CIVIL ENGINEER'S HEAD STOPPED ITCHING

"Dandruff Has Entirely Disappeared," Says Young. Wife and Daughter Use HAIR-BITTERS with Equal Success.

"I began losing my hair some fifteen years ago," states Chas. A. D. Young, member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, whose office is 218 Lumber Exchange Bldg., Seattle, "and have tried all the advertised remedies without benefit. My scalp was covered with dandruff and itched constantly. A short time ago, a friend recommended your HAIR-BITTERS and I decided to try it. A few applications stopped the itching and now the dandruff has entirely disappeared. My wife and daughter have both used it with equal success. I am sorry that I could not have had it years ago as I believe it would have saved my hair entirely."

prevent baldness, because it destroys the germ which causes the hair to die and fall out. It is not natural to be bald. Loss of hair is due to a diseased condition of the scalp. Beriault's HAIR-BITTERS removes the cause and restores the scalp to its normal, healthy condition. Also, as in the case of his family, its benefits are not confined to one member. Father, mother, sister, brothers, all find the use of HAIR-BITTERS keeps their heads from becoming afflicted with ailments which destroy the natural vigor and luster of the hair. HAIR-BITTERS is sold at leading drug-stores. The price is $2 and $3 the bottle. It is not a cheap lotion or so-called tonic. It is a genuine remedy, backed by a $100 forfeit guarantee and sold on a strictly money-back plan. You can use it in your home or can secure applications of HAIR-BITTERS from your barber or hair dresser. (Advertisement.)
