

MR. HARVEY SWATS ANOTHER ILLUSION

U. S.-Anglo-French Alliance Impossible.

LORD DERBY'S HOPE DASHED

American Policy Fixed, Says Ambassador.

WAR AFTERMATH VIEWED

Political Peace Established, but Industrial Peace Remains Yet to Be Brought About.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—George Harvey, United States ambassador to Great Britain, told an audience at the Liverpool chamber of commerce...

...This statement was made in a digression from an address on economic and the international industrial situation, in which the ambassador attacked communism and socialism and defended individualism. He recalled Lord Derby's statement in an address in Birmingham, in which the latter voiced the conviction that the success of the Washington conference would mean peace and that its failure would mean war in the immediate future. He also recalled Lord Derby's suggestion to ex-President Poincaré of France, that an Anglo-French alliance would be desirable in the interests of peace, intimating that "strong hope" that America might eventually join the combination.

American Policy Unchanged.

"Now it seems to have been my unhappy lot since I have been in England," continued the ambassador, "to dispel illusions respecting the attitude of the United States. I can conceive of no more effective service on the part of an envoy than to set forth frankly any certainty which may bear on the immediate future, however disappointing it may be to his hearers. I feel impelled to say frankly that the hope voiced by Lord Derby must be regarded as futile.

Our first president fixed the foreign policy of the United States clearly and unequivocally when he adjured his countrymen never to enter a permanent alliance with any other power.

"In view of these circumstances, am I doing more than stating the wholly obvious and inescapable fact when I pronounce the entrance of the United States into any permanent alliance, however desirable that action might be, as a latter-day possibility? May it not be, then, the part of wisdom to avoid discussion or even suggestion of a proposal which, however praiseworthy it may be, could hardly serve any purpose other than to feed enemies and distress friends of both Great Britain and France who live in America?"

Telegraph wires by the thousands of miles, linemen by the hundreds, telegraph operators by the score were needed for the test, as they will be needed on Armistice day.

BEEBE, SOBBING, DENIES ALL GUILT

Murder Suspect to Face Linn Grand Jury.

PRELIMINARY HEARING HELD

Killing of John and William Painter Is Charged.

NO REMORSE MANIFESTED

Grief Appears to Be Over Alleged Injustice of Confinement in Linn County Jail.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 3.—(Special.)—While protesting his innocence, Carson Douglas Beebe, so named by his parents but known generally as Pete Beebe, was bound over today without bail to await the action of the Linn county grand jury on two separate charges of murder in the first degree. This action followed a preliminary hearing held this forenoon before Justice Oliver of the Peace Office.

District Attorney Lewelling filed two complaints, in one of which Beebe is accused of the murder of John Painter, and in the other of the murder of William Painter, the former's 13-year-old son. October 19 was given as the date of the commission of each murder. The bodies of the two men were unearthed Tuesday from a grave in the timber on the side of Painter's farm, between Lebanon and LaCrosse.

After the hearing Beebe was returned to the Linn county jail, where he must remain until the next session of the grand jury, which probably will be held the last week of this month. Under normal conditions Beebe will be tried at the next term of the circuit court, which convenes December 3.
