C. M. Young Surrenders After Shooting Down Douglas Tapp and Is Jailed at Roseburg.

STAGE PERMITS ISSUED UNDER NEW LAW.

FIRST LICENSE IS GRANTED LINES ARE TO OPERATE FROM PORTLAND TO McMinnville and Bonds Are Presented.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 16.—(Special.)

The first permit authorized by the Oregon public service commission under the so-called motor vehicle transportation act enacted at the recent special session of the legislature was issued here today.

Tapp Flees From Officers.

According to Young's statement, which was made under oath at the direction of District Attorney Neuner, he went with his brother-in-law, Roy Hughes, to the home of Wallace Freyer late Saturday night, intending to hunt over Sunday. Tapp fled from Young's cabin after learning that the federal authorities were seeking for him, after tracking a still which he is said to have conducted there, and had been in hiding near his uncle's home.

CREW DEFIES BREAKERS

FISHERMEN RESCUED BY INTREPID LIFESAVERS.

Thrilling Scene Staged Off Willapa Harbor—Boat Dashed to Pieces on North Spit.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., Jan. 16.—(Special.)

The breakers on the north spit, near here, and were coming to harbor, were barely checked by two victims when Captain Winbeck and his life-saving crew from North Cove made their way through the waves and rescued two crab fishermen last night. The men were Sol Michael and Isaac and Fred Lundquist of Hammond, Or. Their boat, a 26-foot craft, was lost.

Assailants' Guns Strike

"I grabbed the barrel and shoved it to one side just as he fired and the bullet grazed my side. We wrestled around the room but he was bigger than I was and he finally shoved me away against the wall. I reached for my rifle just as he reloaded. I didn't have time to aim so our guns struck together as we pointed them at each other and mine went off and he fell across the bed.
