LEGION CHAPLAIN COMING

REV. JOHN W. INZER BOOKED AT WHITE TEMPLE.

Minister to Speak at Morning and Night Services—Ex-Soldiers Asked to Attend.

Rev. John W. Inzer, national chaplain of the American Legion and pastor of the First Baptist church of Chattanooga, Tenn., who comes to Oregon to open the legion convention at Eugene tomorrow, will speak both morning and night Sunday at the White Temple. Special efforts have been made to persuade as many ex-service men and Legion members as possible to attend both services. At the Sunday morning service

Rev. John W. Inzer, national chaplain of American Legion, who will speak in Portland.

Rev. Mr. Inzer will speak on "Where is Life?" and at night his topic will be "Your American Citizenship," the latter being a subject that has made the chaplain famous since he assumed a leading part in the American Legion.

Rev. Mr. Inzer is a young man. He was born January 8, 1899, in Texas, and at the age of 19 entered the ministry in a pastorate at Birmingham, Ala. At the outbreak of the war he entered the service and served with the 14th infantry in the northwest. He was transferred to Camp Dodge, where he was senior chaplain, and after the armistice was moved to Camp Grant, Ill., where he served until March, 1919.

When the American Legion was attempting to perfect its organization, Chaplain Inzer became a member of its executive committee and spent much time lecturing in behalf of the organization. He became pastor of the Chattanooga church in November, 1919, and less than a year later was made national chaplain of the legion in the Cleveland convention.

ROSS LEDFORD HELD.—Ross Ledford, who, with Albert Salgado, attacked Charles M. Ferris, messenger boy, Friday night, was held to answer to the grand jury by Municipal Judge Rossmann yesterday on a charge of assault with intent to kill. Ledford was placed at $1000. Salgado, who is still in the hospital as the result of a bullet wound inflicted by Special Deputy Sheriff Paul when he resisted arrest, will have a hearing later.

POLICE GET MOONSHINE IN RAID—When the police raided the room of Violet Kerns in the Spokane hotel and arrested her on a charge of selling liquor she swallowed a marked $10 bill with which liquor had been purchased from her, according to testimony of Patrolman Hatt and Sergeant Oelsner in municipal court yesterday. She was fined $15. The police obtained a bottle partially filled with moonshine.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR DELEGATES LEAVE FOR NEW YORK—At 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon Christian Endeavor delegates will leave the Union station for the 1921 international convention in New York city. Interest is being taken in this event as the delegates carry an official invitation to the trustees of the united society to hold the 1923 international convention in Portland.

EDUCATION OF FOREIGNERS ADVOCATED—A greater Americanism brought about through education of foreigners so that they may become like citizens is advocated by Mrs. Nellie Goodman of Boston, national president of the Daughters of Veterans, who is in Portland. Mrs. Goodman has just returned from the Washington state convention of her organization held in Olympia.

ANGRY HUBBY ARRESTED—When he became angry with his wife yesterday morning J. Grenitz, 765 Hood street, went out to the garage and began venting his spleen upon that structure with a hatchet, according to the story told the police. He was arrested by Motorcycle Patrolmen Fleming and Jewell on a charge of disorderly conduct.

EMPLOYER FINED $25—On complaint of Labor Commissioner Gram, Sam Harris, proprietor of the Busy Bee restaurant on North Sixth street, was convicted in District Judge Hawkins' court yesterday of employing girls in his establishment for more than 48 hours a week. He was fined $25.
