WHAT COMES APTER THE PURCHABE PRICE?
This important question carries a subtic suggestion very much in keeping with the purchase of used cars picked up miscellaneously in the open market.
Efficiency, good appearance and good value through the medium of rebuilding and retinishing the cars we offer for sale has replaced guessing, misrepresentation and horse trading principles We offer our used cars at the lowest possible prices so as to stimulate their sales. The necessity of trading in used cars while closing new car sales demands that we maintain an ever-increasing used car volume.
WHAT COMES APTER THE PUR-CHASE PRICE, kind reader, depends entirely with whom you spend your purchase price. The motive, business principles, reputation, ability, equipment and financial standing of any organization should place you in a position to judge for yourself whether the transaction is one for profit alone of made to gain a certain necessary volume so necessary in obtaining the desired new car sales.
