

90 GET CITIZENSHIP; SLACKERS BARRED

Several Germans Rejected for Refusing to Fight.

NUN IS NATURALIZED

Two Witnesses in Solemn Garb of Order Testify to Loyalty; Deaf and Dumb Man Wins.

Subjects of about all the European princes and potentates forswore their former allegiance yesterday in United States naturalization court before Judge Wolverton and when the day's session ended, 90 new citizens, some of each sex, had been made. L. V. Tomlinson, naturalization examiner, conducted the hearing, which was for the issuance of final citizenship papers. A number of applicants who had evaded military service during the war because they pleaded exemption by reason of the fact they were not citizens, were denied citizenship yesterday.

William Mueller Rejected. Conviction against taking life, even in war, barred William A. S. Mueller from citizenship. He declared he did not believe it right to kill, but during stress of war he was willing to do anything else to help the government. The court sustained a motion to dismiss his application.

Two sponsors for each applicant came with the prospective citizen and the federal courtroom was crowded all day long. Emil Rosner, a native of Russia, had a character witness who said he knew him thoroughly, having had his acquaintance for the past 37 years and hence did not hesitate to vouch for him. He was admitted.

Nun Gets Citizenship. Rosa Jager, a member of the Dominican sisterhood, appeared with two other nuns as witnesses, all in the sober garb of the order. She was born in Germany, but her loyalty to the United States was proved, and she received final papers.

Two sisters, Martha and Lydia Goldapp, born in Germany but thoroughly Americanized, appeared together and were admitted to citizenship.

Frederick Kersten, a native of Germany, declared his loyalty to the United States during the war. Asked if he thought Germany was to blame for starting the war and if he believed the United States should have kept out of it, he said he held England to blame for the war, but that the United States was forced into it. His case looked somewhat dark for him until he said he offered his services to the United States and, moreover, had served in the Spanish-American war. He was admitted.

Deaf German Is Admitted. Lawrence W. Gromackey, of German birth, but long a resident of this country, was admitted by reading the oath and holding his head vigorously, since he is deaf and dumb. Witnesses vouched for his good character and desirable qualities as a citizen.

Because of exemptions claimed when their questionnaires were filled out, reasons being they were aliens, Duse Bullich, Austria; A. G. Lehmann, German; George Lysidan, Austrian; Patrick Halloran, British; John Schliebner, German; Gustav Lumburg, Swede; William P. Gibson, British; and Paul W. Notzold, German, were denied citizenship.

Those admitted during the day and the nations whose allegiance they forswore were:

August Kessler, Switzerland; Emil Starosky, Russia; Carl F. J. Seidel, Germany; Emil Ebner, Germany; Christ Milich, Austria; Peter C. Berger, Hungary; Rasmus P. Kohler, Denmark; Frances Heffert, Germany; Carl Kuhn, Germany; Helmut Wella, Germany; Fred C. Helming, Germany; Antonio Giustolisi, Italy; Richard Goodfellow, England; Iver Bohlsen, Germany; Johan V.
