

JURY IS SWORN IN TO TRY BRUMFIELD

State to Present Opening Argument Today.

THIRD PANEL IS EXHAUSTED

Jurors Obtained Just in Time to Avoid More Delay.

RUSSELL'S FATHER DIES

Murder Victim's Parent Drops Dead; Dramatic Touch Added to Court Proceedings.

BY DON SKENE.

ROSEBURG, Or., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—Selection of the 12 men who will form the jury that will try Dr. R. M. Brumfield for the murder of Dennis Russell was completed late this afternoon.

After the jury had been sworn in, court was adjourned until 9 A. M. tomorrow, when District Attorney Neuner will present his opening argument for the state. The prosecution will then call on the first of a large array of witnesses to give testimony that may fasten definitely on Dr. Brumfield the guilt of one of Oregon's most sensational murder mysteries.

Frank Pringle, a farmer of Elk Head, was the last man chosen for the jury. When he took his place in the jury box, the third panel of prospective jurors drawn for the trial had been exhausted.

Defense Uses 12 Challenges.

The defense had used all 12 peremptory challenges allotted for rejecting tentative jurors, but the state had one challenge left. Rejection of Mr. Pringle would have forced the drawing of a new panel and caused delay in the trial. He was accepted by both defense and prosecution, however, and when the state declined to use its last challenge, the jury which will make its way to the courtroom today was complete.

Russell's Father Drops Dead.

News of another tragedy in the Russell family was received in the courtroom today and added a dramatic touch to the proceedings. Word that Thomas Russell, aged 87, father of Dennis Russell, had dropped dead this morning at the home of his son, Tom, at Beeson's Hill, near Myrtle Creek, was brought to J. T. Hunsaker and Ed Russell, brothers of the murder victim, and Mrs. Fred Smith, a sister, as the trio sat in the courtroom among the spectators.

Brumfield Retains Control.

The report of the elder Russell's death was soon spread to everyone in the courtroom by word of mouth. It was predicted that the death of the grief-stricken father would exert a subtle but powerful influence on the jury trying Dr. Brumfield for the murder of Dennis, the aged father's best loved son.

ICE CREAM MEN NOT HIT

Manufacturers Said to Have Prospered During Depression.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 10.—Passing of the ice cream freezer and development of a more efficient and cheaper way of making ice cream, was forecast today by P. N. Martin of Spokane, Wash., president of the National Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers, at the association's annual convention.

TUNNEL TO BE ABANDONED

French Bore, Scene of Recent Mishap, Condemned.

PARIS, Oct. 10.—The Batignolles tunnel, near the St. Lazare station, in which a rear-end collision of two suburban trains last Wednesday resulted in 40 deaths and numerous injuries, will be demolished.

WINE GRAPE PRICES HIGH

Unprecedented Demand for Refrigerator Cars Causes Shortage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—High prices prevailing for grapes suitable for wine making purposes, causing an unprecedented demand by the grape interests for refrigerator cars, is responsible for the shortage of cars with which to move this crop.

SAWMILL RAISES WAGES

Hoquiam Plant Lifts Scale From $2.80 to $3 a Day.

HOQUIAM, Wash., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—National mill officials have raised the minimum wage in their mill from $2.80 to $3 a day, effective October 1. It was learned today and confirmed by the officials.

HARDING SAYS NAVAL RESERVE IS TO STAY

DRASTIC CUT HELD MERELY REORGANIZATION MOVE.

Members Urged to Show Patriotism by Staying in Service Pending Developments.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—The navy department has no thought whatever of permanently giving up the naval reserve force, President Harding said today in a letter to Hugh Harley of the Philadelphia Inquirer, who asked for an explanation of the recent drastic cut in the naval reserve forces.

Disenrollment of four reserve classes was ordered as a step toward reorganization, Mr. Harding said, adding the department was now engaged in drawing up a bill to be enacted to have enacted a bill to cover the entire subject.

