

100 ARE KILLED IN TULSA RAGE RIOTS

Oklahoma Town Is Under Martial Law; Troops on Duty.

BLACK BELT GUARDED

6000 Negroes Are Prisoners in Baseball Park and Other Places Under Heavy Guard.

Finally a torch was applied to the building, forcing out the occupants, who fled as they ran. Several negroes were killed.

Large white crowds invaded the negro district, shooting their way through. Some time after midnight the negro district was a smoking ruin. Officials estimate that more than 25 separate fires were set.

Tonight officials, civilian and military, were taking every precaution to prevent a recurrence of the trouble.

Negroes Thought Dead in Homes.

Accurate estimates of the number of negro dead, officials said, were impossible tonight because of the varied and conflicting reports. The estimates ranged from 70 to 175. The estimate of 175 was made by Inspector Daley, second in command of the Tulsa police, when he received a telephone message to the governor he gave it as his opinion that many negroes had burned to death when their homes were fired.

Early tonight police headquarters had reports that conservative estimates of the dead would be about 25 whites and 60 negroes.

Events piled fast on each other. Dawn brought with it reports of shooting throughout the negro section, followed by a mounting casualty list, burning of the negro quarter, arrival of national guardsmen and finally martial law.

Prompt medical attention was given wounded at hospitals and dressing stations. Civil organizations and citizens who volunteered their services cared for the negro refugees. Ice water and sandwiches were served.

Call Sent for Nurses.

Special care was given to the infirm and a call was sent to nearby towns for nurses.

The early fighting gave way to sporadic firing later, and by noon the city was quiet and officials declared the situation under control. However, scattered firing again was heard.

Firing of the negro section drove residents out by the hundreds. They rushed from their homes through the flames, shouting "don't shoot." Placed under guard, they were collected in hastily improvised camps.

Adjutant-General Barrett of the Oklahoma national guard was placed in command of the situation about noon by Governor Robertson, who telegraphed the general that he had invoked martial law and was holding him responsible for "maintenance of order, safety of lives and protection of property."

200 Soldiers on Duty. He was directed to "do all things necessary to attain these objects." It was estimated that the general had 200 or more guardsmen at his disposal stationed at strategic points.

The trouble was supposed to have originated in connection with the arrest of Dick Rowland, negro, who was alleged to have attacked an orphan girl.

After crowds of negroes had marched by the county jail last night, where Rowland was confined, authorities spirited him out of the city early today.

Following the firing of the first shot about 10 o'clock last night at 26th and Boston streets, the fighting spread. At one time 2000 armed white men were reported to have engaged the negroes.

Railroad stations were the scene of several encounters and a number of casualties resulted when trains were fired upon. Women and children huddled together in the station, seeking safety behind marble slabs of wainscoting.

Negro Quarter Guarded.

With the arrival of guardsmen early today, reinforcing the local national guard, a cordon was thrown about the negro quarter and an effort made to force the surrender of the negroes. Citizens and members of the fire force joined with the guardsmen in the work.

Negroes captured during the night were declared by the authorities to have been active combatants. They were held under close guard at the police station. Today decision to round up all fugitives and non-combatants was made. When convention hall was filled, McNulty baseball park was turned into a detention camp. It was estimated that 2000 refugees and prisoners were being held at convention hall and 8000 at the baseball park. Lines of armed men and guardsmen patrolled the negroes.

Firemen Are Helpless.

Twenty-four negro riot prisoners were in jail. R. C. Adler, fire chief, declared it was impossible for his men to get their equipment into the negro quarter to fight the flames, asserting "it would mean a fireman's life to turn a stream of water on one of those negro buildings," alleged to have been set on fire by bands of armed white men. For a time white residence sections were endangered.

Under orders of General Barrett, all citizens are being searched for arms. A check of the morgues tonight showed eight known white dead. They were:

Walter Dagg, local manager of the Pierce Oil corporation.
Arthur James, Wynona, Okla.
Cleo Shumate, Tulsa, son of Mrs. William Ingersoll, Newcastle, Kan.
Carl D. Iotspolch, 26, Tulsa.
Man identified as F. M. Barker, Haviland, Kan., who carried an identification card with the name of Norman Gillard, Tulsa.
Homer C. Cline, 16, Tulsa.
S. J. Withrow, 19, Tulsa.
Unidentified man about 40 years.

WINDOWS OF TRAIN SHOT UP

Passenger Is Damaged in Passing Through Riot-Torn Town.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., June 1.—Mute evidence of the fury of the race clash at Tulsa was borne by a St. Louis & San Francisco passenger train which arrived today from the east. Many windows in one of the coaches had been shot out and the sides of the coaches were scarred by bullets. None of the passengers was injured.

J. E. Lucas, a traveling salesman, gave a vivid account of the fighting in the vicinity of the St. Louis & San Francisco depot at Tulsa. "The fighting seemed to center around the station," he said. "The place was virtually besieged from 10 o'clock last night until 2 o'clock this morning. A number of women and children huddled terror-stricken in the women's rest room and crouched behind marble wainscoting."

RAIL LABOR BOARD ORDERS WAGE CUT

Average Reduction Declared to Be 12 Per Cent.

2,000,000 MEN AFFECTED

Decrease of $400,000,000 Yearly in Payrolls Said to Be Result of New Regulation.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Approximately two-thirds of the wage increase granted railroad employes last July by the railroad labor board was ordered deducted, beginning July 1, in the board's decision announced today.

From the wage increase last year of $600,000,000 a year for railroad labor, nearly $400,000,000 will be cut, it was estimated.

In the case of the general class of maintenance-of-way laborers, the entire increase of 52 cents an hour was withdrawn.

The decrease, it was estimated, eventually will affect 2,000,000 men. The general average decrease was placed at 12 per cent, as compared with an average of 21 per cent increase granted last July.

H. E. Byram, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and S. M. Felton, president of the Chicago Great Western, declared that the reductions granted were "not sufficient to meet the demands of the situation."

Following are the reductions, compared with the increases a year ago ordered for some of the principal classes of railroad employes:

FIGHT BY UNIONS IS THREAT

Official Declares Men Will Quit if Wages Are Reduced.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 1.—Union railway employes in Seattle and west of the Missouri river will quit work rather than accept a cut in wages, W. W. Wolcott, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen of the western lines of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad, declared today.

The sentiment of the men has already been fairly well determined before the decision of the railroad labor board in Chicago was made public last night, he said.

"The men cannot afford to accept a cut," Mr. Wolcott said, "and they believe that if the railroads were honestly directed and managed they could still earn money without reduction of wages. Furthermore, they believe that with a wage cut the roads will have to reduce freight and passenger rates, and if that is the case, where will a wage cut benefit them?"
