HERE is the finest shaving set the world has ever known. The outfit itself is built to strictest $5.00 specifications. The case is the finest expression of casemakers' craftsmanship-it is solidly constructed of heavily nickled brass, self-locking and is luxuriously lined with richest velvet and satin.

The set illustrated and five other decidedly distinct, new Ever-Ready marvels were made to sell for $3.00-and are epoch-making values at that price.

Some of these new models are packed in flat celluloid cases-some in brightly burnished metal with linings of real velvet-some in highly finished metal as flat as Tiffany cigarette cases-some in beautifully grained natural wood, hand-rubbed to piano finish. Each razor is triple nickled to repel rust and wear. Each and every outfit is a beauty-and for a limited time they're all $1.00 complete.

For a limited time, dealers have been author-ized to sell these wonderful outfits at $1.00.