Urging that officers and men affected by the recent order, apply for membership in the volunteer reserve, President Harding said: "It is better manner show their patriotism, loyalty and the true navy spirit, than by retaining their membership pending further developments."

"The necessity for a reorganization of the naval reserve was recognized early in this administration and steps were taken to formulate a well-considered policy for the future, based on experience gathered in the world war. Such a policy, if adopted, must provide for supplying trained or partially trained men to fill the complement of auxiliary ships in time of national emergency, thus obviating the necessity for withdrawing men from the battle fleet.

"The appropriation for the naval reserve force available for the present fiscal year was not adequate to permit the reduction of the naval reserve in an orderly manner to the size for which funds are available without creating a deficiency. It became the clear duty of the navy department to make drastic reduction in the naval reserve and to dis enroll from September 30 some 225,000 officers and men, all of whom have been given the right to transfer to the volunteer naval reserves in what is known as class six, a status which is without pay.

"The navy department has no thought whatever of permanently giving up the naval reserve force, but has been forced to adopt seemingly drastic measures to cope with the situation with which it is confronted."

EX-CLERGYMAN GETS LIFE

Wife Slayer Says He Is Innocent Before Bar of Heaven.

LAKEPORT, Cal., Oct. 10.—A sentence of life imprisonment was imposed today on John A. Spencer, ex-clergyman, convicted October 8 of first degree murder in connection with the death of his wife, Mrs. Emma Spencer, July 27. He served notice that he would make no appeal. He will be taken to San Quentin prison tomorrow.

ICE CREAM MEN NOT HIT

Manufacturers Said to Have Prospered During Depression.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 10.—Passing of the ice cream freezer and development of a more efficient and cheaper way of making ice cream, was forecast today by P. N. Martin of Spokane, Wash., president of the National Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers, at the association's annual convention.

"While the other industries have been staggering in the financial depression, the ice cream makers have prospered," he said. "I do not believe wage scales for ice cream manufacturers employes will ever be adjusted downward to pre-war levels."

TUNNEL TO BE ABANDONED

French Bore, Scene of Recent Mishap, Condemned.

PARIS, Oct. 10.—The Batignolles tunnel, near the St. Lazare station, in which a rear-end collision of two suburban trains last Wednesday resulted in 40 deaths and numerous injuries, will be demolished.

WINE GRAPE PRICES HIGH

Unprecedented Demand for Refrigerator Cars Causes Shortage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10.—High prices prevailing for grapes suitable for wine making purposes, causing an unprecedented demand by the grape interests for refrigerator cars, is responsible for the shortage of cars with which to move this crop.

SAWMILL RAISES WAGES

Hoquiam Plant Lifts Scale From $2.80 to $3 a Day.

HOQUIAM, Wash., Oct. 10.—(Special.)—National mill officials have raised the minimum wage in their mill from $2.80 to $3 a day, effective October 1. It was learned today and confirmed by the officials.

FREE CANAL TOLLS VOTED BY SENATE

American Coastal Vessels to Get Exemption.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—The Borah bill for tolls exemption of American coastwise vessels passing through the Panama canal was passed by the senate today, 47 to 37.

BORAH BILL PASSED, 47-37

Measure Expected to Be Delayed in House.

ARMS PARLEY IS FACTOR

Split in Party Ranks Disclosed, Opponents Declaring That Action Is Inopportune.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—The Borah bill for tolls exemption of American coastwise vessels passing through the Panama canal was passed by the senate today, 47 to 37. The measure now goes to the house where it is expected it will be subject to indefinite delay, at least until after the conference on limitation of armament.

The senate rejected two substitutes offered by Senator King, democrat, Utah, to authorize the president to negotiate for arbitration of the tolls question and to appropriate $2,000,000 as a subsidy for American vessels using the canal.

Split in Party Ranks Disclosed

Debate on the Borah proposed disclosed a split in party ranks, opponents declaring the bill was inopportune, while Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, declared he had talked with President Harding and Secretary Hughes and they did not share such views.

