United Brethren Conference. PHILOMATH. Or., Sept. 19.—(Special.)—The 68th annual session of the Oregon conference of the United Brethren in Christ ended last night. Brethren in Christ ended last night.

In the afternoon the pastors met at the call of Bishop Washinger to arrange for evangelistic services on the various fields during the year. Rev. O. T. Deever of Dayton, O., in a sermon last night, said the task of the church is to transform character. "The preacher must have an abiding conviction that men are lost and the gospol must also be preached by hely living," he asserted.

"Livingstone in Africa, Grenfell in Labrador and Judson in Burmah each received his reward. We all are rewarded according to our works. Some day in heaven we shall have our re-day in heaven we shall have our reward and forget our toils."

Nearly all the members of the conference left for their homes this morning.
