Vandals Draw First Blood in First of 2-Game Series.

CONTEST SLOWLY PLAYED

Pacific Coast Conference Season Opened on University Floor. A Fox High-Point Man.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Jan. 16.—(Special.)—Coach McMillan's Vandals from the University of Idaho, took Coach Bohler's Oregon, five into camp here tonight in the first of the two-game series. Score 37 to 23. This was the opening game of the Pacific coast conference on the local floor.

The game was slow, the visitors adopting defensive tactics the first period, playing their strong five-man defense to good advantage. The score in this period ended 15 to 14 with Oregon leading.

With the start of the second period the Vandals began a vigorous offensive, chalking up eight field goals. The final scoring was as follows: Oregon, 15; Idaho, 23.

For thearsity, Altstok and Veatch, two new players, were the most consistent point getters. Beller, Rice and Zimmerman acted as Oregon points with Altstok and Veatch. Coach Bohler used only one of the men whom he took on the trip north in the game with the Vandals here tonight. He said he wished to give the men a much-needed rest and use them against Washington when the Sun-doggers play here the latter part of this week.

As a preliminary, the Oregon freshmen defeated the Eugene high quintet, 35 to 21. The line-up: Oregon (23): Idaho (37). Altstok (8), F. (15), Veatch (6), Beller (6), Rice (6), Zimmerman (2), S. (8).

GEORGES TO RETURN SOON

BIGGER MONEY IN AMERICA ATTACKS FRENCHMAN.

Inability of Cook to Last Long in Fight in England Soon Recognized by Fans.

By Sparrow McGinn. (Copyright, 1922, by The Oregonian.) NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—(Special.)—Private advices from London regarding the Carpenter-Cook mixup give a clear line on the present form of the Frenchman. He never looked better, stronger or more confident in his life than when he stepped into the ring Thursday night and fought the Frenchman. He never looked better, stronger or more confident in his life than when he stepped into the ring Thursday night and fought the Frenchman.

First of all, there is bigger money in the United States, much bigger. The money Richard would pay Carpenter, in fact, compared to any roll the London promoters could hand him, would stack up the same as a dollar bill compared with a quart of krones or a peck of rubles. Of course, Carpenter and his side-kick Dempsey don't care any more for money than they do for their right and left eye.

Secondly, this Lewis boy is a clever guy, and tough, too. He might make a whole lot of trouble before Carpenter beat him and in that case the Frenchman's American drag wouldn't be big enough to fill one section of Madison Square garden, no matter who fought him.

As the dope is now laid, he is urged for Carpenter's triumphant re-entry into the land of wood alcohol. He has laid Cook low, has issued another defy to Jack Dempsey—thereby causing a lot of suffering among expert fight fanciers who are afflicted with split lips—and is all lined up for an indoor "battlie of the century."

Aside from Descamps' letters to Richard, evidence that the French knocker-out will shortly be on his way hitherwards may be read in the fact that Descamps has written to Managess mentioning his desire to the possibility of taking lodgings in the Mathews farm house, where the Frenchman did his training for Dempsey.

Tommy Gibbons has not been seen or heard of since he failed to stow Bertley Madden away. Reports of that fight have it that Harry went along pretty evenly with the flash. In this connection a story is going the rounds which may or may not be true. It has to do with Carpenter's trip here. Word went out that the fewer men Gibbons knocked out when new men in time set for the Carpenter battle the bigger the chance the Frenchman would come over to fight.

With Gibbons putting them all away, there was the chance that the French crowd might deem it wiser to rest on such laurels as they possessed and not take a big chance of losing—all before the educated fists of the St. Paul artist. And so the whisper went to Tommy to lay off a Little. It all may be true and it may not. Anyway Tommy didn't make any great showing against New York's pride. It was after this that Tex Rickard began to hear more definitely from Descamps. Now, with Cook out of the way, it looks like a clinch that the lawyer-headed light-heavy champion will shortly set sail for these parts.

If Carpenter meets and beats Gibbons, which is no two-to-one bet, you can bet it is in the hope that he will take another crack at Dempsey along about summer time. The talk is that this time he would demand a 25-foot ring and perhaps four-ounce gloves. In that case there are a lot of dubs who would be willing to bet that Carp would outpoint the champion. As for the money, it is said that he would it would pay big money for another Dempsey-Carpenter bout.

COUNCIL TO CURTAIL STREET PROGRAMME

Lack of Money Causes Delay in 72 Improvement Jobs.

WORK FOR YEAR LIMITED

City to Limit Its Expenditures During 1922 to $1,500,000 and Projects Dropped.

Seventy-two street improvement projects already tentatively approved by the city council, must be delayed for at least a year, owing to the shortage of money with which to carry on improvement work this year. This announcement was made yesterday by A. G. Johnson, assistant to the commissioner of public works.

When the tax supervision and conservation commission compiled the various appropriations for the city last fall, it was decided to limit the improvement programme to $1,500,000.

