Walter McCredie says he will show Seattle some new faces on the Ruinier ball club next season, and that it will be a whale of a club. Big Wait got back to Portland yesterday from the minor league meeting at Buffalo. For the first time he admitted that he will manage the Seattle club and then he told about some of the deals he and President Boldt put across for ballplayers while they were east.

Boldt is back there yet, along with Bill Klepper of Portland, but Walt got l tired of the eastern winter climate and hurried home. But before he did that he wound up deals for four highclass players and lined up another that will bring Scattle at least three more good men. Besides that he has a trade brewing on the coast that probably will bring to Senttle one of the est fly chasers and hardest hitters In this circuit.

"Seattle will lose Pitcher Brenton," said McCredie. "Cincinnati still has title to him, so when the Reds bought Babe Pinelli from Oakland the other day they agreed to ship Brenton to Oakland in part payment. Incident-ally, the Reds got a wonderful infielder when they took Pinelli. I con-sider him about the smartest third-sacker in this league.
