TRAGEDY

PROWLER CAUGHT.—When Mrs. G. M. Masters awoke in her apartment at about 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning, she discovered a prowler in her room with her purse in his hand. Leaping from bed, Mrs. Masters grabbed up her bathrobe and chased the fellow out of the apartment and down the street. Pedestrians took up the chase before a block had been covered by the pursued and pursuer and at Front and Madison streets Walter Owen, aged 29, was taken into custody by the crowd. He was identified as the prowler by Mrs. Masters. Her purse, containing $2.15 was still in his possession when he was overtaken. Owen was turned over to the police and lodged in the city jail on a charge of larceny.

DELEGATES INVITED TO BRIDGE OPENING

Pasco and Walla Walla, Wash. chambers of commerce have invited the Portland chamber to send delegates to be present at the formal opening of the newly completed bridge on the Snake river, between Pasco and The Dalles, on the inland Empire highway, on the afternoon of May 6. W. D. Whitcomb of Portland has declared his intention of being present, and others are expected to go from this city. Governor Hart of Washington will make the dedicatory address. The bridge is the ferry elimination on the highway and is built jointly by Walla Walla and Franklin counties.

PHONE RATE HEARING FINANCED

The city council yesterday appropriated $4000 from the general fund to defray the expenses of preparing the city's case in connection with the re-hearing of the telephone rate schedule. The ordinance which carries this appropriation authorizes City Attorney Grant to employ E. C. Willard, rate engineer, Young and Smith, as necessary, at a salary of $35 a day. It also authorizes the employment of a stenographer to aid in the case and stipulates that Alexander Young & Co., public accountants, be retained in the case.

BOAT FOUND IN RIVER

The body of a man believed by the coroner to be that of Emil Berg, 22 years old, was found in the Willamette river, near the Almsworth dock yesterday morning and removed to the county morgue pending positive identification. Papers found in the clothing of the drowned man indicated he was Emil Berg who has been missing for several weeks. Authorities are now seeking to locate relatives. Papers showed his address at 321 Burnside street, but no information could be procured at that address.

FUNERAL OF WAR VETERAN SATURDAY

The funeral services for Private Ray J. DeBurr, an overseas veteran, will be held at 2 P. M. Saturday from the East Side Undertaking chapel, East Sixth and Alder streets. Private DeBurr re-enlisted in the marine corps after being discharged from the army, and will be buried with full military honors. Under the direction of the American Legion; Disabled Veterans of the World War and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, assisted by the United States marines.

RAILROAD MEN TO MEET

The bi-monthly meeting of the Pacific Northwest Division of the association has been scheduled to meet at Vancouver, B. C., tomorrow. Heads of passenger departments of rail lines in Portland will attend. George Scott, general passenger agent for the Canadian Northern Railway, will be chairman of the meeting. It was noted that routine business only awaits the attention of the officials.

MR. MANSFIELD TO ADDRESS CHAMBER

George A. Mansfield of Medford, president of the Oregon state farm bureau, will be the chief speaker before the members' forum of the Chamber of Commerce Monday noon. His subject will be "Organizing the American Farmer." Mr. Mansfield recently returned from Washington, D. C., where he appeared before a congressional committee on agriculture in the interest of the farmers' organization movement. He represents 12,000 members of his organization in this state and he will tell about this gathering at the Monday meeting.

TRAFFIC COMPLAINTS WITHDRAWN

Complaints filed with the interstate commerce commission by the Portland Traffic and Transportation association against the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul and the O.-W. R. & N. lines to require publication of joint tariffs on grain from territory between Marengo, Wash., and Plummer, Idaho, to Portland on the Puget sound basin, were withdrawn yesterday as a tactical move. Until the Columbia basin rate case is decided, it was said, the smaller issues would be held in abeyance and the complaints were withdrawn without prejudice. They may again be filed at any later time that such action may be held advisable.

REED STUDENTS NOMINATE

The following nominations to the Reed college student council have been made by the respective classes. Juniors: James Cantenwein, James Hanson, Forrest Foster, William Scott, Elizabeth Gore, Sibyl Lindell, Madeline Steffen and Edith Turner; sophomores: Lewis Jones, Howard Smyth, Florence Craven and Frances Kilgus; freshmen: Harold King, Esten Rothwell, Frank Keenan, John Piper, Alice Lathrop, Anne Roberts, Rachel Cronquist and Hazel Williams. The junior class polling the highest number of votes in the election early next week will become the president of the student body for next year.

