Briggs Shot in Self-Defense, Slayer Testifies:

STORIES OF WIVES DIFFER

Neighbor Recalls Last Moments of Dying Man on Scow Following Row Over Apples.

Unprovoked, cold-blooded murder from ambush as charged by the widow of the slain man in her testimony was transcribed into a justifiable killing in self-defense by the defendant in his story as told to the jury yesterday in the trial of Ed Breshers, accused of the murder of Joe Briggs on November 15.

When court adjourned, shortly after 6 o'clock, both sides had rested. Arguments will begin at 9 o'clock this morning and the case may be in the hands of the jury by noon today.

Briggs was killed following a dispute over some apples which had been sold him by Breshers, and which he was endeavoring to persuade Breshers to take back on the ground that they were of such poor quality that they could not be sold by Briggs, who owned a scow and had produce customers in lower Columbia river ports.

Thomas A. Sweeney, chairman of the state land committee of the American Legion, yesterday announced the appointment of Robert O. Case of the Oregon state chamber of commerce as secretary of the Legion land committee.

Inquiries have been pouring in for the last several months from men entitled to the state loan of $300 to $500 on real estate and who are seeking farm lands. The state committee has compiled a great amount of data to assist in guiding the prospective settlers and is rapidly getting in intimate touch with the districts that have suitable land available.
