Meanwhile, it is pointed out, the possibility exists that something may pass between the Mansion House in Dublin and Downing Street in London, there being hope in some quarters that Mr. De Valera's speech of yesterday, with its pointed references to Ulster, will arouse Premier Lloyd George or the Belfast authorities to action.

If this does not come to pass the political forecasters take the view that the Dail will either send a con-sidered reply to Mr. Lloyd George's letter, announce its decision to sub-

Such complaints as that of Dr. Smith have been common recently, but in practically all cases the federal reserve board has been able to clear itself of all blame. In many instances the complaints have been traced to politics or to agitators. Just recently a radical agitator, who holds forth in Washington, calling himself the directing head of a farmers' organization believed to have no support whatever from the agricultural industry, has been traveling through the northwest assailing the government and univerpresenting the entire administration attitude toward the farmers.

It has been pointed out that this administration and this congress have given more time than any other words.
