

DAUGHTER IS LEFT BY VIRGINIA RAPPE

Child 9 Years Old Said to Be in Chicago.

ESTATE LEFT IS SMALL

Traveling Man Declares Youngster in Keeping of Foster Parents and Can Be Found Easily.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The bits of jewelry worn by Virginia Rappe, film actress, at the party which led up to her death, the party which brought Koscoe (Patty) Arbuckle into the prisoner's dock on a manslaughter charge based on her death, may fall into the legal possession of a 9-year-old girl now in Chicago.

According to information laid before the California authorities, the child is the daughter of the actress. In addition to the jewelry which figures in the court proceedings and probably will have its place in the approaching trial of Arbuckle, the actress is reported to have left an estate of $100 and some bonds of unknown value.

A move to obtain these for the child, said to be the dead woman's daughter, has been started in Chicago by John Bates, described in press dispatches as a traveling man.

According to Mr. Bates, Virginia Rappe became a mother shortly before she entered the movies. The father dropped from sight. The child was given to foster parents, her expenses being paid, at least till recently, by the actress.

Mr. Bates is quoted as saying he does not know the exact whereabouts of the child now, but is confident he can find her.

He sent his information to the San Francisco and Los Angeles authorities with a request for information on the estate.

BATTLESHIP TO BE SAVED

Historic Oregon Not to Be Destroyed, Says Mr. Denby.

THE OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—In reply to a protest filed by Representative Johnson of Washington against the destruction of the old battleship Oregon, Secretary of the Navy Denby wrote the following letter:

"I have to inform you that it is not the present intention of the navy department to destroy the Oregon; on the contrary, it is planned, if practicable, to preserve the vessel as an historical naval relic; and an effort is being made to complete arrangements with the state of Oregon whereby that state can become the custodian of the vessel and permanently lay her up at some suitable port where she will be accessible to visitors and serve as a stimulus of patriotism to this and future generations."

UNCLE SAM HELD BILKED

Pre-Vocational School at Boston Is Ordered Closed.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 17.—Orders closing the Berkeley pre-vocational school at Boston, where 500 war veterans have been in attendance, were issued today by Director Forbes of the veterans' bureau, who said the school had been found to be unsanitary and unhealthy and he was satisfied that it had been vouchering the government for services never rendered.

One student, aged 72, was discovered on the school's rolls, Mr. Forbes said. He is William Blackburn of Lynn, Mass., who, Mr. Forbes declared, has learned to write his name in a shaky hand after receiving government training more than two years at a cost of about $3600.

BOY IS KICKED TO DEATH

Lad Riding Bicycle Down Hill Collides With Horse.

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 17.—Unable to stop his bicycle, which had gotten beyond his control, while going down a steep grade, Oscar Stone, 12, Omaha, collided with a horse which was feeding by the roadside near Council Bluffs, and was kicked to death Sunday.

The horse's hoof struck the boy in the neck, cutting the jugular vein, and he bled to death before help could reach him.

AUTO TRUCK TURNS OVER

Car Battered, Driver Bruised, Bovine Passengers Unhurt.

GRANTS PASS, Or., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—While driving a truck carrying two calves, George Stricker of Alt-house, about 35 miles from here, glanced back at his charges. While his eyes were off the road the truck plunged over the bank, making a complete turn and coming to rest right side up.

Though the truck was badly battered and Stricker bruised, neither of the calves received a scratch.

DOG GETS UTMOST CARE

500 RACERS ARE TREATED LIKE PRIMA DONNAS.

Muscles Massaged, Nails Manicured, and Mouth Washed by Trainers; Food Rationed.

NEVADA, Mo., Oct. 13.—(Special.)

—A dog's life isn't so bad. The old adage of every dog having its day is enlarged into more than a week by the greyhounds entered into the national futurity here. Incidentally there was never a race horse, nor prize fighter prepared for his greatest task with more pains and more care than that given the sleek, gaunt-looking dogs, who make the killing of rabbits a business.

The dogs have a mission. They are here to make history for dogdom, and they're taking it with all the seriousness of a Fourth of July orator. Behind closed doors they hear the cheers of spectators watching the races. They wait, dogs being led from the stables to the field and a look of eagerness and envy seems to sparkle in deep-set eyes. They seem to know what is going on. When a dog returns to the stable after a race, panting and quivering from the tenseness of the chase, the other dogs nose around expectantly, as though seeking to learn the outcome.

All the care that a watch repairer would use in handling a delicate piece of Swiss mechanism, these trainers show to their dogs. The food is rationed out with the skill of an expert dietitian; the muscles are massaged and bandaged; the nails are manicured; the mouth is washed and the ligaments kneaded into perfect flexibility.

When a dog enters a race he hasn't an ounce of superfluous food in him, not a muscle that isn't developed to its finest point and not a nerve that isn't on edge. The dogs are fed 24 hours before the race and the food is such that it will be digested in plenty of time. They go to the slips hungry.

The sight of a tempting rabbit hopping along in front is sufficient to induce the greatest effort.

Following a race, blankets and towels are thrown about the hound; attendants lead him until the muscles cool. Then follow a rubdown with lotions and liniment and a steam bath interspersed with a few morsels of tempting food. A temperamental prima donna couldn't ask better care of more attention.

today and urged President Harding to appoint Charles S. Barrett of Georgia, president of the National Farmers' union, a member of the advisory committee soon to be organized for the conference on the limitation of armaments.

About Colds. Just because you have had many colds and always recovered from them, you should not presume that colds are not dangerous. It is not the cold itself but the serious diseases that it leads to that are to be guarded against. Pneumonia often follows a bad cold because the cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the pneumonia germ which otherwise would not have found lodgment. It is the same with many other germ diseases. You are most likely to contract them when you have a cold. Children who have colds should be kept out of school until they recover. Get rid of every cold as quickly as possible. In other words take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It can be depended upon.—Adv.

FRANCHISES ARE GRANTED State Highway Committee Allows Construction on Roads.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Franchises were granted today at a meeting of the state highway committee to the following concerns: J. N. Huffman for crossing the Sunset highway with a power transmission line in the city of Eastern; the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company to construct telephone and telegraph lines on the Sunset highway from Cle Elum to Eawson; the Olympia Irrigation district to cross the Olympic highway in Clallam county with an irrigation pipeline.

The committee also set two hearings for November 23 at Olympia at which time a franchise for the construction of a telephone line on the Olympic highway in Clallam county between Port Angeles city limits and the Jefferson county line by the Northwest-ern Long-Distance company will be considered. Reasons for the granting of a franchise to the Pacific Power & Light company for placing an electric transmission line in the Naches Pass highway in Yakima county also will be heard.

INGROWN TOE NAIL

How to Toughen Skin so Nail Turns Out Itself

A few drops of "Outgro" upon the skin surrounding the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail that it cannot penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night. "Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.—Adv.
