Sam'l Rosenblatt & Co.

Several years ago, one John Long, a Chinese merchant came into our store and bought of us a watch, and thereby hangs a tale.

Now this watch was a Waltham watch movement in a Solid Gold 14-karat Mansard shape case. For some particular reason this individual watch failed to find a customer. It was a good watch and should have sold for $125 when it was first purchased. It was in the show case so many years that we organized against it and put its price down and again put its price down, and each invoice of that stock still found this watch one of its members. Well, we kept cutting this watch's price until we asked about what the case weighed in gold. I think at this time of the telling as my memory serves me the amount of the sale was $35, and to JOHN LONG, a Chinese Gentleman. Well, before he took the watch out we went entirely over it and removed all the old oil and it did keep splendid time after the new oil was placed in it.

Well, we did not make anything on that sale if you count that watch by itself, but I want to tell you right here, that was one of the very best deals that this store made in its life. John Long found out what he had and he was not backward in telling his friends about it and he brought us several customers and they in turn brought others, who trust us and believe in us and have since the buying of this watch bought thousands of dollars' worth at this store.

"Can you think of any inanimate object that you can make as much of a companion of as you can of a good reliable pretty watch? It will time your appointments in all your social and business relations. You will retire at night by it and consult it the very first thing in the morning; you will go to your meals by its hands regardless of your appetite; you can depend upon it. Then have one that is strictly dependable. All of the watches put in this sale are dependable and are high class and would have sold long ago if we could have felt that we could sell them at the prices that we have placed upon them in this sale.

We have seen their neighbors, bought from the factories at the same time, go and some of these stay on our hands for no reason that we can see. Now they are yours for the prices named, and let us tell you here that you can have any of them on credit if you are entitled to credit.
