Charge of 50 Cents Is Regarded as - Fair to Patrons and Gets Sanction of Commission.

Operation of motor cars to carry passengers to and from the livestock exposition was requested by the man-agement of the show as the means of handling the crowds, it was an-nounced yesterday to the city council by City Commissioner Mann.

Mayor Baker told the council that a general misunderstanding had arisen over the arrangement for the operation of buses because the ques-tion had not been presented to the council for its consideration.

"The police department was notified to pick up all drivers who were operating cars to the stock show with a permit and after they had been picked up it was found that permits had been granted by the department of public utilities," said Mayor Baker "This would not have happened had the police department been advised of the issuance of the special per-Commissioner Mann told the coun-

IN PORTLAND. Competition in Guernsey Class I:

Keener Than Among Jerseys and Holsteins.

Each of the four dairy breed show inge in the Pacific International live-stock show, Holsteins, Jerseys, Guernseys and Ayreblies, was pronounced yesterday by the respective judges in each class the best and closest ever shown in Portland. In the respect of keen competition

In the respect of keen competition the Guernsey class was the most notable. John S. Clark, Boston, judging the class, said it was the closest competition he had ever been called upon to judge, and E. L. Westover, western representative of the American Guernsey Cattle Club, declared that it was the most uniform on the coast this year, with the honors pretty evenly divided between Washington and Oregon.

STOCK SHOW IS ASTOUNDING Charles Hall Ranks Exhibits Among Best in World.

Residents of Oregon do not realize the importance of the livestock show now on in Portland, according to Charles Hall, who with his brothers, Richard and Virgil, are here to paint pictures of some of the champion livestock exhibited at the show. "I have been in attendance at practically all of the big livestock shows in the east and in Europe," said Mr. Hall, "and I was actually astounded when I walked into your show yesterday." It is much bigger than most persons imagined and it is built along these certain to bring about an exlines certain to bring about an ex-pansion that will make it rank with the biggest and best stock shows of the world."
