

DEFENSE HEARS END IN BASEBALL TRIAL

Major Part of Argument Is Placed Before Jury.

CLIMAX IS DRAMATIC

Zork's Attorney Charges State With Letting Instigators Go Free, Making Others 'Goats.'

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—The defense counsel in the baseball trial today placed the major part of its closing arguments before the jury in a series of pleas brought to a climax in a dramatic address by A. Morgan Frumberg of St. Louis, attorney for Carl Zork, in which he charged that the state, having let the instigators of the baseball scandal go free, was "trying to make goats of underpaid ball players and penny-ante gamblers."

Mr. Frumberg repeatedly asked the jury in reaching its verdict to consider why Arnold Rothstein of New York had never been indicted when the state's witnesses in the trial named him as the financier of the alleged conspiracy, and why J. J. Sullivan of Boston, Racket Brown of New York, Hal Chase and Abe Attell, others who have been termed leaders in the case, were never brought to trial.

Previous to Mr. Frumberg's address Henry Berger had told the jury that Ban Johnson, American league president, had furthered this case in an effort to injure his enemy, Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago American league club, and presented a series of court rulings which he held proved there was no violation of law when the league did throw the 1919 world series games. Michael Ahearn also delved into the conspiracy laws and why J. J. Sullivan of Boston, Racket Brown of New York, Hal Chase and Abe Attell, others who have been termed leaders in the case, were never brought to trial.

Mr. Frumberg attacked by all of the attorneys, Mr. Berger terming him and Billy Maharg the state's ace of clubs and ace of spades. "They are the players who knock and Maharg the spade who dug up Burns."

A three-hour night session was held with Thomas Nash, representing Happy Felich, Buck Weaver and Sidie Ribberg, taking up most of the time. Tomorrow the defense will finish its pleas, the state will present its final rebuttal and the case is expected to go to the jury before tomorrow night.

Johnson Control Charged.

Mr. Nash asked the jury if it did not believe "Rothstein was left out of the case at Ban Johnson's instigation, because Johnson wanted only to get Comiskey by reeking the White Sox team and did not want to involve Rothstein?" Ban Johnson controlled this case and if Rothstein got out it was because one man was willing to let him out," Mr. Nash said.

"Johnson, with more power in baseball than the Russian czar had over his subjects, sneaked to the jury room and gave testimony to the dark which he thought would ruin the players and Comiskey, but he was not man enough to come here in the daylight and testify. He hasn't enough red blood under his skin to do that."

Burns' Woe Challenged.

"Johnson brought Joe Pesch of St. Louis here and kept him from the witness stand by sending him back home because he found Pesch would tell how this case really started. Johnson did not care whom he ruined if he could get Comiskey. Well, he has got him; don't let him make you a party to the ruining of these innocent men upon the basis of his testimony which he claimed to have proved false and asked for a straight verdict of 'not guilty' so as to let the world know that Ban Johnson might run baseball, but that he could not run this jury."

New York Signs Indian Pitcher.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The New York Americans tonight announced the signing of Earl Jamieson, a full-blooded Indian pitcher, to a semi-professional team. Jamieson is 29 years of age and left-handed. His father, who was a Carlisle graduate, pitched for the Philadelphia Nationals in 1898 and 1899.

Baseball Summary.

Table with 2 columns: Team, Score. Includes National League Standings, American League Standings, Western League Results, Southern Association Results, and Pacific Coast League Standings.

OTHER CLUBS CRAB WHEN BEAVERS CAN'T BE MET MORE

All Want to Play With Portland Tribe for Remainder of Season but League Might Have to Buy Five Pennants.

CLIMAX IS DRAMATIC

Zork's Attorney Charges State With Letting Instigators Go Free, Making Others 'Goats.'

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—The defense counsel in the baseball trial today placed the major part of its closing arguments before the jury in a series of pleas brought to a climax in a dramatic address by A. Morgan Frumberg of St. Louis, attorney for Carl Zork, in which he charged that the state, having let the instigators of the baseball scandal go free, was "trying to make goats of underpaid ball players and penny-ante gamblers."

