PORTLAND TO GET OUTSIDE MINISTER

Dr. Stansfield's Successor Girls' and Boys' Clubs to Stage Not Yet Announced.

Impressive Ceremonies Held Annual Methodist Episcopal Conference at Forest Grove.

FOREST GROVE, Or, Oct. 9 .- (Speend of the evangelistic services of the 69th Oregon annual Methodist Episcopal conference vanished when the cabinet, composed of Bishop William O. Shepard and his three district superintendents, came out of a closed session just before the services opened and announced they had not completed the list.

The four members of the cabinet worked practically all night Saturday and throughout the various intermis-sions between the services today in an effort to settle all appointments for the conference and bring the annual session to an end tonight. I was expected until the opening of the evening services that they would be read but Bishop Shepard told the newspaper men the cabinet would have to work far into the night to finish the list.

Outside Man to Be Chosen. The pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church at Portland, to suc-ceed Rev. Joshua Stansfield, will not be announced with the other changes tomorrow, said the bishop, and it probably will be another week be-fore anyone is appointed. The appointee will be an importation from outside the conference. Bishop Shepard said an outside man would be chosen because Dr. Stans-field was being transferred out of the, conference and it left a distinct vacancy in the ranks of his ministers to be filled. "There are the conference of th to be filled. "There are no doubt men already in our own field qualified to take the post at the First church," he continued, "but no one has come forward to request it, and this seems in-dicative that no one prefers it. It is s particular post and we are anxious fill it to the satisfaction of every-ne. Besides, as a vacancy has been created, we are entitled to another minister and shall ue the privilege."

Dr. MacCaughey Is Selected. The pulpit at the Centenary-Wilbur church is to be occupied by Dr. Charles MacCaughey, as has been intimated throughout the week. Dr. Mac-Caughey comes from the Moscow, Idaho, district of the Columbia River conference, where he was superin-tendent. His former place is to be filled by Rev. W. H. W. Forsythe, for-merly of The Dalles, who was transferred into the Oragon conference at the beginning of the present session and retransferred to Moscow. The tardiness in finishing the list of appointments is said to be due to a large amount of extra work to be attended to by the cabinet earlier in the week. Ordinarily the bishop and three district superintendents address themselves to this most important piece of work as soon as the conference con-venes, but the first and part of the second day were given over to other

Several Changes Considered.

In addition some difficulty has been evident from the outside in making satisfactory adjustments and changes. ro of the district superintenden interviewed separately, said this afternoon that about a dozen changes were still in abeyance. At one time this number was cut down to five, but new obstacles came up and necessi-tated undoing the arrangements for the others, so that tonight the cabinet faced the same difficulties as earlier in the day. Aside from the work done by the cabinet the entire day was given over to special services.

Dr. R. N. Avison Spenks. The sermon in the morning was de-livered by Rev. R. N. Avison, the new minister to succeed Rev. C. R. Carlos at the church in Forest Grove. It was to have been preached by the bishop, but on account of the duties pressing on him and due to his slight illness. Dr. Avison was substituted. He comes from the St. Paul church in Spokane, where he has served for the last year. Prior to that he was in the pulpit of the First church in Salem for ten years. His change back Salem for ten years. His change back to Oregon, he said, was due to the effect of the climate in Spokane on his health. His text dealt with the effect Christian faith will have in settling the troubles of the world. "Faith is not lacking," he said, "and the world is not in trouble because of such a lack, but because it has found God and does not know what to do with him." He went on to say that the social, political, industrial and moral problems facing the world and moral problems facing the world would be solved by increased faith in God.

Ordination Is Impressive. The ordination of two deacons and by Bishop Shepard, assisted by Rev. W. W. Youngson, Rev. E. E. Gilbert and Rev. S. A. Danford, the three district superintendents. The two men to be ordained deacons were P. M. Blenkensop of Salem and F. Audley Brown, a circuit preacher in the southern district.

The four new elders are Alexander Hawthorne, West Salem; John D. Woodfin, Myrtle Point; Rev. Kimball K. Clark, a former Congregational minister admitted yesterday to the Methodist conference, and preaching at Frayton, Or., and Rev. S. Uemera, the paster of the Japanese Methodist church of Portland.

Stop Drunken Orgies, Pien, At the late conference session or Saturday a resolution was adopted asking the governor and all officials under him for enforcement of the law at all conventions. The resolution read "that on the occasion of certain conventions there follows a perfect orgy of drunkenness and debauchery, and our officials seem to ignore all law violations because they are com-mitted by members of the conven-tions." It was said this resolution was introduced because of speeches made by several mayors of different cities when welcoming convention members, in which they were quoted as saying "Here are all the keys of the city, except that of the jail. You can't get in there if you try.

Appointments Are Made. Appointments and elections to of-fices made at the same session were Rev. W. W. Youngson, Portland, and Ray J. O. Goltra of Salem as trustee of the Kimbail School of Theology Rev. E. E. Gilbert of Salem as offivisitor to the Kimball school N. E. Christensen of Lakeview was elected statistician to succeed T. D. Yarns, and Rev. H. T. church in Portland was re-elected treasurer. The transfer of Rev. A. H. Thompson of Aberdeen, Wash., from the Puget sound conference to the Oregon conference was announced at the same time. He probably will be pinted to the church in Oregon
