SOCIETY TURNS OUT TO AID UNEMPLOYED

"Our City's Ball" Declared Stellar Attraction.

DANCES ARE AUCTIONED

Large Sum Obtained to Swell Fund Intended to Keep Municipal Woodyard Running.

Flags from ships now in port, banners representing the nations of the earth, palms banked about a band platform centering a gay and colorful ball room, and a merry throng of dancers made up the scene at the municipal auditorium last night when "Our City's ball" for the benefit of the unemployed was the stellar attraction for Portland society.

The dancing space was bordered with boxes reserved by prominent citizens, organizations and business firms, who did their part toward swelling the fund that is to provide for the continuation of the municipal woodyard and give work to the jobless men whose families would suffer from the cold weather and from absolute hunger and poverty were it not for this municipal undertaking. Mayor Baker, in a brief speech, welcomed those who attended. The Elks' band, in smart purple and white uniforms, occupied the palm-banked stage in the center of the floor and provided inspiring music.

Mayor Leads Dance.

The grand march, led by Mayor Baker and Mrs. William MacMaster and several prominent society men and women and members of the committee, made an impressive and inspiring picture. Mrs. MacMaster was general chairman of the committee in charge of the ball, and to her and her assistants credit was given for their capable leadership.

The floor committee included W. J. Hofmann, chairman; Henry L. Corbett, Kurt Koehler, Dean Vincent, Ira Powers, C. H. Davis Jr., Reade M. Ireland, Dr. Otis B. Wight, Aaron Frank, W. P. Merry, Henry Metzger, J. P. Mulder, C. D. Brunn, Coe McKenna, R. H. Mitchell, W. H. Barton, Norman Rupp, W. F. McKenny, Fred Burgard and George C. Mason.

Girls Sell Dances.

Quite a merry feature was the auctioning of dances. Some of the pretty girls who were selling the bright and festive balloons danced with partners who were the highest bidders for the honor. The auction created much gaiety and added many a dollar to the fund.

Gowned in taffeta frocks in all the colors of the rainbow, the lovely sub debs selling the balloons were Misses Sophia Shielk, Janice Damon, Helen Weber, Beryl King, Katherine Hart, Virginia Richards, Katherine Strupjers, Ruth Hann, Jane Fleckstein, Margaret Vincent, Hortense Bleeker, Helene Tyrell, Phyllis Winn, Margaret Hughes, Katherine Short and May Barr.

Junior League Helps.

Junior league girls did their share by selling candy. Those who served as "candy sales girls" were Miss Isabella Clark, Miss Irene Daly, Mrs. Spencer Biddle, Mrs. Lovelle Winters, Mrs. William Burgard, Mrs. Vernon Cartwright, Mrs. Alan Green, Mrs. Kenneth Reed, Mrs. Norman Rupp, Mrs. Henry Reed, Mrs. Holt Cookingham, Mrs. Thomas Barnes, Mrs. Erle Whitney, Miss Nadine Caswell, Miss Katherine Laidlaw, Miss Hannah Laidlaw, Miss Margaret Bates, Miss Elizabeth Hailey, Miss Gladys Bowen, Miss Anna Wheeler, Miss Dorothy Strowbridge, Miss Jean Skene and Miss Suzanna Platt.

Lining the walls of the ballroom was a frieze of yellow with black silhouettes, painted, representing nymphs, fairies and woodland sprites. Over the bandstand was a center decoration suspended from the chandelier with yellow and black as the color scheme.

Society Rents Boxes.

Society danced and visited about in the various boxes bordering the dancing floor and in the balconies.

Mrs. J. B. Montgomery was hostess in a box, entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Whitney Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Whitney, Mrs. Montgomery Russell of Seattle, Mrs. Thomas G. Hailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric V. Hauser entertained Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Kumpe, H. H. Cloutier, Miss Sarah Patrick and Mrs. P. S. Wiok of St. Paul.

Mrs. Solomon Hirsch's guests were Miss Hirsch, Lester Sichel, Mrs. Ruth Schweitzer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry William Metzger, Sam Hirsch.