Mr. Frumberg repeatedly asked the jury in reaching its verdict to consider why Arnold Rothstein of New York had never been indicted when the state's witnesses in the trial named him as the financier of the alleged conspiracy, and why J. J. Sullivan of Boston, Racket Brown of New York, Hal Chase and Abe Attell, others who have been termed leaders in the case, were never brought to trial.

Previous to Mr. Frumberg's address Henry Berger had told the jury that Ban Johnson, American league president, had furthered this case in an effort to injure his enemy, Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago American league club, and presented a series of court rulings which he held proved there was no violation of law when the league did throw the 1919 world series games. Michael Ahearn also delved into the conspiracy laws and why J. J. Sullivan of Boston, Racket Brown of New York, Hal Chase and Abe Attell, others who have been termed leaders in the case, were never brought to trial.

Mr. Frumberg attacked by all of the attorneys, Mr. Berger terming him and Billy Maharg the state's ace of clubs and ace of spades. "They are the players who knock and Maharg the spade who dug up Burns."

A three-hour night session was held with Thomas Nash, representing Happy Felich, Buck Weaver and Sidie Ribberg, taking up most of the time. Tomorrow the defense will finish its pleas, the state will present its final rebuttal and the case is expected to go to the jury before tomorrow night.

Johnson Control Charged.

Mr. Nash asked the jury if it did not believe "Rothstein was left out of the case at Ban Johnson's instigation, because Johnson wanted only to get Comiskey by reeking the White Sox team and did not want to involve Rothstein?" Ban Johnson controlled this case and if Rothstein got out it was because one man was willing to let him out," Mr. Nash said.

"Johnson, with more power in baseball than the Russian czar had over his subjects, sneaked to the jury room and gave testimony to the dark which he thought would ruin the players and Comiskey, but he was not man enough to come here in the daylight and testify. He hasn't enough red blood under his skin to do that."

Burns' Woe Challenged.

"Johnson brought Joe Pesch of St. Louis here and kept him from the witness stand by sending him back home because he found Pesch would tell how this case really started. Johnson did not care whom he ruined if he could get Comiskey. Well, he has got him; don't let him make you a party to the ruining of these innocent men upon the basis of his testimony which he claimed to have proved false and asked for a straight verdict of 'not guilty' so as to let the world know that Ban Johnson might run baseball, but that he could not run this jury."

New York Signs Indian Pitcher.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The New York Americans tonight announced the signing of Earl Jamieson, a full-blooded Indian pitcher, to a semi-professional team. Jamieson is 29 years of age and left-handed. His father, who was a Carlisle graduate, pitched for the Philadelphia Nationals in 1898 and 1899.

Baseball Summary.

Table with 2 columns: Team, Score. Includes National League Standings, American League Standings, Western League Results, Southern Association Results, and Pacific Coast League Standings.

COAST MIDDLE TITLE IS CLAIMED BY DARCY

Victory Over Ortega on Foul Cited by Fighter.

CHALLENGE IS ISSUED

Willingness to Meet Winner of Battling Ortega—Frankie Murphy Bout Is Expressed.

BY DICK SHARP.

Jimmy Darcy, who is laying claim to the Pacific coast middleweight championship by virtue of his victory on a foul over Battling Ortega, some weeks ago in Seattle, is perfectly willing to meet the winner of the Battling Ortega-Frankie Murphy contest scheduled for Milwaukee tomorrow night and make the middleweight poundage of 162 at 2 o'clock the day of the contest.

Darcy made his little speech on his return from a fishing trip when he was informed that an evening paper had carried a story quoting Ortega as saying that he was not given a square deal in the Seattle go. Ortega, until he lost to Darcy, was without doubt the recognized middleweight champion of the Pacific coast, his winning battles against such performers as Marty Farrell, Mick King, E. O. Krusky, Spud Murphy, K. O. Brown, Jack Reeves, Ted Lewis, Frank Barriere, Willie Ritchie, not to mention his many sensational battles with Darcy prior to the Seattle event, entitling him to the honors.

Since losing to Darcy, however, even though the decision against him was on a foul, Ortega can no longer claim the coast title, especially as the decision was given Darcy without his assent as protesting the low blow. Darcy's willingness to meet Ortega in a return match speaks volumes for the Roumanian's confidence in his ability to trim the Oakland slugger.

