NEGRESS' SUAVITY SPOILED

APPEARANCE IN STORE AND COURT VASTLY DIFFERENT.

When Charged With Theft Accusations Silken—When Before Judge They Were Cotton.

Sleek and suave, clad in silken stockings, expensive dress, fur cape and hat, among the most fashionable feminine apparel, Hattie Westmoreland, negress, was arrested in the Meier & Frank store last week with a pair of silk hose under her cape for which she could show no sales slip.

Humble and ruffled, clothed in cotton stockings, old and somewhat tattered dress, and nondescript hat, the woman appeared in court last Saturday to plead poverty as an excuse for being released on her own recognizance. She was permitted to go.

She did not return to court yesterday when her case was called for hearing before District Judge Bell, but her attorney, Morris Goldstein, said that Hattie was ill and was willing to make a technical plea of guilty—that is, admit the facts if the judge would assure her that the case would continue. It seemed that the hosiery had become attached to her in some inexplicable manner and carried away from the "enter quite unknown" store.

John Driscoll, deputy district attorney, protested against this. Hattie apparently had deceived her attorney, said the prosecutor, who pointed out that indications were that the poverty plea was not genuine.

Goldstein declared that if he was forced to go to trial he would demand a jury, and the case was continued for trial until next Monday.

$36,105 EARNED BY PLAY

BIG SUM TO APPLY ON STADIUM DEBT AT SEATTLE.

Gross Receipts of "The Wayfarer" Are $167,479.26, and Expenses $131,373.78.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 12.—(Special)—Total receipts from all sources for "The Wayfarer" production in the stadium July 23-30 last were $167,479.26, and total expenses were $131,373.78. The excess of receipts over expenditures amounts to $36,105.48, out of which Montgomery Lynch, manager of "The Wayfarer," said today $19,802 would be paid to the Associated Students, Inc., to be applied on the stadium debt.

The net profit to "The Wayfarer" stockholders, the sum to be applied toward next year's production of the pageant, is $16,303.48.

These are the main figures in the report of the certified accountant in charge of the production, E. L. Webster, business manager for the first production, included the fixed rental paid for the use of the stadium. The expansion item of $42,500.88 for construction, equipment and supplies included $20,600 paid to the Methodist Canteenary commission for purchase of the stadium.

Members of "The Wayfarer" chorus met at the First Methodist church at 8 o'clock tonight for the first rehearsal of the concert to be given in the stadium September 29.

WOMAN'S VIGIL FUTILE

Mrs. May Bleaser Fails to Keep Her Husband Out of Jail.

ALBANY, Ore., Sept. 12.—(Special)—Mrs. May Bleaser, who, with her seven-months' baby in her arms, sat in front of the city jail for two hours last night, asserting she would not leave as long as her husband, Herman C. Bleaser, was in custody, gave up her vigil about 10 o'clock when it failed to get results from the police.

Bleaser was kept in jail all night and paid a fine of $25 in the city recorder's office today for being drunk and disorderly.

When officers took Bleaser to jail last night his wife clung to him and carrying her baby forced her way into jail with him. After trying for about 15 minutes to get her to leave, the officers forced her out of the steps, building she then sat on.

SITES TO BE INSPECTED

Local Federal Water-Power Board to Make Trip.

Proposed power sites on the Columbia and Flathead rivers will be inspected late this month on a trip to be taken by the local federal water-power board. It was decided yesterday at an informal meeting of the board held in the office of Colonel J. B. Kavanaugh, United States division engineer, who is a member of the board.

As C. S. Heydel, representing the state of Montana, was unable to attend the meeting, the dates for the trip and the itinerary were not definitely fixed. The board members attending the meeting, besides Colonel Kavanaugh, were D. C. Henny, representing the reclamation service; Prof. F. Henshaw, representing the United States geological survey, and Marvin Chase, representing the state of Washington.

ONE BRAND-ONE QUALITY-ONE SIZE PACKAGE

All our skill, facilities, and lifelong knowledge of the finest tobaccos are concentrated on this one cigarette—CAMEL. Into this ONE BRAND, we put the utmost quality. Nothing is too good for Camels. They are as good as it's possible to make a cigarette. Camd QUALITY is always maintained at the same high, exclusive standard. You can always depend on the same mellow-mild refreshing smoothness—the taste and rich flavor of choicest tobaccos—and entire freedom from cigarettly aftertaste. And remember this! Camels come in one size package only—20 cigarettes—just the right size to make the greatest saving in production and packing. This saving goes straight into Camel Quality. That's one reason why you can get Camel Quality at so moderate a price.

Here's another. We put no useless frills on the Camel package. No "extra wrappers!" Nothing just for show! Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And their added cost must go onto the price or come out of the quality. One thing—and one only—is responsible for Camels great and growing popularity—that is CAMEL QUALITY.

GIRLS WILL KNIT SOCKS MACHINES BEING INSTALLED AT WASHINGTON SCHOOL. Inmates of State Institution to Exhibit Their Products at Puyallup Fair.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 12.—(Special)—The four knitting machines purchased for use at Grand Mound have arrived and will be installed within the week, according to John W. Pace, assistant director and supervisor of administration, who has returned from the school for girls at Grand Mound on a trip of inspection.

Each year approximately 1200 dozen socks are used by inmates in state institutions and these machines will be used to help supply the demand. The department is planning later to install other machines that will make women's hose.

This year the girls raised three tons of cucumbers, which they have pickled and will exhibit at the Puyallup fair. They also will have exhibits at the fair of cooking, art work and farm products. Besides art work the girls have just completed practical work in painting, having kalsomined and tinted the walls of their rooms, doing every bit of the work themselves. The farm operations gradually will be curtailed as occupations to which the girls are more particularly adapted are introduced.
