UNEMPLOYED TO GET AID

Citizens' Committee of 1914-15 to Handle Situation.

citizens' committee handled the unemployed situation in 1914-15 again will be called into action to avert a possible impend-ing emmergency in matters of em-ployment. The call for this comnittee to resume work will be made by the chairman of the county com-mission. The first meeting will be held next Tuesday morning at 10:30 held next Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock in the courthouse.

The calling of the committee will be more or less a "safety first" measure. Instead of waiting until a real emmergency does exist efforts will be made to prevent a difficult unemployed situation. Several offers have been made to take care of many unemployed. American Legion men
