Pacific Coast League Standings

Table with 2 columns: Team, W. L. P. C. (Portland, Sacramento, Los Angeles, etc.)

Yesterday's Results

At Portland 2, Sacramento 4 (13-innings); At Los Angeles 9-1, San Francisco 10 (10-innings); At Seattle 7, Salt Lake 3.

The Beavers cracked under the strain, after battling to a 2-to-2 tie in the 12th frame. The final tally was Sacramento 4, Portland 2.

It was a grand game of ball up to the first of the fatal 13th. The threatened May day bombers failed to reach Dick Niehaus, who worked on the mound for Bill Rodgers' crew.

Phillette Replaces Johnson. Sylvester Johnson, Walt McCredie's young tosser, started in the box for Portland but was taken out in the fourth, Herman Phillette replacing him.

The Beavers threatened to tally both in the 12th and 13th innings, but couldn't change the lead. It was the platter. Pete Compton led off for the Sacs in the hoodoo stanza with a stinger between first and second.

It looked as though Krug could have handled it all right for a putout, but Jimmy Poole dashed over and just slammed his mitt on it. The ball carried around the rubber and dropped to anyone on first anyway, so Compton reached the initial sack, credited with a hit, after all.

Batters Get Flying Start. Orr popped out to Poole. Cook brought Ryan in when he put over a perfect hit-and-run play.

Portland got off to a flying start in the second inning and banded in two runs. Dick Cook hit off the bat and full single to left. Jimmy Poole walked. Del Baker sacrificed, advancing the boys a base.

Butler stepped in the box in a tight place. The fans were treated to a healthy clout at the ball, the pellet soaring on and over. From then on it was give and take between the two clubs.
