FIRE LAW ON HOTELS

MAY BE AMENDED Marshal to Submit Changes to City Council.

INTENT HELD DEFEATED

Judge Rossmann's Decision Is Declared to Have Defeated Purpose of Ordinance.

Amendments to the ordinance, designed to remove fire hazards from hotels and lodging houses, will be drawn immediately, according to Fire Marshal Grenfell, and submitted to the city council for consideration.

The decision of Municipal Judge Rossmann, officials of the city said, the intention of the ordinance has been lost, and Fire Marshal Grenfell was of the opinion that the lives of many people, living in various hotels and lodging houses, not now complying with the intent of the ordinance, have been placed in jeopardy.

The ordinance, the fire marshal pointed out, was drawn to give all hotels and lodging houses three methods of safeguarding patrons.

It was intended that each such institution either have a fire escape for every apartment or sleeping room, a sprinkling system in the basement and all corridors, or have all elevator shafts and stairways inclosed.

Municipal Judge Rossmann has held that if a fire escape can be reached without going through a room it is a "direct connection" with any of the rooms on the floor.

Fire Marshal Grenfell was in conference yesterday with City Commissioners Barbur and Bigelow and Building Inspector Plummer.

Barbur Has Nothing to Say. Commissioner Barbur was not ready to announce what stand he would take, but explained that if it could be shown that the protection sought by the fire marshal was necessary he would favor an amendment to the ordinance.

"I do not want to place any burdens upon the owners of the hotels and lodging houses, but if it can be shown that the lives of the public are in jeopardy by the failure of adequate fire prevention, I will favor the enactment of an amendment which will cover the situation properly."

A trip over the Columbia highway, followed by a banquet at the Multnomah hotel, will feature the programme for the northwest members of the Pacific Coast Gas association, which will convene here Saturday according to William M. Kaplan, president of the organization.

About 100 delegates are expected to take part in the auto trip. At the banquet Judge Robert G. Morrow will make the principal address on "Reminiscences of the Gas Industry."

A topic of particular interest to the members will be the discussion of the problems and plans which will be taken up by the convention of the Pacific Coast Gas association which will be held in September at the Del Monte hotel at Monterey, Cal.

The annual convention of the association was held in Portland last year.

A number of gas men from out of town will be present at the meeting, which is scheduled for 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the hotel. Among them Henry Bostwick, vice-president, and W. M. Henderson, secretary, of the association; Charles A. Dickey, president of the American Meter company, of Baltimore; E. J. Young, general manager of the Tacoma Gas & Fuel company; and M. C. In the past discharges have been issued more than at present, accompanied by the statement that the applicant for the discharge was making no military district.

According to the new ruling, the application for a discharge "will be accompanied by a sworn statement of the applicant for discharge showing the date of his permanent removal from the military district, his destination and the reason in detail for such removal."

The telegram follows: "Portland post No. 1, American Legion, voicing the views of 7900 ex-service men, stands unequivocally opposed to further delays in adoption of bonus legislation. Keen disappointment will prevail unless immediate steps are taken for its adoption. Promises should be kept. We request that you support the stand of our national legislative committee."

POLK COUNTY STIRS IRE

Citizens in Other Sections Protest Opposition to Highway. As a protest against the attitude of Polk county in fighting the state highway commission's plans for building the West Side highway south of Monmouth, it is said several counties plan to intervene in the case. The counties reported preparing to take this step are Lincoln, Benton, Yamhill and Wheeler.

The theory of intervention is based on the statement that these counties have bonded themselves for the development of state roads which will be of benefit to the entire state, and that because of the opposition in Polk county all the nearby counties are being made to suffer through delay in the construction of the highway through Polk county.
