

Morning Oregonian

ESTABLISHED BY HENRY L. FITZCOCK... Published by the Oregonian Publishing Co., 225 So. River Street, Portland, Ore.

Subscription Rates—Variability in Advance.

Table with subscription rates: Daily, Sunday included, one year $10.00; Daily, Sunday included, six months $5.50; Daily, Sunday included, three months $3.00.

THE TREATY OF THE PACIFIC

As the first fruits of the Washington conference the treaty with regard to the Pacific islands will be welcomed by all people who love peace founded on good faith among nations.

Welcome particularly to the American people is the article in the treaty abrogating the alliance between Great Britain and Japan.

Great is the gain to the United States. The Anglo-Japanese alliance, which had cast a shadow over our relations with both parties to it, is being cast away.

The treaty is the stronger for not binding the signatories to any definite action in the future.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

ments. The Oregonian is interested in the encouragement of school debates but it feels that one of the purposes of debate is not fulfilled if the participants depend upon others for research.

GIVE ALASKA A GOVERNMENT. The same old story of governmental neglect, prohibition of many things essential to development, bureaucracy, divided authority and lack of authority, found in the report of Governor Scott C. Bone of Alaska as has been found in reports of his predecessors.

Alaska wants men and money with freedom to develop the territory, but it has no money to develop the territory.

Without doubt an outstanding feature of the observance of "education week" throughout the United States has been the spirit of practical co-operation which has been manifested by the National Education association and the American Legion.

Control of the American potash supply by a German syndicate should open the eyes of the American people.

Control of the American potash supply by a German syndicate should open the eyes of the American people.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

any tendency in that direction, and here is a man almost a century old to prove the efficacy of the system.

They discussed the political situation, and the artist showed the surprising knowledge, particularly of foreign affairs.

The objections filed by counsel for the Iroquois confederation of Indians to the bill which would extend the rights of citizenship to a large number of American Indians.

Without doubt an outstanding feature of the observance of "education week" throughout the United States has been the spirit of practical co-operation which has been manifested by the National Education association and the American Legion.

Control of the American potash supply by a German syndicate should open the eyes of the American people.

Control of the American potash supply by a German syndicate should open the eyes of the American people.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

type who developed the resources of the country and made it great.

They discussed the political situation, and the artist showed the surprising knowledge, particularly of foreign affairs.

The objections filed by counsel for the Iroquois confederation of Indians to the bill which would extend the rights of citizenship to a large number of American Indians.

Without doubt an outstanding feature of the observance of "education week" throughout the United States has been the spirit of practical co-operation which has been manifested by the National Education association and the American Legion.

Control of the American potash supply by a German syndicate should open the eyes of the American people.

Control of the American potash supply by a German syndicate should open the eyes of the American people.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

BY-PRODUCTS OF THE PRESS

Hungarian Foreign Minister Poor Artist in 1910.

Jane Addams of Hull House and Dr. Alice Hamilton of Harvard university were together in Zurich in 1910, waiting for the New York Evening Post.

The objections filed by counsel for the Iroquois confederation of Indians to the bill which would extend the rights of citizenship to a large number of American Indians.

Without doubt an outstanding feature of the observance of "education week" throughout the United States has been the spirit of practical co-operation which has been manifested by the National Education association and the American Legion.

Control of the American potash supply by a German syndicate should open the eyes of the American people.

Control of the American potash supply by a German syndicate should open the eyes of the American people.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

There is a curious similarity among the recipes for a long life that are furnished us by men who have really achieved it.

Those Who Come and Go

Tales of Folks at the Hotels.

"Pick the man for the land" is the slogan of Harold Baldwin, cashier of the First National bank of Prineville, as he is making ready to assume the duties of appraiser for the veterans' loan under the provisions of the bonus law.

Decorating buildings for convention and lodge societies is the business of Charles W. Goodman, who can be found at the Imperial hotel.

Charles W. Robison, attorney of Astoria, is in Portland and is at the Oregon hotel.

There is probably a peculiar feeling in the heart of Fred W. Herman, new city attorney of Rainier, when he signs his name to the Imperial hotel register.

At one time N. A. Stittson was a leading politician of eastern Oregon.

J. Roesech, who for many years ran a brewery in Spokane, here he has turned to the manufacture of soft drinks.

Devising means whereby the motor trucks may be more properly controlled on the public highways is now the hobby of W. B. Dennis of Carlton, who is at the Multnomah hotel.

T. G. Swinney of New York city was one of those who found the Columbia river blocked with snow and impassable when he endeavored to motor from Spokane here.

Burroughs Nature Club

Copyright, Houghton-Mifflin Co.

Can You Answer These Questions? 1. Why do some English sparrows show so much white in their feathers?

Answers to Previous Questions. 1. What do salamanders eat? Are they poisonous?

Well to Begin Early. Probably Secretary Christian has already begun his memoirs.

Some parents don't want their children to believe in Santa Claus because they are glutted for gratitude.

Mr. Duvey Urges Brothers of Irish Blood to Support Pact With Britain. PORTLAND, Dec. 10.—(To the Editor.)—I notice that some Americans of the same blood as myself are advising the sympathizers of Irish independence to organize now and rally to the support of DeValera's campaign for the acceptance by Ireland of the peace pact recently agreed upon between the representatives of the British government and the representatives of the Irish parliament and people.

Under the peace pact which has been agreed to, Ireland will have an opportunity to determine its own destiny and her ability for self-government.

The masses of the people in Ireland will be glad to see a little peace of disturbance around Belfast whose interest it has been at all times to keep the Irish people in a turmoil in order to their own ends.

It is difficult, however, for any one strongly to espouse a cause, be it political, economic or what is not, without writing from a partisan bias.

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague.

OLD IRONSIDES. Rewritten to meet the requirements of the disarmament programme.

Oh, better that her shattered bulk should sink beneath the wave than that she daily should consume the coin we ought to save.

Well to Begin Early. Probably Secretary Christian has already begun his memoirs.

Some parents don't want their children to believe in Santa Claus because they are glutted for gratitude.

Mr. Duvey Urges Brothers of Irish Blood to Support Pact With Britain. PORTLAND, Dec. 10.—(To the Editor.)—I notice that some Americans of the same blood as myself are advising the sympathizers of Irish independence to organize now and rally to the support of DeValera's campaign for the acceptance by Ireland of the peace pact recently agreed upon between the representatives of the British government and the representatives of the Irish parliament and people.

Under the peace pact which has been agreed to, Ireland will have an opportunity to determine its own destiny and her ability for self-government.

The masses of the people in Ireland will be glad to see a little peace of disturbance around Belfast whose interest it has been at all times to keep the Irish people in a turmoil in order to their own ends.

It is difficult, however, for any one strongly to espouse a cause, be it political, economic or what is not, without writing from a partisan bias.