

RICH BANKER FIGHTS ACTION FOR DIVORCE

Woman, Separated, Is Wed to Another, Is Contention.

TWO CHILDREN INVOLVED

Legality of Decree Awarded by Referee to Be Tested; Widespread Effect Is Expected.

In answer to the divorce action of Mrs. Mabel Steiwer, recently filed in Portland against Leland L. Steiwer, wealthy banker and stockman at Forest, Or., the defendant presented two unique defenses in papers filed yesterday.

The first is that he should not be compelled to appear in a divorce action begun by Mrs. Steiwer in view of the fact that he possesses a decree of divorce from the woman, signed by Judge D. R. Parker at Forest on January 2, 1921, in a divorce action which the husband had initiated.

The second defense is a plea of estoppel, based on official records of Los Angeles county, California, which show that on January 10, 1921, Mrs. Steiwer, representing herself as a divorced woman, was married by Rev. F. P. Berry to one Lynn C. Young, resident of Los Angeles. At that time, according to the certified copy of the records, Mrs. Steiwer gave her address as Venice, Cal.

Effect to Be Widespread. The answer, filed by Attorney E. V. Littlefield, will be attacked by a demurrer within a few days in which John W. Kastner, lawyer for the woman, will contend that the divorce granted in central Oregon was illegal because the evidence was taken before a referee and only reviewed in transcript form by the judge signing the decree. On this basis the marriage in Los Angeles will be held unlawful, if admitted.

Decision in the case will be widespread in its effect. Should the demurrer be sustained and courts hold that a divorce heard before a referee is illegal, the decision would invalidate thousands of Oregon divorces for it is a common practice in counties outside of Multnomah for judges to assign the hearing of default divorce cases to referees.

Two children are involved in the case. They were awarded by the first court to the custody of Steiwer. They are: Robert Leland, aged 7, and Susan Jane, aged 6. The Steiwes were married in Portland, June 15, 1914.

Woman Goes to Movies. Mrs. Steiwer left her husband shortly before he obtained his divorce, and went to Los Angeles to enter the "movies." Her husband opposed to this, according to his testimony in the divorce case, telling her that she had to choose between himself and children, and that he would file a suit for custody of Steiwer. She testified that it would be impossible for him to finance her in such a career while she was learning to dance and act.

By mutual agreement, Mrs. Steiwer was paid lump alimony of $3000. Steiwer testified at the hearing that this was a fair share of his property and that he felt he "did even more than he was able to." Since the suit, however, Steiwer felt that his father's fortune, it is reported.

Women's Activities

THE 1925 fair was discussed from every angle at the luncheon of the Portland Woman's Research club held yesterday noon in the Arcadian gardens of the Multnomah hotel. Mrs. Carl G. Tipton was chairman of the affair and prepared one of the most delightful programmes in the history of the club. The speakers were Julius Meier, Mayor Baker, and Miss Vining Fisher. The musical programme was a real treat and included four artists: Mrs. L. W. Waldorf, violinist, accompanied by Miss Mary Bullock, Mrs. Barge E. Leonard and F. W. Evans, a disabled veteran of the world war, who sang two solos. The programme was immediately followed by a business meeting.

Mrs. A. A. Bailey will entertain the members of the Tuesday afternoon club at 1 o'clock luncheon today at her home, 1514 Hawthorne avenue.

Lavender club, Branch No. 2, will meet at the home of Mrs. A. Johnson, 36 East Twentieth street, today at 3 P. M. Take Sunnyside or Mount Street car to East Twentieth street, three blocks north.

Mrs. C. D. BoDine will entertain the members of the Corvante club today at her home, 197 East Sixteenth street, North. Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock and members will respond to roll call with "Poetry of Today." Dutch writers will be the subject of study and two papers will be given.

Woodstock W. C. T. U. will meet today from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M. at the home of Mrs. Edgar Lawrence, 5003 Fifty-sixth avenue, S. E. Luncheon will be served at noon.

The Catholic Women's league will meet today at 2 P. M. in the headquarters in the Eilers building.

Mrs. Millie R. Trumbull and Mrs. R. E. Bonduant will speak to the members of the Housewives' council today at the regular meeting in the story hour room at 3 o'clock. The public is invited.

The Falling Parent-Teacher association will hold its first meeting tomorrow at 3 P. M. in the school assembly. Mrs. W. H. Bathgate, president of the Portland Parent-Teacher council, will be the speaker and Mrs. Ida H. Beyer, president of the circle, will preside. Refreshments will be served during the social hour.

Summer Woman's Relief corps, G. A. R., was presented with a beautiful hand-made ivory gavel at its regular business meeting Saturday evening. Rev. W. T. Kerr, department chaplain of the G. A. R., made the presentation speech and Mrs. Mayme Deaton, president of the corps, received the gift and responded in a pleasing manner. The gavel, which is unique, was made by Comrade Heller of Sumner post and presented by Charles S. Baker, commander of the post.

The Woman's Psychic club will give a silver tea in the church parlor, East Seventh and Hassalo streets, tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. A business meeting will follow the social hour. On Monday evening, October 31, the club will entertain with a Halloween party and pumpkin pie social, to which the public is invited. Dancing and cards will supply the entertainment for the evening.

Mrs. A. Cleaves entertained the members of Willard W. C. T. U. with interesting dramatic readings from Bible stories. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Gillette and the hostess served dainty refreshments during the social hour.

The women's gymnasium class of the Mount Tabor district will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Mount Tabor school. An instructor has been arranged for and all interested in the work are welcome to attend the meetings, which are held every Tuesday.

The Woman's association of the First Presbyterian church will hold an all-day meeting today in room A on the third floor of the parish house. Luncheon will be served at noon and a social and a programme have been planned for the afternoon.

Highland Tavel club was entertained at the home of Mrs. L. R. Scooby, 973 East Tenth street North, Thursday last. A response to roll call with witty and wry epigrams was followed by interesting discussion of many leading topics of the hour. Through Oregon the club is still wending its way and finding many spots of wealth and interest heretofore undiscovered. "See Oregon First" will be the slogan for the winter's work. On November 3 Mrs. N. P. Crocker will be hostess at her home, 562 East Eighth street North.

SEA SCOUT MOVE AIDED

Committee to Select Executive for Work in Portland.

Plans to push the development of the sea scout movement in the city were undertaken yesterday at a luncheon of prominent Portland men at the Chamber of Commerce. J. E. Wilder, chief sea scout, presented the aims of the new organization in connection with boy scout work and told of the hold it has gained on the younger men in cities where it is developing. As an outgrowth of the luncheon a committee of those in attendance was selected to take up the organization work. The committee's chief duty will be to pick a man to place at the head of the sea scout work in Portland.

The committee consists of Admiral H. T. Mayo, James E. Brockway, J. W. Crichton, C. D. Kennedy, Harold C. Jones, P. Hetherton, Lieutenant R. E. Kerr and Frank Ira White.

Orpheum matinee today, 15-25-50-Ad.

BEAUTY SPECIALIST TELLS SECRET

A Beauty Specialist Gives Home-Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair.

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."—Adv.
