

PORTLAND RIDERS TO BUY HORSES

Animals to Come From Walla Walla Stables.

HUNT CLUB MAKES DEAL

MOUNTS TO BE OFFERED TO LOCAL ENTHUSIASTS AND TAKEN BY ORGANIZATION IF NOT SOLD.

Eight new saddle horses, all suitable for the hunt and declared to be of show ring class, will be added to the list of Portland owned horses within the next few weeks, according to an announcement made yesterday by H. M. Kerron, master of fox hounds of the Portland Hunt club.

The horses were purchased from the Walla Walla Stables, a breeder of hunters and saddle horses, and are either thoroughbred or standard bred crosses between the two lines. The deal constitutes the first sizeable consignment of high-grade horses ever brought to the northwest from a northwest dealer.

Buyers to inspect animals. Inspection was taken last week by H. M. Kerron on the eight horses and they will be shipped to Portland soon for inspection by their prospective buyers.