Frankie Murphy, however, says that he will be returned the winner of the bout with Darcy. He is quite sure in his statement to make the middleweight limit of 160 he will accept the challenge in a return match on the coast middleweight king.

Darcy started training yesterday and says that he will never enter the ring again weighing more than 160, for any time that he tips the Fair-weather he will be unable to do himself justice.

Matchmaker Kendall plans to have a talk with the three winners today and hopes to come to an understanding with the boys, and if successful, will stage a show at the arena August 10.

Abe Mishkind, the fighting Salt Lake Hebrew who tangles with Young Sam Langford, the Seattle negro featherweight, is showing heaps of form in his daily workouts at the London club.

The Utah miller is built along the same lines as the Williams, but perhaps a bit faster than the Spanish favorite, has enough aggressiveness to make him a good audience pleaser.

The Abe Gordon-Allie Taylor go has been called off, as Taylor will not be able to come down from Bend owing to the serious illness of his wife. The calling off of this contest will be a keen disappointment to those who had hoped to see the local boys in action, but as there is no available substitute, Matchmaker Kendall will arrange another match to replace this attraction.

Carl Martin, who has not been seen here for some time, will meet Frankie Webb in one of the four-round preliminary events while Charlie Hellman and Bud Vance, a pair of bantams, will box the curtain-raiser.

Midnet Smith, the sensational New York bantamweight, who has been dubbed the Terry McGovern of 1921 by the New York sporting writers, would like to make a trip west before the fall season opens in the east.

Joe Gorman, though he was expected to return Monday, failed to show at the old haunt, it seems that he is now tabulating these entries in the hills fishing these warm days than spending his time in the gymnasiums.

Roy Sutherland, the rugged young-

NORTHWEST TENNIS RULES ARE ADOPTED

Walter A. Goss Returns From Victoria Meeting.

1922 PLAY IS ASSIGNED

Sectional Championships for Boys and Juniors Are Arranged at Session.

BY LAWRENCE G. SMYTH.

Official adoption of the constitution and by-laws of the Pacific Northwest Lawn Tennis association and the assigning of the 1922 sectional championships for boys and juniors to the Tacoma Tennis club were the two most important matters taken care of at the annual meeting of the association in Victoria last week, according to word brought back from the Canadian city by Walter A. Goss, Portland's representative.

Every club in this district holding membership in the organization was represented. Irvington, Multnomah and Waverly of Portland, Lewiston Country club, Lewiston, Idaho; North Vancouver Lawn Tennis club, North Vancouver, B. C.; Portlatch Amateur Athletic club, Portlatch, Idaho; Salem Tennis club, Salem; Seattle Tennis club, Seattle; Spokane Amateur Athletic club, Spokane; Tacoma Lawn Tennis club, Tacoma; Vancouver Lawn Tennis club, Vancouver, B. C.; and the Victoria Lawn Tennis club, Victoria, B. C. All had their delegates present to look after each club's welfare.

Henry Hewitt Elected.

Henry Hewitt, Tacoma, was elected president of the association; Henry S. Gray, Portland, vice-president; and Ernest V. Young, North Vancouver, secretary.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

When every sheet of fly paper is used to bear the ever-recurring injunction: "Chew the border?" P. A. W.

When Colonel Milton Weidner was collector of customs? B. F. D.

The first issue of The Sunday Oregonian—many years ago—a four-page paper, with Thomas B. Mery as editor? E. L. X.

When Jim (Cap) Mason started his first job in the Williams? B. O.

When most young men ran livery-stable bills? C. W.

When the finest strawberries on the Portland market were grown on the slopes of Mount Tabor? J. W. K.

When a bootjack was a necessary article of a completely footed house? E. A. F.

When Weinhard's beer was a very popular summer drink? O. C. W.

Thompson's "Two-Bit House" and his big sign with the heading, "Hiyu muk-a-muck, and here's your Bill of Fare, now's the time to get the wrinkles taken out of your belly after a hard winter?" B. F. J.

When Jacques Fournier, now first baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals, was with the Portland club in the Pacific coast league? OREGON CITY.

