

CHARGES OF HANGING TO BE INVESTIGATED

Senate to Go Thoroughly Into Mr. Watson's Accusations.

LAFAYETTE IS ATTACKED

Georgian Bellittes Revolutionary Commander and Takes Rap at France of Today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—Investigation by special committee of the charges of Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, that American soldiers in France were hanged without trial and shot by officers' orders, was assured today when the senate, after three hours discussion, unanimously re-ordered the inquiry.

The special committee, headed by Senator Brandegee, republican, Connecticut, will meet next Monday to determine upon procedure.

Another speech by the Georgia senator in support of his charges, wrangling between senators over the wording of the inquiry resolutions and parliamentary mixups preceded the final order for the committee to proceed.

The senate finally and unanimously adopted a new and amended resolution directing the inquiry and another empowering the special committee to subpoena persons and papers.

Senator May Asks. The war department is preparing to give its fullest support to the special investigation, taking the position that the accusations constitute a blot on the good name of the army unless a full investigation is held.

The fight over the senator's charges opened today when the senate met to take up the affairs. Senator Edges, republican, New Jersey, began debate with a criticism of Senator Watson for presenting photographs yesterday of a gallows where a soldier had been executed.

Whitewashing Is Denounced. Earlier Mr. Watson had challenged republicans to expel him, declared for debate in the open senate and asked why an effort was not made to "entrap" and "silence" him before a committee.

Witness to Be Brought Forward. In a spirited reply, Senator Watson said his information regarding 21 alleged hangings of soldiers without trial came from an ex-soldier who said he had seen the gallows and had been told by a gallows guard that this incident could not be "camouflaged."

Lafayette Is Attacked. "Oh, yes; France is not a howling wilderness, but a civilized country," the Georgia senator continued, "from which Lafayette came upon a written contract made with Silas Dean, pledging this country to make him a major-general before he would leave France and come to America; and he would not have sense enough to drill a company of soldiers, besides which he snuffed."

Free Hand Is Wanted. Senators differed widely during the three tense hours of debate, over the scope of the inquiry. Senators Borah of Idaho, Johnson of California and Jones of Washington declared that it should be without restriction, into all of the statements made by Senator Watson, Senator Lenroot, republican, Wisconsin, proposed to limit the inquiry, by specific amendment, to the charges of illegal hangings and shootings.

Police Receipts Fall Off. ABERDEEN, Wash., Nov. 4.—(Special.)—Aberdeen police were picking on the poor folks last month, judging from the increased number of arrests and the decline in receipts shown in the October report of Desk Sergeant Cass. Two hundred and sixty-eight persons were registered during the month, 59 more than the preceding month, but fines and forfeitures dropped from $2862.35 to $2380.

Georgia, were "the most outrageous and untrue accusations that could possibly be made and absolutely without foundation."

Girl's Assailant Hanged. BEAUMONT, Texas, Nov. 4.—Dr. E. T. Miller of Beaumont, who was one of the surgeons attending the 17-year-old French girl attacked by an American negro soldier near La Rocheelle hospital in France in December, 1918, said today the negro was tried by a court-martial and hanged. He said this was the only crime that happened in La Rocheelle area that he knows anything about and that he never heard of instances of unjust treatment of American soldiers.

The Stanford freshman team, which won 49 to 0 against the college of the Pacific last Saturday, is one of the best first-year combinations in Cardinal history. Coached by Jeffery Seahy, Bob Cran and Joe Almaraz, it is preparing to meet the California babes in the annual clash on Armistice day.
