

SENATE CONTINUES NEWBERRY BATTLE

Agreement to Vote Today Declared Possible.

UNDERWOOD GETS IN FRAY

Seven Speeches Made in Opposition to Seating Michigan Man. Some by Republicans.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11.—The fight in the senate over the right of Truman H. Newberry, republican of Michigan, to a seat, which has been contested by Henry Ford, his opponent in the 1918 election, continued today and when the session ended tonight predictions of the outcome generally were held in abeyance, so uncertain had the result become. It was agreed among leaders that the outcome rested on the final position to be taken by fewer than a half-dozen senators whose attitude has not been disclosed.

Hopes for a vote today were dashed by the last minute demands of senators desiring more time to speak. Even an attempt by Senator Spencer, republican, Missouri, who is leading the Newberry supporters, to obtain an agreement to vote at 4 o'clock tomorrow, was blocked. Senator King, democrat, Utah, objecting. Mr. King suggested that an agreement might be expected tomorrow.

New Resolutions Appear.

Two new resolutions, both to declare the seat vacant, were introduced by Senators Owen, Oklahoma, and Walsh, Montana, democrats. Mr. Owen said he had sought to eliminate all disputed points in the controversy so that the senate could determine solely whether it was sound public policy that such large amounts of money should be expended in a campaign. Mr. Walsh's resolution represented a recasting of his original proposition, declaring the seat vacant, but redefined "to express in firmest tone" a statement of the senate's views with respect to the welfare of the nation, when large sums of money are used in a campaign and election.

Senator Johnson Sought.

Efforts to get pairs arranged for and against the seating of Mr. Newberry continued to offset the loss of strength on either side through absentees. Senate officers also attempted today to locate Senator Johnson, republican, California, whose attitude is not known. Several telegrams have been dispatched in efforts to locate him and to determine whether he can be paired if he is unable to reach Washington to vote. There were seven speeches today, among them being one by Senator Underwood of Alabama, democratic leader, and another by Senator Jones, republican, Washington, who announced he would vote against Mr. Newberry. The other senators who spoke, all in opposition to the resolution declaring Mr. Newberry to be the qualified senator, were Norris, republican, Nebraska, and Reed of Missouri, Hitchcock of Nebraska, Caraway of Arkansas and Heflin, Alabama, all democrats.

Jones Explains Position.

Mr. Jones declared that in determining to oppose Mr. Newberry he had not been frightened by any threats that if he voted otherwise his political life would be jeopardized. He said he believed the voters preferred a man who was "wrong from conscientious grounds rather than a man who was right through fear." He declared that if he was wrong in this case, it was on the ground that he could not believe that Mr. Newberry was entitled to a seat after he, or anyone in his behalf, had expended more than $200,000 in pursuing his campaign for election.

TUBERCULIN TEST ENDED

More Than 6000 Cows Inspected in Wabkikam County.

SKAMOKAWA, Wash. Jan. 11.—(Special.)—Wabkikam county has been declared 100 per cent tuberculosis tested and its cattle given a clean bill of health in that regard. In December Dr. L. V. Hardy, veterinary inspector of the bureau of animal industry, United States department of agriculture, returned to the county to complete the test and to retest herds having reactors from tests applied during August and September last. The completion of the test was perfect, revealing no infection in the new herds. Not only were the remaining herds in the county tested on this occasion, but by request of individuals the inspector went so far as to test out all areas that had direct communication with this county. No reactors were found in any of these herds. The number of cattle tested to obtain the 100 per cent exceeded 6000.

Prize Distribution in Theaters to Stop. Washington Supreme Court Holds That Seattle Drawings Violate City Ordinance.

LOTTERY HELD ILLEGAL

WASHINGTON SUPREME COURT HOLDS THAT SEATTLE DRAWINGS VIOLATE CITY ORDINANCE. OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 11.—(Special.)—The Washington state supreme court today reversed the King county superior court which granted a temporary injunction restraining Seattle and King county officials from interfering with the operation of a plan to distribute northwest products in certain motion-picture houses. The supreme court held that prizes offered acted as an inducement to theater patrons and that drawings were in violation of a city ordinance.

Prune Prices Increased.

SALISBURY, Or., Jan. 11.—(Special.)—The Oregon Growers Cooperative association today advanced prune prices ranging from 2c to 3c a pound. The 2c a pound increase applies to 20-25 Italian prunes, while the 1c per pound increase involves 40-50, 50-60 and 60-70 Petites. The increase of 2c a pound affects 70-80, 80-90 and 90-100 Petite prunes. Recently heavy demands for the Oregon prunes, and the clean up of the 1921 crop, made the increase in prices necessary, officials said.

Voting Precincts Added. ROSEBURG, Or., Jan. 11.—(Special.)—Two new voting precincts, making a total of 61, were added by county court order today, the present Reedport precinct, which includes practically all of the lower Umpqua country, being divided into three divisions. The three precincts will be known as east and west Reedport and Smith river. Formerly the one precinct of Reedport had a total of 605 registered voters, and under the new division each precinct will have approximately 200 voters. The Southern Pacific railroad tracks and the Umpqua river form the dividing lines.
