistic club meets twice each month to sew for the needy children of the city, at the call of the public welfare bureau, and plans to give a social evening to which all visiting members of the order are invited.

Mrs. D. T. Van Tine, 433 East Sixteenth street North, entertained the members of the Pennsylvania Women's club Thursday afternoon. Tea was served during the social hour, attending the meeting were: Mrs. H. J. Bigger, Mrs. W. W. Dugan, Mrs. Sarah Evans, Mrs. E. Frankhausen, Mrs. A. R. Mark, Mrs. A. C. Ruby, Mrs. S. M. Robinson, Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. L. G. Stevens, Mrs. Thomas Hunt, Mrs. H. Damon, Mrs. M. Osborne, Mrs. S. M. Allen, Mrs. J. A. Wallace, Mrs. J. G. Fleischman, Mrs. W. Stewart, Mrs. Garrigues, Mrs. A. G. White, Mrs. D. T. Van Tine.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church held its monthly meeting yesterday in the church house. Circles A and B were hostesses and Mrs. I. M. Walker leader. The preliminary prayer service was led by Mrs. W. B. Osborne. Christian Education Among "Friendmen" was the topic. Rev. I. A. Moore telling what such education is doing for his people. Mrs. Benjamin gave an interesting talk about her work among the girls in Portland. Mrs. J. F. Ewing was the guest of honor. Professor and Mrs. Ewing expect to leave the city early in May for an extended eastern trip. They will be at Princeton in June to witness the graduation of their son Thomas. Their daughter Margaret, who is attending the University of Washington, will accompany them. The following have been elected officers of the Women's Missionary society for the year ending March 31, 1922: President, Mrs. B. A. Thaxter; First vice-president, Mrs. Henry Kirk; second vice-president, Mrs. P. H. Stevenson; third vice-president, Mrs. E. J. Swindells; secreetary, Mrs. Henry W. Hall; treasurer, Miss Cornelia F. Lamberson; secretary for literature, Miss Agnes Symington; secretary for young people's work, Miss Jennie McKibbin; secretary for children's work, Miss Viola Charleston.

The women of the First Congregational church have four events on their calendar this week. This morning and noon the association will hold a sewing bee and luncheon. This afternoon the Women's Missionary society will hold its annual ceremonial of candle lighting. Miss Dorothy Rice is to give a programme of music. Thursday and Friday at the Women's Exchange building the women will hold a rummage sale and Friday evening they will be patronesses at the old-fashioned singing school while the Senior Endeavorers are to give under the direction of Mrs. Carle B. Adams.

The Oregon State Graduate Nurses' association will meet in room A central library this evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. Thomas M. Joyce will be the speaker. He has selected as his subject "Gaiter."

The Woman's New Thought club will meet today at 2 P. M. in room F central library. The public is invited.

Creston Parent-Teacher association will hold its April meeting this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Officers for the coming year will be nominated and a short programme will follow. Refreshments will be served during the social hour.

R. J. CARNSER SEEKS SIAM MINISTERSHIP

Gilliam, Sherman, Wheeler Representative in Race.

VIEW IS PHILOSOPHICAL

Portland Visitor Surveys Political Situation Without Slightest Excitement; Cholera Not Feared.

R. J. Carnser, representative of Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler counties, classifying himself as a receptive candidate for appointment as minister to Siam, arrived in Portland yesterday from the far reaches of John Day, and more specifically from Spray, Or. Mr. Carnser is surveying the political situation without the slightest excitement and views his prospects, or lack of them, philosophically.

"Will I accept the appointment?" began Mr. Carnser. "Say, you don't know of any cattle man who would dodge a $10,000-a-year job? It came his way, do you? I don't. Leastways, not with the cattle business in its present condition."

Cholera Not Feared Either. "And that water in Siam. They tell me it's bad, but that scare me any. As Hugh O'Kane of Bend says, 'water is good to float canal boats in and put under bridges.' Nor am I afraid of the cholera or the other diseases over there. A fellow will take a few chances for $10,000 a year, won't he? Surely, Henry Blackman, who used to live in Heppner and was collector of customs here years ago, was telling me that when a fellow named Barrett of Oregon was writing you to Siam—well, have Henry tell you about the disrespectful way they acted toward Barrett."

"I haven't mentioned the job to Bob Stanfield and I haven't made any formal application for the appointment. Some of the boys have talked about it, however. Maybe I'll be offered it and maybe not, but I won't run away from it."

One of Senator Stanfield's political advisers suggested that Mr. Carnser try for a post in New Zealand, because Mr. Carnser knows the sheep business and New Zealand is shipping large quantities of wool into the United States.

Disgust is Registered. "Bah," observed Mr. Carnser, in disgust "I prefer going somewhere where I won't have to look a sheep in the face. I used to buy and sell bands of sheep, as a sort of side issue with my business, speculating as it were. One time I bought a band and the price dropped before I could do any speculating with it, so I had to be a sheep man."

"I noticed in The Oregonian," continued Mr. Carnser, "that a mastodon has been unearthed in Gilliam county, which I have the honor to represent in the legislature—the county, not the mastodon. This shows that the original inhabitants of Gilliam county were elephant worshippers long before Siamese people ever thought of a sacred white elephant."

While in the city yesterday Mr. Carnser was solicited by Harvey Wells, representative from Multnomah county, for the privilege of writing his surety bond as minister to