Petitions Taken in Order. To stay within this programme, the public works department took petitions in the order in which they were filed. The petitions which have been singled out for filing without further action at this time have been in the public works department for some time, but other petitions calling for all the work that can be done by the department in 1922 have prior right.

It is possible that some of the work involved in the 72 petitions cannot be put through at this time, but absolute assurance because of the fact that there is no manner in which action of the tax commission can be foreseen.

Improvements to Be Dropped.

The improvements contained in the petitions that are to be "killed" are as follows: Madison avenue, from East Eighth street to Dekum avenue; Boise street, from Milwaukee street to Fifteenth street; Patton road, from Grant street to Georgia street; Madison street, from Sixteenth street to 410 feet west; Madison avenue, from East Twenty-ninth street to Kenilworth street; Gladstone avenue, from East Twenty-ninth street to East Forty-second street; Madison street, from East Fifteenth street to East Sixteenth street; James street, from Kellogg street to James street; Killin street (Newick), from Buffalo street to Lehigh street; Clinton street, from East Twelfth street to East Twenty-fifth street; Portland street, from Interstate avenue to Union avenue; Wynne street, from East Seventh street to East Thirteenth street; Newick street, from Buffalo street to Lombard street; Maryland avenue, from Killingsworth street to Alsworth avenue; Irving street, from East Fifty-second street to East Fifty-third street; Oregon street, from East Twenty-ninth street to East Thirtieth street; Shaver street, from East Seventeenth street to East Eighteenth street, at all points; Madison street, from East Thirtieth street to East Forty-second street; Center street, from Swanson street to East Thirtieth street; East Clay street, from East Forty-third street to East Forty-fourth street; Emerson street, from East Thirtieth street to East Thirtieth street; Madison street, from Madison street district improvement; Alley between lots 10 and 11, block 2; Whitman avenue, from Sixty-sixth street Southeast to Sixty-eighth street Southeast; Madison avenue, from Killingsworth street to Alsworth avenue; Summer street, from Denver street to Madison street; Clay street, from East Twelfth street to East Twelfth street; Wasco street, from East Twenty-eighth street to East Twenty-ninth street; Liberty street, from East Thirteenth street to East Twenty-second street; Missouri avenue, from Killingsworth street to Alsworth avenue; Sixteenth street, from south line of Elizabeth street to north line of Elizabeth street; Sixty-third street Southeast, from Foster street to Sixty-third street Southeast; Fifty-ninth street Southeast, from Thirtieth street Southeast to Powell street; East Thirty-fourth street, from Fifty-third street to Raymond street; Emerson street, from Foster street to Fifty-second street Southeast; East Twenty-second street, from Crane street, or north line of Alameda Park to Skidmore street; East Fourteenth street, from Linn street to Ochoce street; East Twenty-seventh street, from Kikkil street south; Seventy-third street Southeast, from Ninety-second street Southeast; East Seventy-sixth street, from Hawley street to Madison street; Sixty-seventh street Southeast, from Woodstock avenue to Fifty-fifth street Southeast; East Fifteenth street, from Saratoga street to Bryant street; East Forty-eighth street, from Lincoln street to Sherman street; East Twenty-third street North, from Hancock street to Schuyler street; Eighty-third street and Ninety-first street Southeast, at all points; East Sixty-ninth street, from East Gilliam street to Pacific street; East Fifty-third street, from Francis street to Tillamook street; East seventh street, from Stanton street to Twentieth street; Morris street, from Twentieth street to Twenty-second street; Fifty-ninth street Southeast, from Sixty-seventh street Southeast to Seventy-second street Southeast, from Fifty-third street to Raymond street; East Thirtieth street, from Francis avenue to 400 feet northerly; East Fifty-sixth street, from Thompson street to Tillamook street; East Twentieth street, from Skidmore street to Crane street; East Ninety-ninth street, from Schiller street to Mitchell street; East Fifteenth street and Johnson street, from East Seventeenth street, East Eighteenth street, at all points, from Shaver street to Prescott street; Fifty-second street Southeast and Forty-third street Southeast, from Fifty-third street Southeast to Fifty-third street Southeast, district improvement; East Thirtieth street, from Present street to Wigan street; East Thirtieth street North, from Sandy road to Fifty-third street; East Twenty-second street, at all points, from north line of Fremont street to south line of Park street; East Twenty-second street, from Powell street to Bush street; East Fifty-sixth street, from East Fifty-fifth street to East Flinders street; East Flinders street, from East Fifty-fifth street to East Fifty-seventh street; Alley, block 2, Westover, from Summit avenue to Cornell road; East Twentieth street, from Regents drive; East Thirtieth street, from East Alder street to East Stark street; East Ninety-ninth street, from Fremont street to north line of Hemadale Addition; East Seventy-third street, from Gilman street to Halsey street; East Eighty-sixth street, from Foote street to East Yamhill street.
