

GIRL COOKS SHOW SKILL TO PARENTS

Students Supply Homes With Special Orders.

MAXIMUM COST IS FIXED

Luncheon for Six Held to $1.20, but Some High School Girls Spend Only 90 Cents.

Students at the Girls' Polytechnic high school, who are studying domestic science, have been demonstrating their accomplishments the past week to their parents and brothers and sisters. Each day they have "taken orders" at home to supply the family with bread, cookies or cake and have come home in the afternoon to adorn the dinner table with the finished product.

They prepare the food in the quantities desired by their mothers and sometimes bake enough to fill the family's need for the week-end. The girls either bring the materials from home or purchase them at the school. They bake bread of various kinds, or coffee cake, biscuits, cinnamon rolls, Parkerhouse rolls, cookies and cakes, to suit their special orders. Among the most popular things which they take home are cream puffs, judging from the number which are made each day.

Specified Sums Allotted.

The girls are taught in this way to bake for any desired number, making the portions larger or smaller as called for by the number they desire to serve.

The pupils are learning also how to cook and serve meals for a specific number of persons on a specified sum of money. They have been giving breakfasts and luncheons at the school as part of their work and next week will give a series of afternoon teas for their mothers.

Two girls give the breakfasts or luncheons, planning the menu and doing all the ordering themselves. They invite four guests, which, with the two hostesses, makes six to serve in all.

A total of 90 cents is allotted for the breakfasts. A sample menu is: Half an orange, rolled oats, muffins and marmalade and chocolate. They prepare the meal and serve it as if in their own homes.

Cost for Six Held to $1.20.

A luncheon for six persons is scheduled to cost today $1.20 and some of the girls do it for 90 cents successfully. A luncheon given yesterday comprised: Broth, macaroni and cheese, steamed raisin bread, powder biscuits, cup custard and cookies. The teachers criticize the menus, which must be well-balanced, pleasing and nutritious.

The first of the series of teas for the mothers will be given Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 3:30. Fifteen mothers will be entertained. Four or five others will be given before the end of the term.

Nearly every day at least four girls bake birthday cakes to take home as a real surprise for some member of the family. The girls take pains to ice the cakes and decorate them as their fancies dictate.

Quantity Cooking Done.

The girls also are getting experience in cooking in quantities by filling special orders which come to the school from hostesses who desire to have home-cooked delicacies at their parties. The pupils have prepared baked hams for supper parties, and cookies and cakes for afternoon teas. Recently they baked 500 cookies for one party. The food prepared in the regular cooking classes is sent each day to the school cafeteria.

The pupils are taken on tours of the mines and industrial plants of the city so that they learn the value of commercial products and how to buy them judiciously.

It has been varying for several weeks, with 26 cents a pound for hens less than four pounds as the lowest price.

SOFT-DRINK MAN MISSING

MRS. HERMAN GAUTSCHI ASKS POLICE FOR HELP.

Husband Reported Absent From Home Since Tuesday; Money Trouble Suspected.

Herman Gautschi, well known in the local Swiss colony, has not been seen in Portland since Tuesday noon and his wife, fearing that he has met with foul play or become a victim of aphasia, notified District Attorney Evans yesterday of his disappearance. He had been considerably worried over business affairs lately, she said. Gautschi, who was proprietor of a soft-drink establishment at 108 North Sixth street, had acted in the informal role of banker for some of his fellow-countrymen, according to information in the hands of the district attorney, and was known to have accepted for safekeeping recently about $1200 in Liberty bonds, $800 in war savings stamps and $250 in cash. The man who gave him the cash to keep was the last friend to see him, it was reported to Evans. He had sought the return of his money for some time, he told the district attorney, but Gautschi had told him that the key to his safe-deposit box in a local bank had been lost, and that he had been necessary to send east for a new one. The man, whose name was not disclosed yesterday, conferred with the district attorney regarding the matter and was advised to insist that Gautschi go to the bank with him.

Tuesday noon the pair made their way to the bank. Near the central postoffice building Gautschi excused himself on the plea that he had a letter to mail. It was said. He has not been seen since.

