ROSS' PACE IS BAFFLING

Portland Beaver Has Visitors at Plate Watching Ball Go, By Without Blinking an Eye.

Pacific Coast League Standings. W. L. P. C. ...

That rabbit's hoof of Sam's is just hitting its stride. Last Friday...

Sam Has Oaks Baffled. Sam's slow southpaw curve was hooking across the plate so strangely...

Third Base Strange Place. In the pinches Sam was invulnerable. Only once in the game did the Oaks even get a man to third.

Wolver Again Starts Party. In the sixth it was again Wolver who started the party. Ike panted a screamer past Alton for a single and immediately stole second.

MR. NEWLAND IS WINNER. First round in O. N. Ford contest captured.

Successful trapshooter eliminates opponents in shooting off target.

Score of 47.

H. B. Newland won the first contest in the O. N. Ford challenge handicap shoot at the Portland Gun club Sunday.

Newland, J. B. Troth and A. Blair tied with 47 targets each and in the shoot-off Newland put 25 straight in his game bag.

Newland will be open to challenge until Wednesday, May 11.

Manager Ford of the Portland club has everything in shape for the big northwest shoot, which will start this Saturday at Everding park.

Ford has 60,000 targets on hand for the event and it is expected that the greater portion of this number will be trapped in the three-day shoot.

A practice shoot will be staged Thursday, when 100 targets will be thrown.

A prize is in store for the high gun on the 100.

The scores turned in Sunday follow:

H. B. Newland, 47; J. B. Troth, 47; A. Blair, 47.

GOLFERS BUSY ON LINKS

Waverley Team in Training for Seattle Tourney.

Home-and-Home Match, With Two Legs Apiece, Promises to Be Hotly Contested Saturday.

Waverley Country club golfers are busily engaged preparing for the first inter-city golfing event of the season—a home-and-home match with the Seattle Golf club this Saturday at Seattle next Saturday.

The match will be the first of a series to decide the winner of the Walter J. Burnan trophy. Both Waverley and Seattle have two legs apiece on the cup and the result of the course proved the undings of the local stars. This year things ought to be different, and it is probable that Waverley will break the precedent and win the coming match.

C. H. Davis Jr., captain of the Waverley team, has announced his lineup for the match, as follows:

R. C. F. Astbury, A. C. T. Berry, Ellis J. Braz, C. H. Davis Jr., Hugh C. George, Jordan V. Zan, Arthur O. Jones, Walter Lang, C. Hunt, Mark May 27.

Seattle's lineup for the match, as follows: R. C. F. Astbury, A. C. T. Berry, Ellis J. Braz, C. H. Davis Jr., Hugh C. George, Jordan V. Zan, Arthur O. Jones, Walter Lang, C. Hunt, Mark May 27.
