

PORTLAND TO GIVE THANKS TOMORROW

Spirit of Pilgrim Fathers to Dominate Feast.

CHURCHES PLAN SERVICES

Prayers for Success of Arms Conference to Mark Observance of Holiday.

Tomorrow will be Thanksgiving day, the holiday of feasting and grateful prayers.

Portland will observe the day with a varied programme of ceremonies appropriate to the occasion. The spirit of the pilgrim fathers, who inaugurated the holiday, will dominate the city's churches, where special services of praise and prayer will be held in the morning to give thanks to a bountiful Providence.

Housewives are busy preparing for the annual "big feed" at which families surround tables loaded with turkey, cranberry sauce, home-made pies and other delicacies of the season.

Day Legal Holiday. As Thanksgiving day is a legal holiday, all public and most private business will stop tomorrow.

The features of the afternoon for sport followers will be the big football game between teams of the University of Oregon and the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club on Multnomah field, starting at 1:30 o'clock.

Newsboys to Get Feast. While thousands of citizens enjoy their holiday feast in comfortable homes, the unfortunate of the city will not be forgotten.

Churches to Observe Day. Special music by choirs and organs and sermons by pastors on appropriate topics will feature union and community Thanksgiving services in Portland churches tomorrow morning.

SWEDISH SINGER IS DEAD

CHRISTINE NILSSON PASSES AWAY IN COPENHAGEN.

Noted Operatic Soprano Second Cousin of W. P. Strandborg of This City.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Christine Nilsson, the noted operatic soprano, died here this morning.

Christine Nilsson was one of the brightest luminaries of the operatic stage of a generation ago. Called by many the "Swedish Nightingale," as a fit successor to the marvelous Jenny Lind, she won triumph after triumph, both in Europe and America.

Born in Stockholm in 1842, she made her debut in Paris in 1864 as Violetta in "Traviata."

Mrs. Nilsson married August Rouzeaud of Paris in 1872. He died ten years later and in 1887 she married Count Casa di Miranda.

Christine Nilsson was first cousin of Mrs. S. Strandborg of Grand Rapids, Mich., mother of W. P. Strandborg of this city. Miss Nilsson was born in the same village in Sweden with Mrs. Strandborg and it was while Christine, a peasant girl, was lending her crooks near home that a noted philanthropist heard her singing some of the simple Swedish folk songs.

taken. Dr. W. T. McElveen will lead Thanksgiving worship at First Congregational church at 11 A. M., taking as his subject "Specific Reasons for Thanks for the Disarmament Conference."

A union Thanksgiving service will be held at Temple Beth Israel at 11 A. M. by Unitarian and Jewish congregations of the city.

Many other churches, representing practically every creed and belief, observe the day with similar services.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

On her last American tour in 1882 Miss Nilsson and Mrs. Strandborg met for the first time since they were in pinafores and pigtails in their childhood days in the old country.

Advertisement for The Midway Garage, King City, Calif., dated Nov. 12th, 1921. The ad features a testimonial from a customer who praises the service and quality of Cyclo motor oil. The customer mentions that their 1921 Ford's radiator water boiled and the engine froze, but after switching to Cyclo, the engine ran smoothly and they are recommending it to everyone.

PROVED In the Crucible of Service

Evidence of Cyclo's superiority is being received daily from engine owners everywhere. Cyclo gives a phenomenal service in the motor because of its different chemical characteristics. It is made from Cyclo-Naphthenic base crude petroleum by the new Hexeon Process. This process, used only by us, removes destructive "sulpho" compounds from oil. It is these impurities that cause motor oils to break down rapidly under engine heat. Cyclo is the money-saving motor oil. Its proper use results in greater mileage, better engine performance, and lowered maintenance costs. The efficiency and durability of Cyclo have been proved in our Motor Testing Laboratory and in actual service. In this laboratory the Cyclo Lubrication Chart shown opposite was prepared. It is scientifically accurate. Follow the Cyclo Lubrication Chart carefully. If your motor is not listed here consult the complete chart at your dealer's or write us. Cyclo is sold by dealers who show a Cyclo sign.

ASSOCIATED OIL COMPANY, San Francisco. A large stylized logo for CYCLO MOTOR OIL. Below the logo, it says 'FREE FROM DESTRUCTIVE "SULPHO" COMPOUNDS'.

CYCLO MOTOR OIL Recommendation Chart for automobiles. The chart lists various automobile models from 1917 to 1921, categorized by make and engine type. It provides a grid of 'M' (Medium) and 'H' (Heavy) recommendations for different engine types across the years. Below the chart is an 'Important Notice' regarding winter recommendations for different climates.

