LABOR OPPOSES ADMISSION OF COOLIES TO HAWAII.

Proposed Legislation Called Move in Plot to Bring Orientals to Mainland.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—Efforts to pass legislation permitting the importation of Chinese coolies into Hawaii is a "conspiracy" that has behind it the "eventual admission to the United States" of the legislative committee of the American Federation of Labor charged in a report made public today.

Representatives of the sugar industry in Hawaii, the report said, have advised sugar men of this country not to interfere with the enactment of a law permitting Chinese coolies to enter Hawaii.

It is the entering wedge; if we get them in here, we will have no trouble getting them into the United States," the report said with the actual wording was turned down by the soviet government.

HONOLULU, July 26.—E. F. Bishop, president of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters' association, characterized as "absolute falsehood" the report of the executive committee of the American Federation of Labor, made public at Washington today, insofar as it charged a conspiracy on the part of Hawaiian planters to provide for admission of Chinese coolies into the United States.

FATHER STABS DAUGHTER

Girl Attacked After Refusal to Return to Parental Home.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., July 26.—(Special.)—I forgive my father for I suppose he was lonely without me, but I cannot leave my aunt, who is the only mother I have ever known, declared 19-year-old Marjorie Sarah of Islin tonight, as she lay in Rahway hospital, one arm rendered useless for life by a slash of her father's knife.

"I don't know why I did it. I must have been insane. I wouldn't knowingly hurt a hair of my little girl's head," moaned her father, Isber Sarah, in his cell, where he was held to await the outcome of his daughter's injuries.

Before daylight this morning Sarah crawled through an open window into the room where his daughter lay sleeping. Shaking her roughly, he awakened her and ordered her to leave with him on pain of penalty of death. The girl refused. Infructured, Sarah attacked her with a razor, stabbing her ten times and almost severing her left wrist. Then he escaped and hid for several hours in the woods, being captured only after a long chase by a posse of citizens and Woodbridge populace.

GENERAL EXPECTED TO ACCEPT POST IN PHILIPPINES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—(Special.)—At a meeting of special administration officials that Major-General Wood might be willing to reconsider his previous decision to take the post of the governor-generalship of the Philippines.

It was understood that President Harding does not intend to make a choice, however, until he has definite knowledge of what policy the Wood committee investigating conditions in the islands will recommend.

MANILA, P. I., July 26.—Reports reaching the Wood-Forbes investigating mission that persons who made complaints to the mission regarding conduct of government in the Philippines were being persecuted by insular authorities on trumped-up charges caused Major-General Wood and Commissioner Forbes to issue a statement here today saying that they would use all of their power and influence to protect such persons.

General Wood said that the question of freedom of speech would be one of the determining factors in rendering the report of the mission to President Harding.

Preparation for starting the trip to the southern islands of the Philippines group were being rushed today by the Wood-Forbes mission. A brief preliminary report covering certain features of the investigation thus far made, will be sent to President Harding within a few days.

Major-General Wood and Commissioner Forbes, with their party, expected to leave here for Mindanao Saturday and stay three weeks. Returning here at the latter part of August, the mission will remain a week before starting homeward by way of China and Japan.

SOVIET MUST YIELD TO HOOVER'S TERMS

Compliance on Part of Russians Expected.

NEED OF RELIEF URGENT

American Prisoners Probably Will Be Released as Prerequisite to American Help.

BY MARK SULLIVAN

(Copyright by the New York Evening Post, Inc. Published by Arrangement.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26.—(Special.)—The best judgment in Washington is that the Russians will comply with the conditions laid down by Mr. Hoover and will release American prisoners and let the American relief administration function in Russia on its own terms.

It is apparent that there is a bad economic condition in parts of Russia, especially in the north. This bad economic condition rests chiefly on the breakdown of transportation and the failure of the soviet theory of making the railroads and other instruments of transportation.

The belief is borne out by news received privately in Washington from Russia as well as by the mere fact of Russia's soliciting the aid of the American relief administration at this time. Ordinarily the present, which is a period of ripening crops, should not be a period of economic distress, and Russia should be less likely now to make concessions in exchange for relief from America than some months ago, when the same tender was made by the American relief administration and was turned down by the soviet government.

Prisoners Real Issue.

Politically, the heart of this episode lies in Mr. Hoover's demand that American prisoners be released. That is the issue which has always stood between the soviet government and the American government. There are only about ten of these prisoners. They include two Red Cross captives, a newspaper woman, two moving picture men, and a few others.

Five or ten prisoners, more or less, ought not to mean much to the soviet authorities, but the theory held here is that the soviet government hitherto has wanted to use these prisoners as a pawn. It wanted the American government to make an official request to the soviet government for release of these prisoners. That would have constituted an act of recognition by the American government. This, however, is precisely what the American government will not do. The position of the government is that the soviet government must first release the prisoners and then ask for recognition.

Of course, the recent communication to the soviet government from Mr. Hoover as head of the American relief administration has nothing to do with the American government. Mr. Hoover was acting in his capacity of private citizen as head of the American relief administration and not in his capacity as a member of Mr. Harding's cabinet.

Soviet May Understand.

Probably, however, the soviet guesses, as well as most people in Washington guess, that Mr. Hoover, as a member of President Harding's cabinet, has naturally been called upon because of his unusual knowledge of Russian conditions to supply most of the information and advice which have guided the attitude of the

AMERICAN GOVERNMENT ON THIS QUESTION.

Mr. Hoover's present action, however, is wholly unofficial, in response to calls of distress sent out by prominent literary men in Russia. Hoover has offered to supply and conduct relief in that country on exactly the same conditions on the part of the organization is already applying relief in Poland, Estonia, Bulgaria and other countries on the border of Russia. The only condition Mr. Hoover has added in the case of Russia is that the American prisoners held by the soviet government shall be released.

Trade Not Interdicted.

The present episode provides a good occasion for correcting a misunderstanding. The American government's attitude toward the Russian government. It is commonly believed that the American government prevents trade with Russia on the part of American business men. This is not true. American business men can trade with the Russian government and do trade with it.

The meeting ground for such trade is in the United States. American business men have sold a large stock of shoes to the Russian government, and very recently some American business men have sold a large stock of shoes to the Russian government. Other similar transactions have taken place.

The American government does not interdict this trade. The American government has merely refused the request of the soviet government for a treaty of commerce with Russia. Such a treaty of commerce would, of course, include recognition of the soviet government, and the American government is unwilling to give this recognition so long as American prisoners are not released.

EXPRESS MEN MAY QUIT

Strike in Northwest Likely to Follow Wage Reduction.

SPOKANE, Wash., July 26.—(Special.)—Practically 100 per cent of the 1900 express employees of the Pacific northwest are strongly opposed to the 8 cents an hour wage reduction scheduled to go into effect August 1, and undoubtedly will go on strike in August if an attempt is made to eliminate the eight-hour day, according to George I. Maston, head of the northwest expressmen, upon his arrival in Spokane today.

"There will be a strike of the express workers if the agreement for the eight-hour day as time and a half for overtime is stricken out by the American Railway Express company," declared Maston.

"In a straw ballot taken by express lodges in the Pacific northwest, every one voted to go on strike rather than accept the 8 cents an hour cut scheduled to go into effect August 1. I personally feel that the men should accept the cut if working conditions and hours can be retained.

"An official strike ballot is to be taken soon, however, and I will be guided entirely by the wishes of the membership at a general meeting of the express employees' executives to be held in Chicago, August 10, at which time the strike matter will be decided."