When it was often necessary to page your dad at the Gem or Portland club? E. C. S.

Ex-County Commissioner Lightner's "Merchants' Cafe" at about No. 3 First street North? to card tables or chairs—you got your eye-opener and said good-bye? J. H. H.

When the First Presbyterian church stood on the northwest corner of Third and Washington streets and the big wind blew the steeple down? M. C. M.

CHALLENGE IS ISSUED

Willingness to Meet Winner of Battling Ortega—Frankie Murphy Bout Is Expressed.

BY DICK SHARP.

Jimmy Darcy, who is laying claim to the Pacific coast middleweight championship by virtue of his victory on a foul over Battling Ortega, some weeks ago in Seattle, is perfectly willing to meet the winner of the Battling Ortega-Frankie Murphy contest scheduled for Milwaukee tomorrow night and make the middleweight poundage of 162 at 2 o'clock the day of the contest.

Darcy made his little speech on his return from a fishing trip when he was informed that an evening paper had carried a story quoting Ortega as saying that he was not given a square deal in the Seattle go. Ortega, until he lost to Darcy, was without doubt the recognized middleweight champion of the Pacific coast, his winning battles against such performers as Marty Farrell, Mick King, E. O. Krusky, Spud Murphy, K. O. Brown, Jack Reeves, Ted Lewis, Frank Barriere, Willie Ritchie, not to mention his many sensational battles with Darcy prior to the Seattle event, entitling him to the honors.

Since losing to Darcy, however, even though the decision against him was on a foul, Ortega can no longer claim the coast title, especially as the decision was given Darcy without his assent as protesting the low blow. Darcy's willingness to meet Ortega in a return match speaks volumes for the Roumanian's confidence in his ability to trim the Oakland slugger.

Frankie Murphy, however, says that he will be returned the winner of the bout with Darcy. He is quite sure in his statement to make the middleweight limit of 160 he will accept the challenge in a return match on the coast middleweight king.

Darcy started training yesterday and says that he will never enter the ring again weighing more than 160, for any time that he tips the Fair-weather he will be unable to do himself justice.

Matchmaker Kendall plans to have a talk with the three winners today and hopes to come to an understanding with the boys, and if successful, will stage a show at the arena August 10.

Abe Mishkind, the fighting Salt Lake Hebrew who tangles with Young Sam Langford, the Seattle negro featherweight, is showing heaps of form in his daily workouts at the London club.

The Utah miller is built along the same lines as the Williams, but perhaps a bit faster than the Spanish favorite, has enough aggressiveness to make him a good audience pleaser.

The Abe Gordon-Allie Taylor go has been called off, as Taylor will not be able to come down from Bend owing to the serious illness of his wife. The calling off of this contest will be a keen disappointment to those who had hoped to see the local boys in action, but as there is no available substitute, Matchmaker Kendall will arrange another match to replace this attraction.

Carl Martin, who has not been seen here for some time, will meet Frankie Webb in one of the four-round preliminary events while Charlie Hellman and Bud Vance, a pair of bantams, will box the curtain-raiser.

Midnet Smith, the sensational New York bantamweight, who has been dubbed the Terry McGovern of 1921 by the New York sporting writers, would like to make a trip west before the fall season opens in the east.

Joe Gorman, though he was expected to return Monday, failed to show at the old haunt, it seems that he is now tabulating these entries in the hills fishing these warm days than spending his time in the gymnasiums.

Roy Sutherland, the rugged young-

EVERYTHING FOR QUALITY—nothing for show

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

WHY, JUST BUY CAMELS AND LOOK AT THE PACKAGE!

It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

AND NOTE THIS! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package.

No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

CAMELS wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

CAMELS are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

THE ANNUAL PORTLAND PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS CHAMPIONSHIPS WILL BE PLAYED...

THE ANNUAL PORTLAND PUBLIC PLAYGROUNDS CHAMPIONSHIPS WILL BE PLAYED... starting August 23, according to F. E. Harrison, who is in charge of the event.

RACING CARD IS COMPLETE

Seven Events Stated for First Day of Motorcycle Event.

