SAN FRANCISCO, June 3 .- (Special.)—All the thrills in yesterday's game were crowded into two innings, when each team went on a batting spree. The Oaks won the contest, 7-4, but had Dick Cox kept his head up in the ninth there is no telling what would have happened, for the Beavers were in the midst of a batting jamboree when Dick overran second base and was caught on Wille's throw to Brubaker. As it was, Manager Mitze was afraid Lefty Winn could not finish the score and he sent in Kremer. The latter pitched to only one man, Krug, who flew out to Miller to end the game. This was the fourth straight game for the Oaks.

Herman Pillette looked good for six Innings, but in the seventh the Oaks gave him a terrific drubbing. They massed eight clean, hard hits for five runs. Winn began it with a double. The Oaks batted clear around, everyone of them getting a hit except Denie Wille. Winn was up the second time in that round and closed the linning by striking out.

Beavers Helpless to Ninth.

The Oaks had made two runs before that uprising, but one of them was a gift by Umpire Toman. Pillette had Hack Miller struck out, which would have retired the side, but Toman walked him, and then Jack Knight made his second and Knight's planch poke.

The Deavers were helpless until Eastern and the Selating of t Herman Pillette looked good for six