Constable Gloss was given a search warrant yesterday for the safe-deposit box, but reported that there was no marker key and that it could not be opened except by force. Such action was not decided on yesterday.

Mrs. Gautschi said yesterday that financial matters had to some degree on her husband's mind for some time past. He had not given her money enough to cover house-keeping expenses for several months, explaining that business was poor. Gautschi lived at 1025 East Twenty-second street, North, and has a wife and two children. Mrs. Gautschi described him yesterday as about six feet tall, slender, weighing about 145 pounds, 41 years of age, with brown eyes, blue hair, and a well-brown green suit and green beaver hat.

STRAWBERRY SLUMP DUE

CLACKAMAS CROP EXPECTED ON MARKET THIS WEEK.

Present 35-Cent Price Probably Will Hold Until Quantity Is Increased.

Oregon strawberries are still 35 cents a basket, and will continue to be about that price until the quantity has increased. The Oregon berries on the market now come from southern Oregon, but those from Hood River are expected to be in soon if the weather is favorable. The berries from the Clackamas district will be in this week, it is expected. The Oregon berries are as the quantities become reasonably large, is expected to be much cheaper than last year, and with the price of sugar down also, housewives will be able to do their usual amount of canning and preserving.

Strawberries from California are on sale for 20 and 25 cents a bunch. The first gooseberries are in the market at 10 cents a pound. At some stores the are two boxes for 25 cents. Asparagus is higher this week, due to the cold nights and the high water. It is selling at 18 cents a pound or 20 and 25 cents a bunch.

Fresh green peas from California at 20 cents a pound, Oregon spinach at three pounds for a quarter, new potatoes at three pounds for 25 cents and rhubarb at 5 cents a pound are all popular. New beets, turnips and carrots from California sell at 25 cents for two pounds, and new cabbage from California is two pounds for 15 cents. There are green string beans at 30 cents a pound, new California tomatoes at 25 cents, eggplant at 45 cents a pound and artichokes at two for a quarter. California green celery, suits of Gold-floving and salads, sells for 20 cents a bunch.

New Oregon carrots will be in the market in about ten days, it is expected, and local peas in about two weeks.

TWO CAUGHT IN DRUG RAID HELD FOR BAIL

Court Examination Reveals Criminal Record.

ACCUSED MEN SERENE

Officers Assert Cocaine and Morphine Adulterated to Wring Bigger Profits From Victims.

Ball for William Wallace and Peter Rovengo, alleged leaders of an extensive ring of dealers in illicit narcotics, who were arrested Thursday with a fortune in cocaine and morphine in their possession, was fixed yesterday at $5000 each by A. F. Flegel Jr., assistant United States attorney, in charge of narcotic prosecutions.

Both were held in jail as they were unable to put up bail, but they expected to secure funds from Seattle and leave their cells soon. Frederick H. Drake was retained as their attorney to determine if facts warranted their being held to the federal grand jury on charges of having violated the Harrison anti-drug law.

Pair Sentenced Criminals.

When being questioned by federal officers following his arrest, Rovengo denied he was accompanying Wallace or that he knew him. Wallace, however, had admitted he knew Rovengo and the officers say they have evidence that the two worked together in selling illicit drugs.

Both had the air of seasoned criminals when being examined in the federal building. They did not talk much, although Wallace admitted having been arrested in Tacoma, month ago on an anti-narcotic act violation charge and said he paid a fine of $250.

Cocaine Adulteration Shown.

Close examinations of some of the cocaine vials in the grip carried by Rovengo when arrested showed, it was said, that adulteration of the cocaine had been made. Corks had been drawn, it was said, and sugar or milk or some harmless powder substituted for a portion of the narcotic. Seals, labels and glue found in the grip with the drugs indicated this practice was used to wring even larger profits from the victims of the morphine and cocaine vendors.

City warrants were issued yesterday charging illegal possession of contraband narcotics against William Maher, Harry Davis and Abe Goldberg, who were arrested by city and federal officers this week.

The Japanese consul here has entered protest with the dominion government at Ottawa against the validating act, Mr. Farris said.
