Washington, D. C., Jan. 16—
With the provisions objected to by Secretary Mellon eliminated, the allied foreign debt refunding bill was favorably reported today to the senate by its finance committee. Chalappan Me.

Secretary Mellon eliminated, the allied foreign debt refunding bill was favorably reported today to the senate by its finance committee. Chairman McCumber said it was the purpose to press the measure for passage without waiting for the adjournment of the arms conference.

Except for a provision that the refunded bonds to be accepted from the foreign governments shall mature not later than June 15, 1947, the measure virtually is in the form in which it was passed by the house last October. No solidier bonus provision was added to the bill and this proposed feature was not discussed.

Senators Simmons of North Carolina and Jones of New Mexico, democrats voted against reporting the measure feature by the committee.

Formulating definite plans for funding debts of the various foreign nations to this country will await enactment of the funding bill, it was said at the treasury.