Mr. and Mrs. William MacMaster invited as their especial guests for last night Mayor and Mrs. George L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. G. Coulter Mason and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Alvord.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ladd Corbett were hosts at a dinner preceding the ball and entertained their guests later at a box party. Mrs. Corbett was a vice-chairman for the ball, working as assistant to Mrs. William MacMaster, general chairman, and personally assisted with the decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Corbett had as guests for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Kingsley (Anna Mae Chipping), Mr. and Mrs. John Dolph, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Winch, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Ladd and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Latourette.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Wheeler had a box party, which included Miss Louise Lanthicum, Miss Elizabeth Hailey, Miss Anita Wheeler, Mason Bingham, George O'Neal and Lieutenant Walter Graham, U. S. A.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Devereaux, who were hosts for a box party, had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Hampson and Mr. and Mrs. Clark D. Simons.

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick L. Maciesy were hosts at one of the box parties that included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green Reed, Mrs. Carlton Swift, Frank Kennedy, Kenneth Mackenzie.

Another box party was made up of a group including Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Adams, hosts; Mrs. Everett Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre E. Hines and David Bulmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Cobbs entertained a coterie of friends in a box party for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Williams, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Belcher, Mr. and Mrs. George Nevins.

Another interesting group of society folk was in the box reserved for Mr. and Mrs. Kurt H. Koehler. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Irving L. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Murray Sherwood Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor.

Mrs. Henry McCracken was hostess at a box party including Mrs. Theron Fell, Mrs. Warren E. McCord, Mrs. J. G. Wallace, Mrs. Fred Cutrier, Mrs. J. V. Beach and Miss Margaretta Marshall.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherman O'Gorman were Mr. and Mrs. Le Roy Fields, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Lyman, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Williams.

An interesting box party was that at which Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Grelle were hosts, including Mr. and Mrs. Donald Green, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Johnson.

A no-host party in another box included Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Holman, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Wilbur, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Branch Riley.

Mr. and Mrs. Max S. Hirsch were hosts for a party of friends, including Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Ottenheimer, Mrs. Charles F. Berg and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Samuel.

Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox was hostess for a party which was made up of a coterie of intimate friends and others who called at the box during the evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Waldo Coe had several guests, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Coe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edward and Earl A. Coe.

The Portland Heights club had a box for the ball and a number of the members of the club made it their headquarters, a place to rest for a few minutes and visit with friends. Among those who entertained with dinners before the ball were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Angell, Mr. and Mrs. Brockwell Statter, Mr. and Mrs. Homer V. Carpenter and Dr. and Mrs. G. Norman Pease of Portland Heights.

Mrs. H. W. Corbett, who had engaged a box for the ball, left it to the disposal of several of her friends who shared her hospitality.

Mrs. Cyrus A. Dolph, who is greatly interested in the cause of charity, was hostess at a box party for several friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Emery Olmstead, patrons for the cause, were hosts at a party honoring Mrs. W. Harrison Sarver of Seattle. Ned C. Williams of Minneapolis, Mrs. Eastman and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Powers.

Mrs. W. L. Thompson dispensed hospitality, and her guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Judd, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burke and Dr. and Mrs. Otis Wight, who were among the interested onlookers and participants for the festive occasion.

The Japanese consul, Mr. T. Yoshida, entertained a party of prominent members of the local Japanese colony, including Mr. and Mrs. J. Nakagawa, Mr. and Mrs. Y. Moriwaki, Miss K. Hayekawa, Miss Y. Shimomura and M. Tanaka.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin presided at a party including Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geary, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund C. King, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Jewett and E. L. Shevlin.

Another hostess who always is a patroness for worthy charity affairs was Mrs. A. J. Meier, who entertained a large number of relatives and friends, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Abe Meier, Mr. and Mrs. Julius L. Meier, Mrs. S. Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Frank, Mr. and Mrs. William Heller Ehrman, Dr. and Mrs. James Rosenfeld, Dr. Arthur Rosenfeld, the Misses Jean, Jeanette and Elsa Meier, Roy Feldenheimer, Elmer Feldenheimer, Frank Elsing and Edwin Seller.

Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt Connell entertained in their box party Dr. and Mrs. Robert Karkett, Mrs. T. J. Cardwell of Trenton, Mo., Miss Edwynne Peyton, R. W. Cabell and F. Marion Stokes.

Guests in the box at which Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Bowles were hosts included Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Carterman, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lair Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bowles.

Adolphe Wolfe was host at a box party for Dr. and Mrs. Jesse Ettelson, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Lowengart, Dr. and Mrs. Jonah B. Wise and George Wolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCrillis, Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Leiby and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Blauvelt were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Runyon in the party at which Mr. and Mrs. Runyon entertained.

Guests of Will Lipman were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Teiser, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Kahn.

Mrs. H. C. Wortman entertained a group of friends in her box.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph McCool had in their party Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Dykman, Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Boyden, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Rankin.

Another party of Portlanders included Mrs. Isam White, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Feldenheimer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feldenheimer and Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Fleischner, hosts.

MR. KORELL CANDIDATE

LOCAL MAN SEEKS ELECTION TO LOWER HOUSE.

Lawyer Wants to Represent Third Oregon District in Congress Next Term.

Franklin F. Korell, representative from Multnomah county, yesterday announced himself a candidate for United States representative from the Third Oregon district. Mr. Korell, who is an attorney, was born in Portland and has always made this city his home.

He accompanied his announcement with a statement to voters of the district, setting forth a few of the major matters on which he believes there should be new or improved legislation. These include the building up of a large merchant marine, aid for irrigation projects, water power development and proper recompense to ex-service men.

Mr. Korell's statement was this:

To the Republicans of the Third Oregon District:

Having the ambition to serve you in our national congress, and believing the time opportune to offer myself as a candidate for that honor, I hereby announce to the electorate of this congressional district my candidacy and respectfully ask their support in the coming primaries.

Upon the leading political questions now before the people, as I see them, I stand as follows:

I am in favor of a strict and literal observance of the laws of the land.

While I approve of all that has been done to put down autocracy, nevertheless I do not favor a maudlin sentimentality in favor of any foreign country. I rather advocate giving more attention to relieving the living conditions of our own people.

I am in favor of a large merchant marine, of extending national aid to projects for irrigation and water-power development, of developing our water routes of interstate transportation and of a national good roads programme.

I believe that the nation's gratitude should be expressed not merely through words, but action. Accordingly, I favor the immediate settlement of all just claims of ex-service men and women, including the equitable adjustment of compensation.

I respect the nationals of every country, but I am in favor of America for Americans.

Mr. Korell is a graduate of the University of Oregon and Yale law schools, and was admitted to the bar in 1910, almost immediately after attaining his majority. He entered the army in 1917 and received promotions which made him captain-adjutant in the 82d infantry, 16th division, in July, 1918. He has been prominent in the American Legion, having been among the organizers of Portland post No. 1.

In 1920 he was elected to the legislature, where he served on committees of importance, and had considerable to do with passage of the soldiers' bonus bill, regulation of bonding houses and other measures. He acted for the American Legion committee in bringing the suit by which validity of the bonus act was established by the courts.

COLD SNAP GRIPS WHOLE NORTHWEST

Record Temperature of Winter Reported.

MERCURY STILL DROPPING

Woman Injured by Stove Explosion; Crop Damage Expected to Be Trifling.

was experienced about nightfall when the thermometer, which had hovered at 29 for several hours, fell to 25 between 5 and 6 o'clock.

Although the weather bureau thermometer recorded 16 degrees as a minimum, private instruments in the residence districts, especially in the section lying toward Laurelhurst and Rose City Park, where the down river winds get a keen sweep, were reported as showing 6, 8, 10 and 12 degrees at various early morning hours.

Streets Are Slippery.

Downtown Portland was little disturbed yesterday, save for perilous street crossings where the thawing of the day before had become slippery and treacherous. Absence of wind caused the general belief that the weather was moderating, although the temperature remained several degrees below freezing the entire day. The supposed moderation resulted disastrously in the cases of numerous careless autoists, whose radiators froze solid a short time after cars were parked on the street.

Exceptionally slippery streets, especially in the residential districts, continued to menace auto traffic and cause pedestrians trouble. Downtown sidewalks were cleared for the most part and pedestrians were in little danger except at crossings. Failure to properly clear off a large section of street at the southeast corner of Sixth and Oak made the corner perilous.

