TWO-IN-ONE BILL SLATED FOR NEXT WEEK.

All Seven Acts to Join in Presentation of Rollicking Afterpiece of Comedy.

The Orpheum show at the Heilig next week commencing with the matinee tomorrow will be a two-in-one affair, as all the seven acts of the show take part in the presentation of a rollicking afterpiece. All the artists in this show are like the members of a large, happy family and each "steps out" to make the entire bill a comedy drawing car de luxe. The Blackwell, noted movie star, and the added attraction is the act of George McKay and Ottle Ardine. Mr. Black-well and Mr. McKay are the guiding stars in the revue staged as the final act of the show. "The new bill is virtually all con edy," wrote a Seattle reviewer, "ar from Carlyle Blackwell, the film star, whose name carries the largest typ n the advertisements, on through the ist there isn't a weak number. after they have delivered the routine of entertainment their contracts call for they stage a revue in which fur-ther comedy is supplied."

In the revue staged at the close of the show George McKay serves as Dispatch From Oklahoma City Anannouncer. MacBarnes does an amusng recitation to music, Neal Abel and Ottie Ardine do a strenuous dancing turn, Carlyle Blackwell and Julia Ballew offer a song and dance as-sisted by the Quixey trio and Bob