INSURANCE AGENT SUES

It probably was not the object of R. W. Cameron to demonstrate the uncertainty of human life when he offered to drive J. C. Wagner home to see Mrs. Wagner with regard to the advisability of increasing life insurance held, but Wagner declares in a $4000 damage suit filed in the circuit court yesterday that the insurance man drove his automobile into a dirt bank at East Twenty-ninth and Stanton streets, seriously injuring the passenger. They were on their way to East Forty-eighth street and Stanton streets when the accident occurred February 15, 1921. It is asserted.

RATE CONFERENCE CALLED

Representatives from the Portland Chamber of Commerce are invited to participate in a rate conference set for April 25 at Klamath Falls, the subject being freight tariffs on the branch of the Southern Pacific north of Weed, which are complained of as inequitable. The interstate commerce commission has promised to consider the matter at the conference. The Portland trade body will be represented through the traffic and transportation bureau. It is expected that Managing Secretary Lothrop of that branch will attend.

RYBKE FUNERAL TODAY

Funeral services for Marka Rybke, who died Tuesday following a prolonged illness of three months, will be held this morning at the family residence, with interment in the Jewish cemetery. Mr. Rybke was born in Germany in 1858, and came to Portland in 1877. He was actively associated with the industrial life of the city. Mr. Rybke married in 1882 the daughter of a pioneer Portland family, in 1873, and is survived by his widow and three children, Dr. Charles L. Rybke and Estel, all of this city.

SEVEN DIVORCES GRANTED

Seven default divorces were awarded by Circuit Judge Kavanaugh yesterday. Divorced from W. H. Moran, Pauline from C. O. Dement, Edith E. from E. Scott, Ruth from Edward Copley, Gertrude from A. F. Palm, Zola from George F. Newland, and Bert F. from Bertha M. Smith. Divorce suits filed yesterday were: C. D. against Lillian Hickok, Alice against K. K. Keener, Cecile against Endre Pedersen and Violet M. against Robert F. Kuhn.

READ TO UNVEIL MEMORIAL

A committee of students of Reed college has reported that the bronze memorial tablet to be placed in the chapel stairway in memory of the Reed men and women who died in the service will be unveiled on May 30. The model has been finished and the tablet will be ready at that time. An elaborate service under the direction of ex-service men on the campus will be held, to which the families of those commemorated will be invited.

ALLEGED BOOTLEGGER ARRESTED

When T. Vassler opened his soft drink establishment at 286 Couch street yesterday morning he found six uniformed police waiting to be served as his first customers. The cops, however, were more interested in two bottles of moonshine they said Vassler had hidden under the counter. He reported that the bronze memorial tablet to be placed in the chapel stairway in memory of the Reed men and women who died in the service will be unveiled on May 30. The model has been finished and the tablet will be ready at that time. An elaborate service under the direction of ex-service men on the campus will be held, to which the families of those commemorated will be invited.

WILLIAM BLAIR IS SOUTHERN

Chief of Police Jenkins yesterday received a telegram from the coroner at Roseburg asking him to find William Kieb, believed to be a greenback soldier local hotel on route east. The telegram stated that the father of William Kieb died there yesterday morning and the family wanted him to return home at once. Inspector Craddock made a futile search of the leading hotels yesterday in search of the Roseburg man.

PORTLAND GETS INVITATION

Portland is invited to participate in the first annual meeting of the International chamber of commerce in London, England, June 27 to July 2, through a letter from that organization to the Portland Chamber of Commerce. Portland also is asked to send representatives to the general session of the American section of the international body at Atlantic City, April 27.

DAIRY COMPANY SUES

For injuries received when struck by a milk truck of the Beaverton Pure Milk & Cream company, Nan Thorne asks damages of $1500 in a suit filed in the circuit court yesterday against J. T. Stone, owner of the dairy, and E. E. Cleveland, truck driver. The plaintiff was standing on the curb at Sixth and Morrison streets March 9, 1921, when struck by a skidding truck, she was thrown into a ditch. The suit was filed in the circuit court yesterday. Stonewood, $5.20.—P. E. Bowman Co.—Adv.

CHAMBER DIRECTORS TO MEET

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will meet in special session Monday night to clean up old business remaining on hand so that a complete report can be made at the annual meeting on April 29. A. J. Bale, a director of the chamber for the past five years, has filed his resignation, and the position will be filled at the annual meeting of the directorate. CORNWOOD, $5.20.—P. E. Committee to Undertake Super-Power Survey of Northwest in Economic Interest.

Development of power resources of the Pacific northwest on its ultimate scale, immense as that may be, is the basic idea behind a conference of prominent experts in the electric power field at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. No single thing in this development was aione the motive of the gathering but the compilation of data was begun that will be, it is expected, of large significance in working out the power resources of this section of the country.
