COAL MEN TO PROTEST

Alleged Preference in Rail Trans portation Is Cited.

NEW YORK, May 19.—The National Coal association will protest to the interstate commerce commission sgainst the alleged practice of railroads in giving preference in the assignment of transportation facilities to those mines having railroad fuel contracts. This action was decided on today at the annual convention of the association.
One alleged evil of the assigned cal enabled operators of small mines who might take advantage of a coa shortage emergency, to sell coal at high prices. The practice, they said, was for the railroads to give a full car supply to mines which would fur-nish the railroads with coal. These mines, many in the nands of speculators, it was stated, were always sble to have an abundance of cars while other mines, selling coal at wer prices, were unable to get their German Chancellor Wants to Keep Right Up With Obligation.

BERLIN, May 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—To keep right up to date with its reparation obligations or even a good bit ahead is declared to be the ambition of the cabinet of hancellor Wirth. The reparations cording to semi-official announce-ment, is demanding surrender of all German rights and interests in con-cessions mentioned in article 260 of the peace treaty, by which the com-mission understands all shares in mines, oil fields, stone quarries and similar undertakings are specified in the article.

In the opinion of the reparations commission, article 260 covers not only territories ceded by virtue of the treaty of Versailles, but also those ceded in wirtue of all treaties concluded between the allies on the one hand and the former allies of Germany on the other.

The German government declines to many on the other.

The German government declines to accept this interpretation and has therefore included in the list of securities for surrender only those which in its opinion fall without any doubt within the stipulations of that article.

Mass Meeting in Chicago Adopts Resolutions Asking President to Initiate Conference.

CHICAGO, May 19 .- America was arged to take the lead in affecting eduction of armaments of all naions, a mass meeting addressed by W. J. Bryan and others tonight in the final session of the two days' congress on limitation of armaments.

Mr. Bryan made the closing appeal for world peace, declaring his motto to be "disarmament by agreement if possible, by example if necessary." The purpose of the conference was ummed up in a resolution adopted oday and presented to tonight's assemblage, urging President Harding to call Great Britain and Japan into cenference looking to reduction of naval armaments by agreement.

America, said Mr. Bryan, was the only great nation which set an example in mobilization for war but derstanding of war than it ever had before, the world was spending more money on armaments than before the world war.

"The devil taught us to avoid war by arming," he said. "We obeyed the devil's voice and now we are paying the devil's price."

Pleading that America take the lead in establishing a lasting peace, he declared that a spirit of revenge could not lead to peace and that since America was the only nation to enter the war without the spirit of revenge she was the only nation to lead the way to world peace.

Labor Extends Helping Head.

Labor Extends Helping Hand, Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor, extended the "helping hand of the American labor movement" to the Congress in its proposal for armament limitation. He asserted labors stand for peace, but declared labor had no regret for the part it took in the world war.

"Labor went into the war believed."

shall have been in vain. But we believe that the decision for war no longer lies in political power. Economic and industrial power will decide the next war. Already we find almost every nation enacting tariff laws to capture trade and sooner or later a new struggle will flame forth. We must arouse the public mind against this war."

Dr. Nehemiah Boynton of New York, speaking for the religious forces of America, also asked for peace through friendship and international relationships.

Johnson Says Tanlac Overcame His Troubles Two Years Ago and He Still Feels Fine.

"I never miss a chance to tell my friends about Taniac," decisied Arthur Johnson, a well-known farmer of Cowley City, Wash.
"No one would think to look at me," said Mr. Johnson, "that I had ever had to take any medicine in my life, but for three years past I have had frouble off and on with my stomach. When these attacks of indigestion came on me I had an awful heavy feeling and ne I had an awful heavy feeling and a burning sensation in my stomach and there is simply no describing what I suffered. My head ached fit to burst and I got as weak as a kiften. I was always so nervous I couldn't sleep and had a dull, miserable, heavy feeling all over. "Two years ago I took Tenlac for this trouble, with such splendid re-sults I saw it was just the medicine I needed and ever since then it has been my standby. Several times since when these bad spells have come on when these bad species have come on me I have got me some Tanlac and it never falls to fix me up all O. K. I am certainly strong for Tanlac."
