AUTO THUGS ARE JAILED

WOMAN LURED INTO MACHINE. KICKED AND BEATEN.

Attacked Mrs. Ed Knox Fights Assallant and Throws Herself From Car.

After trading some strawberries with a man they met early in the afternoon for a bottle of moonshine whisky, Leonard L. Wilson, 33, East Eighty-sixth and Thompson streets, and Leon V. Starr, 17, living at Montavilla, invited Mrs. Ed Knox, 4322 East Forty-first street, into their automobile and later mistreated her. She finally leaped from the car. They were arrested last night and are booked at police headquarters.

It was not until about 8 o'clock that the police got a connected story out of the unusual affair, Young Starr confessed to the details. He mainconfessed to the details. He main-tained that Wilson did the "rough" work and that Wilson had been drink-

Mrs. Knox had started for the city ars. Know had started for the city to do some shopping and was waiting for a car at East Thirty-ninth street and Sandy boulevard when the men in the automobile drew up and asked her if she wanted to ride. She got into the machine and after driving a few blocks down Sandy boulevard the men turned south. They explained in reply to her inquiry that they would turn in on Belmont street. She said later that she then got the impression that the men had been drinking. At Belmont street the car was turned east instead of west and the men became discourteous and made a number of rude remarks to Mrs. Knox. When she attempted to get out one jumped into the rear seat with he and a struggle began during which the woman was kicked in the stomach and beaten. She finally succeeded in forcing the door open and threw her-self to the pavement, receiving a number of bruises and tearing her clothes When she returned home Mrs Knox telephoned her husband, an automo-

Port Asks Liquidation of Claim Against Morris Bros., Inc.

The Port of Bay City asked that its claim for $3528 against Morris Bros. Inc., be liquidated, in a hearing yeaterday afternoon before Federal Judge Wolverton, The judge took the case under advisement.

The Port asserts that it agreed to sell to Morris Bros. $265,000 worth of bonds at an agreed rate of $101.55 with accrued interest. All but $60,000 with accrued Interest. All but $60,000 of the bonds had been delivered to Morris Bros. Inc., and paid for, ex-cept accrued interest in the sum of $1550 last year, the Port of Bay City states. The final $60,000 were to be delivered January I, 1921, but the bond house filed its voluntary petition in bankruptcy December 20, 1920. On January 3, the Port of Bay City tendered Its bonds to the receiver and demanded payment for them and when payment was not accepted. offered the bonds for sale on the public market, selling them for $53,-142 and accrued interest, making the damages against Morris Bros., Inc., $9238, it was charged yesterday.
