ACTRESS TELLS SECRET Tells How to Darken Gray Hair With a Home-Made Mixture.
Jolley Williams, the well-known American actress, recently made the following statement about gray hair and how to darken it with a home-made mixture:

Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will gradually darken gray, streaked or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine.
These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.—Adv.

SKIN POSSESSOR ARRESTED.—That the small town has its problem of unemployment like the large city was shown yesterday in the report of the arrest and trial of Henry Yost of Murphy, Or., last Friday on the charge of having a green deer skin in his possession during closed season.

BUSINESS CHANGES MADE.—Business changes in the Multnomah district include the sale by C. D. Hageman of his grocery store at East Seventy-fourth and East Glisan streets to G. Elanson and A. S. Mallard; the sale by J. N. Kunkle of his confectionery store at East Eightieth and East Stark streets to the Dickson Drug company, which will move its store to that location, and the sale of B. F. Bauer's barber shop, on Stark street near Eightieth street, to Stein-

FUNERAL OF CERINDA PRESTON HELD.—Cerinda Stuart Preston, a member of one of Oregon's pioneer families, died here in Corvallis, Jan. 15. The funeral took place in the Presbyterian church in Corvallis, a church which stands on her father's site, at 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, by him to the church. Her husband, Perry A. Preston of Corvallis; a son, John P. Preston, and a daughter, Mrs. N. H. Donlon, of Portland, survive her.

LODGE ENTERTAINMENT TODAY.—Omega Rebekah lodge, No. 167, Odd-fellows, will entertain Harmony lodge No. 106 with a joint installation of officers tonight at Orient hall, East Sixth and Alder streets. Members of both lodges have been requested to attend the affair at 7:30 o'clock.

ROBBERS GO ON RAMPAGE

BURGLARS, HOLDUPS AND SAFECRACKERS ARE ACTIVE.
Police Catch One Man in Act of Sticking Up Hotel Clerk and Effect Capture.
Burglars, stickups and safe robbers were on the rampage in Portland Sunday night and early yesterday, judging from the amount of reports filed during the morning with the police detective bureau.

One robber—John L. Pierce—was captured while in the act of holding up the Treves hotel shortly after 4:30 o'clock in the morning. Police Sergeant Emms and Patrolman Kelly were walking past the hotel near Eleventh and Stark streets, when they saw the man confronting David L. Martin, night clerk, with a semi-automatic pistol. With weapons drawn, the police rushed into the hotel and captured the thief before he had a chance to escape.

Safe robbers broke into the Oicetti restaurant, 415 Washington street, and with cold chisels, a meat saw and other tools, broke open a small office safe and looted it of $21.85. The safe was taken from the office to the basement of the building, where it was broken open. Detectives Coleman and Collins believe it was the work of amateurs.

Has Your Baby a Bank?
WHAT will your baby be in twenty or thirty years? Do you ever picture him as a leader of men, at the head of his own business?
In the habit-forming period of childhood your baby can be taught the principles that will help him to be thrifty and independent.

Start him on the road to success with a First National Home Savings Bank. Teach him how to put coins in the slots! When he gets a little older, show him how he can see through little holes and tell how many pennies and nickels he has saved.

These Home Savings Banks were chosen for our customers because of their usefulness. They have a compartment for each denomination of coins. They are also very nicely finished in nickel and are as attractive as they are serviceable.

A savings account with one dollar will entitle you to one of these banks for him.
The First National is on Fifth and Stark. The Savings Department is on the ground floor, right hand as you enter.

Go to the Savings New Account Window. You will be courteously received and the account of your future "Business man" or "College girl" will be started.
