

COMMITTEES BUSY WITH BUYERS' WEEK

Every Possible Phase Seems to Be Watched.

RESPONSIBILITY IS FIXED

Workers Expected to Acquit Seives With Credit in Caring for Various Events.

Every possible phase of buyers' week seems to have a committee watching over it. It would appear that positively nothing could go wrong in connection with the big event, because so far as is humanly possible every detail will be looked after by committees. Those groups have been named with a great deal of care, so that those specially fitted for work in carrying out certain details will be on the job.

Responsibility for the various events will be squarely up to these committees and in every case it is believed they will not fail to acquit themselves with credit in putting the big trade event over. The ambition of every committee member is to set a new high standard of success. The entire list of committees and their duties follow:

LA GRANDE FISHERS DINE Feast and Election of Officers Are Held by Club. LA GRANDE, Or., July 27.—(Special.)—The annual fish feed of the Wing, Fin and Fleetfoot club was held Monday night, 141 out of the 152 members being present. For the two days previous to the banquet, the greater majority of the members were out whipping the streams, each with the hope that he might win the prizes for the largest fish caught. J. Conroy won first in the rainbow class, his biggest fish being 18 1/2 inches in length, and Oscar Berger second, with a 16 1/2-inch fish.

Election of officers resulted in the choosing of C. D. Putnam, president; Nate Zweifel, vice-president; A. V. Andrews, secretary-treasurer; L. W. Wright of Union, Ed Tuttle of Elgin, William Kelly of La Grande, Everett Walsinger of Allice, Charles Cleaver of Imbler and A. Becker of Cove, as directors.

ROBBER KICKS MERCHANT

Hood River Japanese Thrown Into Basement and Kept There. HOOD RIVER, Or., July 27.—(Special.)—A masked robber entered the store of Yasui Hideo, a Japanese merchant, soon after the closing hour Monday night and when Jack Yasui, one of the partners, alone in the store, said he could not unlock the safe, where all money had been placed, the Japanese was kicked through a trap door into the basement. Warning the merchant that he would be shot if he showed himself before 30 minutes elapsed, the burglar attempted vainly to open the safe.

Later last night a thief detached a penny chewing gum dispenser in front of a theater, opening it apparently with a pair of wire pliers. He got about 400 pennies. The glass container was smashed and gum strewn over the street.

python ever carried into the United States. One measures 25 feet and the other is 17. They were caught on a tiger hunt in the Malay peninsula. When the boxes were opened in the reptile house Head Keeper Toomey said they were the finest snakes he had ever seen. The pythons will move into the house of the day the length of the boa constrictors.

Leopard Also Received. Just before Mr. Dittmars arrived Head Keeper Toomey received a telephone message from two men who checked on the steamship Satsuma, from Ceylon, with a young leopard aboard. They bought it as a cub in Ceylon, and not knowing that it would grow very much larger brought it home as a pet. When the voyage was over the leopard had grown to such a size that they were looking for a way to rid themselves of the beast.