Twelve democrats voted for the bill while 17 republicans voted against. Democrats who gave their support were: Ashurst, Arizona; Broussard, Louisiana; Harrison, Mississippi; Kendrick, Wyoming; Ransdall, Louisiana; Reed, Missouri; Robinson, Arkansas; Shields, Tennessee; Stanley, Kentucky; Underwood, Alabama; Walsh, Massachusetts and Walsh, Montana.

Two Republicans Paired

Republicans voting against were: Brandegee, Connecticut; Colt, Rhode Island; Dillingham, Vermont; Ernst, Kentucky; Hale, Maine; Kenson, Iowa; Keyes, New Hampshire; Lodge, Massachusetts; McCormick, Illinois; McCumber, North Dakota; McKinley, Illinois; Nelson, Minnesota; New, Indiana; Spencer, Missouri; Sterling, South Dakota; Wadsworth, New York; and Warren, Wyoming.

Two other republicans, Dupont, Delaware, and McLean, Connecticut, were paired against the bill.

In referring to the armament conference, Senator Borah said he did not understand that this conference would involve the United States bartering away any substantial right.

"I have talked with those most responsible," he said. "I do not believe it is wise to take any action at this time."

CHURCH DECREES 200 MARRIAGES ILLEGAL

PASTOR OUSTED FOR SPLITTING FEES WITH JITNEYMEN.

Methodist Episcopal Conference Dismisses Minister Who Quit Without Notifying Superiors.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 10.—Two hundred couples who have been married since August 1 by the Rev. R. T. Western, the unfrocked minister of Elkton, Md., are not legally wedded, according to ecclesiastical law, the Rev. Robert Watt, district superintendent of the Wilmington Methodist Episcopal conference, said today. Dr. Watt added, however, that so far as the civil law was concerned the persons involved need not worry.

"It appears that Mr. Western quit his charge in Montana in the middle of a church year and left without notice to the authorities," said Dr. Watt.

The Wilmington conference recently dismissed Mr. Western after he had been convicted by an ecclesiastical jury on charges of splitting marriage fees with jitney drivers.

"TIGER" WOULD BE LOVED

Good Will of Everybody Last Wish, Says Clemenceau.

MOULLETON EN PAREDS, France, Oct. 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—"I should like before I disappear to formulate as a last wish that everybody should think of me as a friend," said M. Clemenceau, the war premier, at the inauguration of the soldiers' memorial at his birthplace today.

"I have been much blamed during my life," he said. "I bore it daily. When I was young I did not exactly detest strife; but if strife has charms so also has peace.

"I have passed all my existence in being impatient, but as life ebbs I have learned patience, and I think I can assure you that henceforward I will conform to that rule of life."

U. S. AUTHORITY DISPUTED

Question of Police Power on Public Lands to Be Decided.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—A case of wide interest to the west, involving a construction of the government's police jurisdiction over public lands, will be reviewed by the supreme court.

Announcement was made today by the court that it would hear the case of Charles McKelvey and others convicted in Idaho of assault upon a tender in which case it is the government's contention that lawlessness upon public lands can be punished under federal law.

LIBERTIES HIT HIGH MARK

As Gain 210 Points, Reaching 94.30; Buying Is Active.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Liberty bonds were irregular and dull in the first half of today's session, but active buying was resumed later.

The feature was the first 4s, which showed a gain of 210 points at midday, rising to 94.30, the year's high price.

The second 4s and first 4 1/2s also were at new high records, rising 23 and 20 points, respectively.

ROBBER FELS GIRL; POLICE ON MAN-HUNT

MISS BEATRICE HUTTON, 17, KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS.

Ruffian Attacks Drug Store Employee on Way Home From Work and Snatches Her Purse.

The shotgun squad and other police, with orders to make a coroner's case of it, last night began searching for a ruffian who attacked Beatrice Hutton, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hutton, 266 Sixteenth street, motive robbery.

No coherent account of the affair could be drawn from the girl last night, who was reported to be in a semi-conscious state and under the care of two physicians.

