

WOMAN IS INDICTED FOR SLAYING MATE

Minister Also Held on White-Slavery Charge.

GRAND JURY IN SESSION

Mrs. Alma Louise Wurtzbarger and Rev. Fred R. Royston Among Those Facing True Bills.

True bills indicting Mrs. Alma Louise Wurtzbarger on the charge of murdering her husband, Andrew Wurtzbarger, in their home at Chemawa on the morning of September 4, and the Rev. Fred R. Royston on a charge of transporting Miss Frankie Edwards from Portland to Vancouver, Wash., for immoral purposes were returned by the federal grand jury yesterday.

Mrs. Wurtzbarger was charged with willfully beating her husband to death with a hammer as he was sleeping. After committing the crime, to which she confessed, she walked into Salem and told her story to the police, who arrested her. She was taken before the federal grand jury due to the fact that her crime was committed on the government property of the Chemawa Indian reservation.

Desertion Laid to Minister.

The Rev. Mr. Royston, formerly a Salem minister, was said to have deserted his wife and child to lure and run away with Miss Edwards, a girl still in her teens. They were arrested in Centralia in June, after they had walked from Vancouver. Royston is said to have introduced the girl as his wife. After a hearing before the United States commissioner Royston was released on $1000 bail.

Joe Garcia, a Klamath reservation Indian, was indicted for an assault on Port Summers, a policeman, for having liquor in his possession and also for having taken liquor onto an Indian reservation.

Others Are Indicted.

Other true bills were returned as follows: Leo Buckner, larceny of cigarettes from a Union Pacific freight car; Frank White, sale and possession of narcotics; John Harvey, sending obscene mail; L. D. Gage, Gladys Gage and A. J. Price, possession and sale of drugs; J. D. Sweeney of Pendleton, violation of narcotic law; Raymond Hammer, violation of narcotic act; John Glouberman, violation of narcotic law; Jack Basill and Paul Bakofich, maintaining a federal nuisance at Astoria; James Duffy and Richard Fitzpatrick, sale of opium; Florence Harvey of Oregon City, sending obscene literature through the mails; Archie Dutton, violation of national motor vehicle act; David Hotem, Volstead act; D. Ryan, maintaining a nuisance at Astoria; Joe Diorio, possession and sale of liquor; M. Y. Stanich, Volstead act; Fred Hood, Ransom Cowen and Walter Hood, theft of cattle on Klamath Indian reservation; and Irving Helitz, theft of government property valued at $25.

MILLS' BUSINESS BETTER

Filling of Lumber Orders Limited Because Price Rise Is Expected.

BEND, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Following month during which orders were filled on a day-to-day basis, with production markedly in excess of demand, the Bend pine mills in the September business felt the pendulum slowly swinging in the other direction. It was the first month in a year's time in which shipments have equaled production. Now mill officials have become so confident that the future will strengthen that they have declined to book orders for more than a month or six weeks in advance, except in certain classes of factory stock.

Don't Spoil Your Hair by Washing It

When you wash your hair, be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

Aches and Pains of Rheumatism

Sometimes They Are Unbearable.

There are weather conditions that make rheumatism worse. They are not the same in the cases of all persons. Some rheumatism sufferers more in dry, warm weather than in moist, cold weather, but all suffer more or less all the time.
