MURPHY IS BOOKED

Simonich and Dave Shade to Meet Denver Fighter.

GOOD BOUTS EXPECTED

Welterweight to Break Into Top Ranks of Boxing Within Next Four Weeks.

BY DICK SHARP.

Frankie Murphy, the rugged Denwer welterweight, will have the op-portunity of fighting his way into the topmost ranks of battlers in his divi-

His first opportunity to grab off . the calcium will be his ten-round me-lee with Joe Simonich at Milwaukie Wednęsday night. Figuring that he should pollsh off Simonich, he will have the chance to cop the coast wel-ter crown when he battles Dave Shade in the ten-round main event of an all-star card at Marshfield, Or., August 19, in the course of the state convention of the Elks.

convention of the Elks.

Murphy has begun to train in earnest for his coming scraps and is determined to trim both of his opponents. If he gets over both Simon'th and Shade the one remaining obstacle to a clear claim on the Pacific coast to a clear claim on the Pacific coast welterweight championship would be Travis Davis of Everett. Wash.

Although Davis has beaten a lot of classy performers, he failed to get better than a draw with Shade. Simonich or Claire Bromeo. Shade beat Bromeo and Simonich within a span of two weeks. Then again Murphy and Davis are not strangers, having fought a draw in Seattle about a year ago.

The Denver boxer is the toughest proposition around 148 pounds that has ever fought here. His great fights with Johnny McCarthy, Alex Trambitas, Johnny Tillman, Stanley Willis, Dave Shade and Jack Edmundsen convinced the boxing fans that Willis, Dave Shade and Jack Edmundson convinced the boxing fans that they were always in for a fight with Murphy on the card, and they have never yet been disappointed.

Abe Mishkind, the stocky little Sait Lake 130-pounder, is training with Murphy. Mishkind will also swing in action on Wednesday night's card, meeting Young Sam Langford of Seattle. If Abe gets over Langford he will be pitted against Joe Gorman on one of the forthcoming cards at Milwaukie. Langford has always given Gorman a hard fight always given Gorman a hard fight and if Mishkind can hand him anything he can be set down as a worthy Bouts between Eddle Gorman and Bouts between Eddie Gorman and Niel Zimmerman and Eddle Richards and Johnny Boscivitch are in the making for the bill, but have not yet been clinched by Matchmaker Kendall. Gorman and Zimmerman have put up two siashing battles, both ending in draws. Gorman had the better of the first engagement, while Zimmerman had a clear shade in the list meeting between the two. last meeting between the two.

Dave Shade's broken left hand is well on the mend and he will take it out of the aplints today. Light workouts in the gymnasium will be in order this week and he expects to settle down to some hard training for his coming fight with Frankle Murphy at Marshfifeld by next week. Shade has three or four fights coming up in August and September, every one a tough one.

Mickey Dempsey, the popular young featherweight, will lay off of all boxing until next fall, according to the lad's father, who does not want his youngster to overdo things at this stage of the game. Dempsey is just a kid, and a rest will do him a world of good. He fought almost every week for a stretch and too much battling for a boy his age will not help the future any. Mickey is taking on weight all the time, and by next year should be a full-fledged lightweight.

by next year should be a full-fiedged lightweight.

Johnny Fiske, who fought here a number of times last winter, is now in Manila and will make his first start this week against one of the Filipino champs around his weight. Evidently Freddie Welsh, ex-light-

Evidently Freddle Welsh, ex-light-weight champion is not looking for anything rough, as he has picked on Bert Forbes of Seattle as his oppo-nent for a fight in Calgary, Can-next month. Forbes has been sub-jected to a lot of lacing the past year and Bud Ridley knocked him out in Vancouver not so long ago.