DISTANCE ON DRIVE HELPS, BUT IT'S NOT EVERYTHING

Jock Hutchison Commends Example of Abe Mitchell, Hardest Driver of Them All, Who Rarely Presses Himself to Limit.

BY JOCK HUTCHISON. Only American to Win British Open Championship. THOSE who saw Abe Mitchell, the famous British pro, play golf while over here watched one of the greatest performances of the present day. For those who understand the game well, it is a rare treat to see him hit a ball. Abe is a remarkably long driver, perhaps the longest in the world, a fine iron player and quite as good with the mallet and the putter.

club stays with the ball. A camera is not fast enough. That it sticks for a while is certainly true, but it must depend on how hard the ball is swept away from the tee. A sweep would carry further than a direct hit. In Mitchell's case the face of the club and the ball are in close proximity for quite some distance. It must be all of a foot that the club is touching the ball, directing it on its flight.

Recommendations Slow Back Swing.

Mitchell is a fine match player. He has done more in match play than in medal competitions. He is a generous opponent and would not seek or even want to claim any penalty on an opponent if there was a way out. He seems surprised when his long hitting is mentioned. He is not over proud of it. Abe knows the mistake that one can make by overdoing it and is not easily led into a discussion of the subject. Recognized as the longest driver in the game, he does not try to make shots with part power until they feel sure of themselves—an excellent idea. If you are looking up on shots, try coming back slowly. It is almost impossible to be too slow on a back swing. Take the clubhead away from the ball as you want it to come in. (Copyright by the Ball Syndicate, Inc.)

Budget Committee to Meet.

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The Douglas county budget committee met yesterday to form the expense budget for 1922. The committee is composed of the members of the county court and G. R. Bates, Myrtle Creek banker; Jess R. Lawwell, banker at Yoncalla; and Oakland and Barton Heliwell, merchant of this city.

WESTON GETS NEW TRIAL

SALEM, Or., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The Oregon supreme court, in an opinion written by Justice Brown and handed down here today, reversed the verdict of the circuit court of Deschutes county in the case of A. J. Weston, who was brought to the state penitentiary here in November, 1920, to serve a life term for the murder of Robert H. Krug. The case was remanded to the lower court for retrial. Mr. Krug, the murdered man, was a bachelor and resided alone in a cabin about five miles from the village of Sisters. On the night of March 24, 1919, his cabin burned and on the following day the sheriff and other officials found the charred body of a man in the ruins. A coroner's inquest was held on the premises and the body was identified as that of Mr. Krug. So far as the record shows no offense was charged by the coroner's jury.

SUPREME COURT REVERSES MURDER VERDICT.

In September, 1920, Weston was arrested, charged with the murder. Subsequently Weston was tried in the Deschutes county circuit court and was convicted of second-degree murder. He was sentenced to a life term in the penitentiary. Other opinions handed down today follow: O. P. Heister, et al. versus L. C. Eastman, et al., appellants, appeal from Marion county suit for damages against the State of Oregon; Judge George G. Bingham affirmed. Petition for rehearing denied in Nelson versus Title Guarantee & Surety company; second petition for rehearing denied in Andrew Peterson versus P. R. Heale et al.; case of Josephus Van Dusen versus Frank Van Dusen dismissed on stipulation. Arthur Goldsmith of Portland permanently admitted to the bar. Resolutions adopted by court in honor of memory of late Wirt Miner, Portland attorney.

Bend Man Serving Life Term for Slaying of Krug Will Get Another Chance.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The Oregon supreme court, in an opinion written by Justice Brown and handed down here today, reversed the verdict of the circuit court of Deschutes county in the case of A. J. Weston, who was brought to the state penitentiary here in November, 1920, to serve a life term for the murder of Robert H. Krug. The case was remanded to the lower court for retrial. Mr. Krug, the murdered man, was a bachelor and resided alone in a cabin about five miles from the village of Sisters. On the night of March 24, 1919, his cabin burned and on the following day the sheriff and other officials found the charred body of a man in the ruins. A coroner's inquest was held on the premises and the body was identified as that of Mr. Krug. So far as the record shows no offense was charged by the coroner's jury.

THANKSGIVING SPECIAL! ONE-QUART BRICK ICE CREAM ONE LB. CREAM WAFERS (Eight Colors) BOTH FOR 61c STOUT - LYONS DRUG CO. Third and Morrison, Washington, Near Fifth.