Miss Hutton was on her way home from a drug store at Thirteenth and Jefferson streets, where she is employed. She had just been paid off, and it was assumed that her assailant saw her put the money in her purse. Accompanied by her cousin, Donald Buhman, 10, she was walking along the south side of Jefferson street between Fourteenth and Sixteenth streets when the robber attacked, without warning, from the rear.

The boy was unable to tell accurately what happened, but he said the man seized Miss Hutton's purse, and as he did so she threw up her arms and fell to the sidewalk, where she lay while he ran home to notify her parents. All was over so quickly that he could not explain how she received the blow on the head.

Physicians found a painful contusion over the left ear.

The robber made his escape by dashing into and through an apartment house at 234 Jefferson street. The house was searched by detectives, who were of the opinion that he went through the building, using it to cover his escape. In the purse which he obtained were $10 in cash and a number of keepsakes.

When detectives endeavored to question Miss Hutton they found her in such a hysterical condition that they abandoned the attempt. At each question she went further into a frenzy of fear, crying out: "Get away; get away. Don't touch me, you brute."

At a late hour last night Mrs. Hutton reported the girl still to be only semi-conscious, with lapses of memory and hysterics.

ROBBER PUT TO FLIGHT

Intended Victim Hits Highwayman on Nose—Man Flees.

One attempted robbery and one robbery were reported to the police last night.

J. Manheimer, 733 Kearney street, said that he was accosted between East Thirtieth and Fifteenth streets by a man who demanded his watch and money. When Manheimer noticed that the robber did not carry a gun he hit the man on the nose with his fist and the highwayman took to flight. At that moment a pedestrian nearby the scene abandoned the attempt. The highwayman's companion, jumped from behind a woodpile and also took to flight.

Gust Kahros, 265 East Eighty-fifth street, said that he was held up and relieved of $2.25 by a young man and another man, apparently the highwayman's companion, jumped from behind a woodpile and also took to flight.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

Sinn Fein Might Object.

The Sinn Fein has not assented to any joint conference and it is declared would object strongly to forming one of a three or four-party conference. The Irish delegates would, they say, make great concessions to secure a united Ireland. Mr. de Valera is believed to have a plan of local self-government for Ulster within an Irish state, more attractive to the north-east than the present status, and it is probable that this will be put forward at the conference.

The real crux, as stated by an official today, is not finance or the extent of Ulster's local powers, but necessary severance of Ulster from the imperial parliament, where it now has representation if desire to maintain.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

Old Conflict Recalled.

The British delegation includes three liberals, David Lloyd George, Winston Spencer Churchill and Sir Hamar Greenwood, all of whom took part in framing Mr. Asquith's home rule bill, which Austen Chamberlain, Lord Birkenhead and Sir Lamont Worthington-Evans, the other three British representatives, as unionists, fought so bitterly against, on Ulster's behalf. Since that time, however, Mr.

IRISH CONFERENCE WILL OPEN TODAY

British and Sinn Fein Delegates to Meet.

PROCEDURE NOT INDICATED

Welcome by Premier, Response by Griffith Likely.

ULSTER POSSIBLE BLOCK

Serious Attempt to Be Made to Settle Irish Question in Manner Acceptable to All.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—The premier and other representatives of the British government and the delegates of the Daily Eireann will face each other across the conference table in the cabinet room at the premier's official residence tomorrow morning.

Mr. Lloyd George, members of the cabinet and several officials of the Irish office discussed this afternoon tomorrow's conference. It is understood the procedure favored is a speech of welcome by the premier, after which he will outline the methods the government proposes for dealing with the various phases of the question. Arthur Griffith, the Sinn Fein leader, is expected to reply.

The programme for the first day takes the form of open conversation with a view to arriving at some definite basis, upon which negotiations looking to an Irish settlement can proceed.

Some Controversy Likely.

Either side may raise some controversial subject. There is the question of the release of the interned men. One delegate said today it was not the intention to mention this subject for the present. Nevertheless, the government is preparing a reply to such a request and has announced that General Sir Nevill MacCoskey and General Tudor of the forces in Ireland and the head of the police from Dublin to advise the government, should the proposal be made.

