Pythians Elect Officers—Cosmopolitan lodge, No. 109, Knights of Pythias, elected the following officers, Wednesday night, to serve during the term of six months beginning July 1: J. E. Dempsey, chancellor; D. F. Williams, vice-chancellor; F. G. Gilstrap, president; Dr. R. T. Brennan, master of work; Henry Friedlander, master of exchequer; Charles W. Baker, master at arms; F. W. Stoops, inner guard; J. J. Gillman, outer guard; L. C. Otto, W. H. Young and B. F. Sherwood were elected to serve as delegates to the grand lodge convention and E. J. Gillman, H. P. Webster, H. V. Williams and W. S. Titus alternate representatives.

Fireworks Display Planned—To assist in entertaining the Rose Festival crowds, the Oaks amusement park has planned an unusually beautiful and spectacular display of fireworks for Wednesday night, June 8. Hundreds of dollars have been spent to make the event even better than the gorgeous displays of fireworks for previous years.

GENERAL PASSENGER AGENT COMING—A. L. Craig, general passenger agent of the Union Pacific system at Omaha, formerly general passenger agent of the O.-W. R. & N. here, will be in Portland during the Rose Festival, accompanied by Mrs. Craig. They have not been in Portland for 15 years and never have seen the festival, nor have they ever driven over the Columbia river highway.

Messenger Strikes Ends—According to the managers of the Western Union and Postal telegraph companies, the strike of messenger boys, which developed Wednesday when a slight reduction in wages was announced, is practically ended.

DRINK SALESMEN FINED—On two consecutive days, Charles Derogatis and Sam Carlesio rotated in selling drinks of more than the legal volume to government operatives. At that time they had a soft drink establishment at 368 First street. When they appeared before Judge Bean to plead guilty yesterday, their place was closed by order of council. They were fined $200 each, on the recommendation of Assistant United States Attorney Maguire.

BUILDING TAKEN OVER—J. C. Darles, right-of-way agent for the Spokane, Portland & Seattle railway, has taken charge of the Chamber of Commerce building, which recently was exchanged for property on the east side. Eventually, the railway company will move its offices there, but it will be about one year before the present lease expires.

WESTOVER BARGAIN—One of Westover's best lots overlooking city, mountain and river, unobstructed view. You should see it before buying elsewhere. Will sell for very low figure, which will save you considerable. Will consider automobile as part payment. Terms to readable party. Let me show it to you. Mr. Clemens, 190 N. Broadway, Phone Edwy. 4184.—Adv.

PORTLANDERS TO VISIT EUROPE—A party of ten Portland men and women will visit Europe during the summer, leaving Montreal July 2, and returning September 15. Their journey will take them through England, Holland, Belgium, France, Alsace-Lorraine, Switzerland and Italy.

DRUNKEN DRIVER LOSES LICENSE—Marion Jackovich, who steered his automobile in an uncertain course while under the influence of liquor last week, was fined $50 and ordered to stop driving for one year when he pleaded guilty to guilty yesterday in municipal court.

WOMAN SHOPLIFTER GETS SIX MONTHS—Fannie Ortel, shoplifter de luxe whose name is known nationally to department store detectives, was sentenced to six months in the penitentiary yesterday by Circuit Judge Kavanaugh when she changed her plea from not guilty to guilty to the charge of shoplifting.

TWO WOMEN ASK DIVORCES—Fred Lorna Broughton left his wife, Pearl Alma Broughton, saying that he had tuberculosis and had to go to Arizona. Instead of doing so, she asserted in a divorce suit filed yesterday in the circuit court, he went with another woman through city streets by a woman detective of the store.

FREE DENTAL CLINIC—A limited number of patients who desire operative dental treatment will be accepted at North Pacific Dental college commencing at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, June 4. No plate work desired. All work by graduate dentists now taking the state examination. E. 6th and Oregon sts. Inquire for Dr. F. W. Holter, president, or Dr. W. D. McMillan, secretary.—Adv.

TAX REDUCTION TOPIC—Plans for working out some scheme for a reduction of the tax rate in Portland will be taken up at the luncheon of the realty board at the Portland hotel today at noon. Speakers will include: Milton A. Miller, L. J. Goldsmith, Frederick W. Muirky, Henry Reed, Joseph N. Teal and Robert Strong. W. R. Shively will be chairman of the day.

JAPANESE STENCILS EXHIBITED—An interesting collection of Japanese stencils is now on exhibition in the central library. The stencils are the property of Mrs. W. L. Tennant and were loaned to the library for exhibition purposes. The art of stenciling is old in Japan. It has been applied to the decoration of textile fabrics for hundreds of years in that country.

SPECIAL AUTOMOBILE OWNERS' COURSE FOR WOMEN—Practical work on real equipment, not a lecture course—beginning Tuesday evening, June 7, at 7:15—and running for five weeks. To enroll call at the automobile school of the Oregon Institute of Technology at Sixth and Main streets, or telephone Mr. Dinsdale at Main 8700.—Adv.

AMATEUR MOONSHINER FINED—Mike Lash, amateur moonshiner, paid a $200 fine in municipal court yesterday for the possession of two quarts of "white mule" product of his own making. Police who raided his home, 450 North Twenty-third street, found a small copper still in operation and half a gallon of the finished product.

CRESTON COMMUNITY CLUB TO MEET—The Creston Community club will meet tonight in the Creston school auditorium. A good program has been prepared and all members of Creston community are urged to attend. The matter of representation in the floral parade is to come before this meeting.

JEWISH SERVICES TONIGHT—Services will be held at the Congregation Novab Zedeck Tefud Torah, Sixth and Hall streets, tonight at 8 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Rev. Abraham L. Rosenkrantz will officiate. Religious school Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. Services will be held at the Congregation Ahavas Shalom, Park and Clay streets, tonight at 8 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. Rabbi R. Abraham will officiate.

WRIT THIS SENTENCED—John Carter, whose theft of copper wire from the block system of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company near Lents put the signals out of commission, was sentenced to six months in the county jail by Presiding Circuit Judge Kavanaugh yesterday. Carter changed a plea of not guilty to guilty. The offense is a felony under a special statute.

SHEEP DIP DRINKING FATAL—Walter Schor, a shoemaker, 48 years old, is at St. Vincent's hospital recovering from sheep dip poisoning. He drank a quantity of the poison at his home, 140 Russell street, Wednesday night. He denied to hospital authorities that he had been taken with suicidal intent.