SHERIDAN NEAR PENNANT

The local ball team practically clinched the Yamhill county league pennant by defeating the Lafayette team here yesterday. The score was 8 to 7. The game was slow throughout and was marked by ragged playing on both sides.

Word was received here from Boston that Phil Neer, although forced to take a needed rest, will be back in the game soon.

Neer has been playing practically every day since early in May and has been meeting the best players in the country in his present invasion of eastern courts. The strain proved too much and the rest was prescribed by officials of the Boston tournament. Phil expects to return to Portland next month for the Boston tournament.

When every sheet of fly paper is used to bear the ever-recurring injunction: "Chew the border?"

When Colonel Milton Weidner was collector of customs?

The first issue of The Sunday Oregonian—many years ago—a four-page paper, with Thomas B. Mery as editor?

When Jim (Cap) Mason started his first job in the Williams?

When most young men ran livery-stable bills?

When the finest strawberries on the Portland market were grown on the slopes of Mount Tabor?

When a bootjack was a necessary article of a completely footed house?

When Weinhard's beer was a very popular summer drink?

Thompson's "Two-Bit House" and his big sign with the heading, "Hiyu muk-a-muck, and here's your Bill of Fare, now's the time to get the wrinkles taken out of your belly after a hard winter?"

When Jacques Fournier, now first baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals, was with the Portland club in the Pacific coast league?

When it was often necessary to page your dad at the Gem or Portland club?

Ex-County Commissioner Lightner's "Merchants' Cafe" at about No. 3 First street North?

When the First Presbyterian church stood on the northwest corner of Third and Washington streets and the big wind blew the steeple down?

When every sheet of fly paper is used to bear the ever-recurring injunction: "Chew the border?"

When Colonel Milton Weidner was collector of customs?

The first issue of The Sunday Oregonian—many years ago—a four-page paper, with Thomas B. Mery as editor?

When Jim (Cap) Mason started his first job in the Williams?

When most young men ran livery-stable bills?

When the finest strawberries on the Portland market were grown on the slopes of Mount Tabor?

When a bootjack was a necessary article of a completely footed house?

When Weinhard's beer was a very popular summer drink?

Thompson's "Two-Bit House" and his big sign with the heading, "Hiyu muk-a-muck, and here's your Bill of Fare, now's the time to get the wrinkles taken out of your belly after a hard winter?"

When Jacques Fournier, now first baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals, was with the Portland club in the Pacific coast league?

When it was often necessary to page your dad at the Gem or Portland club?

Ex-County Commissioner Lightner's "Merchants' Cafe" at about No. 3 First street North?

When the First Presbyterian church stood on the northwest corner of Third and Washington streets and the big wind blew the steeple down?

When every sheet of fly paper is used to bear the ever-recurring injunction: "Chew the border?"

When Colonel Milton Weidner was collector of customs?

The first issue of The Sunday Oregonian—many years ago—a four-page paper, with Thomas B. Mery as editor?

When Jim (Cap) Mason started his first job in the Williams?

When most young men ran livery-stable bills?

When the finest strawberries on the Portland market were grown on the slopes of Mount Tabor?

When a bootjack was a necessary article of a completely footed house?

When Weinhard's beer was a very popular summer drink?

Thompson's "Two-Bit House" and his big sign with the heading, "Hiyu muk-a-muck, and here's your Bill of Fare, now's the time to get the wrinkles taken out of your belly after a hard winter?"

When Jacques Fournier, now first baseman for the St. Louis Cardinals, was with the Portland club in the Pacific coast league?

When it was often necessary to page your dad at the Gem or Portland club?

Ex-County Commissioner Lightner's "Merchants' Cafe" at about No. 3 First street North?

When the First Presbyterian church stood on the northwest corner of Third and Washington streets and the big wind blew the steeple down?

When every sheet of fly paper is used to bear the ever-recurring injunction: "Chew the border?"

When Colonel Milton Weidner was collector of customs?

The first issue of The Sunday Oregonian—many years ago—a four-page paper, with Thomas B. Mery as editor?

When Jim (Cap) Mason started his first job in the Williams?

When most young men ran livery-stable bills?

When the finest strawberries on the Portland market were grown on the slopes of