The services of these generals will also be useful when arrangements are suggested for stricter observance of the truce, which both the government and the Sinn Fein desire. Both generals have been charged by the Sinn Fein with provoking the people and their orders to come to London confirm the impression that the intention is to avoid all causes of friction.

Ulster May Be Invited.

Mr. Lloyd George also has been publicly asked to bring before the conference the Sinn Fein boycott on English goods, which has been detrimental to British trade and has caused much irritation here. It is not likely the conference will concern itself with this at this stage or that the Sinn Fein will agree to remove the boycott except as part of trade policy following upon a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

The cabinet is said to have discussed today the possibility of extending the scope of the conference to include Elster to send delegates. This is a matter for the premier to decide. The Sinn Fein delegates are here only as the spokesmen of those they represent and the premier might invite Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, Lord Midleton, representative of the South of Ireland unionists, and Sir Horace Plunkett, dominion home ruler, and their friends.

The Sinn Fein desires no representation in the imperial parliament, and if it accepts a place in the British commonwealth, it desires no closer affiliation than Canada and other dominions. The Sinn Fein declares they are bound to set forth Ireland's claim for complete separation, which they have pointed out, is their mandate from their constituencies. Any recession from that position will be made at a price higher than in Ulster, and the Ulster question thus is expected to assume importance and may again prove the stumbling-block to a settlement.

$292,522.33 IS SHARE OF SERIES' PLAYERS

SUM SETS NEW HIGH RECORD FOR BASEBALL MELON.

Increased Seating Capacity and Higher Admission Charges Account for Total.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—(By the Associated Press.)—The players participating in the 1921 world's series fund will divide $292,522.33, a new high record for the players' share. Under the rules players and umpires cease to share in the gate receipts after today's game, the fifth of the series. Increased seating capacity and higher admission charges account for the new total.

While today's attendance and gate receipts fell slightly below those of Friday's game, the official figures gave $5,758 paid admissions for a total gate receipt of $116,754. Of this amount the advisory board collected $17,513.10, the players $3,544.54 and the club owners $38,696.26.

The best previous figures for the players' total share were those of the 1919 series between Chicago and Cincinnati, when the players' pool amounted to $260,349.66. While the present series has not yet developed a winner and loser, the two local clubs' players will divide $219,516 on a basis of approximately $109,758 to the team which finally captures the championship and $37,766.49 to the loser. Subject to possible minor corrections by the advisory board, accountants, the Cleveland and Pittsburgh players in the series of second-place winners will divide something like $43,875.34, while the two St. Louis teams as third in each pennant race will split $19,252.23. The four umpires' remuneration will be provided from the advisory board's fund upon a basis of a sum equal to the one winning and one losing player's share combined and divided into four equal parts.

The best previous figures for the players' total share were those of the 1919 series between Chicago and Cincinnati, when the players' pool amounted to $260,349.66. While the present series has not yet developed a winner and loser, the two local clubs' players will divide $219,516 on a basis of approximately $109,758 to the team which finally captures the championship and $37,766.49 to the loser. Subject to possible minor corrections by the advisory board, accountants, the Cleveland and Pittsburgh players in the series of second-place winners will divide something like $43,875.34, while the two St. Louis teams as third in each pennant race will split $19,252.23. The four umpires' remuneration will be provided from the advisory board's fund upon a basis of a sum equal to the one winning and one losing player's share combined and divided into four equal parts.

The best previous figures for the players' total share were those of the 1919 series between Chicago and Cincinnati, when the players' pool amounted to $260,349.66. While the present series has not yet developed a winner and loser, the two local clubs' players will divide $219,516 on a basis of approximately $109,758 to the team which finally captures the championship and $37,766.49 to the loser. Subject to possible minor corrections by the advisory board, accountants, the Cleveland and Pittsburgh players in the series of second-place winners will divide something like $