

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

ORPHEUM (Broadway at Taylor)—Vaudeville. This afternoon and tonight. BAKER (Morrison at Eleventh)—Baker Players in "Smooth as Silk". Tonight. LYRIC (Broadway at Morrison)—Musical comedy, "A Close Shave". Three shows daily, 2, 7 and 9 P. M.

YOUNG MEN SOUGHT FOR BURGLARIES.—For the robbery of the homes of O. S. Falkenberg and W. A. Herman, on Cornelius road, one-quarter mile from Burlington, last Saturday night, deputy sheriffs yesterday were seeking Earl Falkenberg, 22, nephew of the owner of one of the houses, and Earl Brandy, age 17. The Herman and Falkenberg families were at a community social in a neighborhood schoolhouse when their homes were riddled. A revolver, stickpin and checkbook were taken from the Falkenberg house; valuable ornaments, three rings, a jeweled stickpin, revolver, stiletto and Japanese sword from the Herman place.

TRIAL: HERPOND JUDGE EVANS AVENTED.—Rather than have his client tried before an ex-district attorney, E. Y. Lansing told Presiding Circuit Judge Morrow yesterday morning that he would handle the case of gully for Thomas Turner, negro bootlegger. Judge Morrow had assigned the case for trial before Judge Evans, who has established a policy in case of conviction by jury of cases appealed from the municipal court, as was that of Turner, to increase the fine imposed by the municipal court. Mr. Lansing persuaded Judge Morrow, on a plea of gully, to reduce the $200 fine given by Judge Rossmann to $150.

DRUG PEDDLER GETS 13 MONTHS.—Despite the pleas of his attorney for leniency Victor Hammar, who was convicted for selling narcotics last week, yesterday was sentenced to serve 13 months in McNeil island by Judge Bean in the federal district court. "This sentence is not imposed simply as punishment for Hammar, but as a warning to others who violate the narcotic law," said Judge Bean. Hammar's attorney attempted to obtain a stay of execution, but Judge Bean set bail at $500, a sum which Hammar was unable to provide.

AUTO LECTURE IS TONIGHT.—"Brakes and Braking, Clutch, Transmission and Tires" will be the subject of the national safety council lecture to be given tonight at 8 o'clock in library hall. J. A. Crittenden of the Covey Motor Car company will be the speaker and all drivers of cars and trucks are invited to attend. The matters to be discussed in this lecture are of vital importance to the drivers and a large attendance is expected. These lectures are free to the public.

CONTROL OF CANCER PLANNED.—The North Pacific Surgical association closed its tenth annual session at Vancouver, B. C., December 10, 1921. It appropriated $1500 for the aid of the work in the northwest of the American Society for the Control of Cancer of which E. F. Taylor, of Portland is regional director. Drs. A. E. Roekley, Ollis Wight and W. B. Holden were appointed to conduct the work in Oregon.

CLUB SUPPER ANNOUNCED.—A supper at the University club is planned by the Professional Woman's league for tomorrow. The affair is for Charles E. Seale, manager of the Tony Sarg Marionettes and his company of eight, who will present the marionettes in the afternoon and evening in Washington high school.

HEIL MURDER TRIAL POSTPONED.—Trial of Joe Heil, alleged slayer of "Jerry" Powers, for murder, was postponed by Presiding Circuit Judge Morrow yesterday until next Tuesday, due to the critical illness of Will H. Bard, attorney for Heil.

ALBERT R. BULLIER, DEAD.—Albert R. Bullier, 249 1/2 Halsey street, died Sunday morning following an illness of a week of pneumonia. He was 58 years old and had been a resident of Portland for 38 years. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Lerch undertaking parlors, at East Twelfth street and Hawthorne avenue, and interment will be in the Cedar Mills cemetery. Born and reared in California, Mr. Bullier moved to Portland when a young man and was a continuous resident here since 1889. He is survived by his widow and three children—Leon H. Bullier, Mrs. J. Martin Wade and Albert R. Bullier, Jr., all of this city.

NEW PARTY POSSIBLE.—Providing a sufficient number of people are interested, an attempt will be made to organize in Oregon the liberal party of America and put a ticket in the field next year. The liberal party is a sort of revival of the national party, which was composed of prohibitionists and some of the irreconcilable progressives. The national party later became known as "the committee of 48." When the national party was organized here George L. Cleaver was selected state chairman. The liberal party is now being organized in Idaho. J. A. H. Hopkins is the moving spirit in the new organization.

ROTARIANS DITCH EINSTEIN.—Because the Einstein theory of relativity has been knocked higher than a kite, according to the story published in The Oregonian yesterday morning, the Rotary club has seen fit to strike the subject from its program this noon. Dr. J. W. Daniels of the Hill Military academy was to address the club on the famous theory of relativity, but since the balloon has been punctured, M. Alexander Schwartz has been asked to talk to the Rotarians on "What Bolshevism Means to Civilization." The remainder of the program is unchanged.

CHRISTMAS TREE PLANNED.—Visitors to Laurelhurst clubhouse next Saturday night will find it converted into a veritable bower of Christmas trees. Trees will be placed profusely in the decoration for the club's "grown-up kiddies." Christmas frolic that night, and are then to be attended off by Santa Claus, who is asked to appear attired in youthful costumes and are urged to invite their friends.

CLUB DINNER ARRANGED.—The East Side Business Men's club is to have a dinner and programme at the club parlors, 114 1/2 Grand avenue, Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock. The dinner is to be served by the women of Central Presbyterian church, and the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company will present a switch-board demonstration, a program of music given by the Eureka Symphony Jazz orchestra and the Imperial Male quartet. The programme will begin at 7:30, and will be followed by dancing.

DOG OWNERS FACE ARREST.—Unless they take out licenses for their dogs before December 15, 500 dog owners in Portland will be arrested, according to warnings sent out from the office of the Oregon Humane society by R. R. Churchill, humane officer. Special officers have been compiling a list of the owners of dogs who have not procured licenses for them. According to Mr. Churchill, these owners have had since September 15 to procure licenses, and after three months' grace warrants for their arrest will be issued.

RAILROAD TIES NEEDED.—Approximately 1500 railroad ties will be needed by the commission of public docks in extending the municipal terminal railway to a more central point at terminal No. 4. Proposals for furnishing these ties are to be opened at the commission's office at 10 o'clock this forenoon. Bids are to be opened at the same time for furnishing six sets of switch ties for the trackage at municipal terminal No. 4.

LUMBER CONTRACTS AWARDED.—The bid of the City Lumber company of $11.50 a 1000 feet for 38,380 feet of lumber required in repair work on the Broadway bridge was accepted by Multnomah county commissioners yesterday on the recommendation of Roadmaster Etchell. The Ridge Lumber company got the contract for planking the Gordon creek road on a bid of $1169.88.

MISSION TALK ANNOUNCED.—Mrs. I. A. Aldrich, field secretary of the women's board of home missions of the Pacific northwest, will speak before the Woman's Missionary society of the Central Presbyterian church in the church parlor tomorrow at 2:30 P. M. The women's quartet of the Vernon Presbyterian church will sing, and the society's members will furnish additional entertainment.

RENEWAL PARTY ANNOUNCED.—A card party will be given tonight at Woodman hall, East Sixth and Alder streets, for the benefit of a widow with six children ranging in ages from 8 months to 16 years. The mother has been trying to support her family by taking in washing.
