WITH AGNES AYRES AND RUDOLPH VALENTINO BY EDITH M. HULL A LETTER Nov. 28, 1921. Manager Columbia Theater, City.

Dear Sir:— After seeing "The Sheik," I must say that it is even better than I anticipated. Sometimes when one has great expectations, the reality is a disappointment, but not in this case.

The splendid portrayal of Mr. Valentino and Miss Agnes Ayres would in itself make a fine film, but the stirring desert scenes give a sense of realism that makes the picture one that will not be quickly forgotten.

I feel that I will be tempted to see it again before the week is over. Yours very truly, L..... B..... (The original letter is on file at the general offices of Jensen & Von Herberg.)