Skating Is Expected.

Skating will be exceptional in almost all nearby ponds and lakes if the weather continues.

Absence of snow gives a much better opportunity for clear ice to form. Laurelhurst lake was in fine condition yesterday and flooding of a part that had been made rough by melting snow was expected to form a smooth skating surface over much of the lake.

Records are not immediately available as to the time necessary to freeze the Willamette river, according to Mr. Wells, but continued cold, with 20 degrees or lower in the daytime would probably do it, he said.

The cold weather at this time of year is not expected to cause fruit men any worry. Buds and sap are dormant and pests and parasites alone will suffer.

The cold spell, according to weather bureau reports, is general throughout the state, but less severe in southern Oregon.

COLD SNAP HITS THE DALLES

10 Degrees Below Zero Recorded Near Columbia.

THE DALLES, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—As if determined to equal its record of 10 degrees below zero last night after standing between 15 and 20 degrees above during the warmest part of the day, the mercury tonight began flirting with the zero mark, with every indication of exceeding last night's mark by several degrees. It was 10 degrees above at 6 o'clock.

Shore ice extends for more than 200 feet into the Columbia river from both the Oregon and Washington shores, leaving only a comparatively narrow channel clear in the center. The ferry operating between here and Grand Dalles made several trips this afternoon after all of the morning had been spent cutting a way through the ice.

Practically every home in the city suffered one or more frozen water pipes last night. A stove exploded while Mrs. John Brown was cooking breakfast upon it, and standing almost directly in front of it. The stove was wrecked and flying pieces of iron tore holes in the walls and ceilings, but Mrs. Brown escaped serious injuries. The noise caused by the explosion could be heard for several blocks.

Virtually all of the exhibits of fruit and vegetables on display at the chamber of commerce were believed to have been ruined by the freezing weather. The exhibits were put up in a formaldehyde preparation.

PENDLETON HAS 21 BELOW

Coldest Weather Since 1919 Experienced in Umatilla.

PENDLETON, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Pendleton was gripped last night by the most severe cold since 1919, the thermometer dropping to 21 degrees below zero, with a light wind blowing. Frozen pipes and cars were numerous, as the sudden cold came in one night, the mercury falling about 40 degrees, with little notice.

Weather predictions indicate that the thermometer will go still lower tonight and break all records of recent years.

Farmers are rejoicing that a six-inch fall of snow covers the growing wheat. Stockmen generally are prepared to weather the storm and have plenty of feed.

All regular traffic rules have been suspended, and the city is just beginning to recover from the sudden attack of zero weather. The snow has been continuous for more than three weeks and the temperature has not risen much above freezing for the past two weeks.

Today the highest the thermometer registered was 2 degrees above zero, and at 6 P. M. the mercury had again dropped to 15 below.

COLUMBIA LIKELY TO FREEZE

Only Narrow Channel Open in River Near Hood River.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The minimum temperature for the 24 hours ending at 6 o'clock tonight was 12½ degrees below zero, maximum 12 degrees above. Last night was the coldest here in the past 25 years, except that of December 17, 1919, when a record of 27 degrees below was recorded.

The low temperature, except for catching negligible quantities of undelivered cider apples, will cause no damage. Apple trees, covered with deep snows for the past nine weeks, growers said, are entirely dormant, and no injury, such as prevailed in 1919, is anticipated.

The snow blanket will protect strawberry acreage.

Water pipes in hundreds of homes were frozen. Plumbers called for volunteer helpers. The extreme cold did not occur until about daybreak, and a narrow channel in the midstream of the Columbia remained unfrozen. It is expected if the temperature goes to zero or lower tonight that the stream will be frozen from bank to bank tomorrow.

HEPPNER HAS 13 BELOW ZERO

Parkers Mill Reports Temperature of 32 Degrees.

HEPPNER, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Following a two-day snowstorm the mercury dropped to 13 below zero last night, marking the coldest weather of the season. Indications are that the temperature will drop still lower tonight. Parkers Mill, a mountain settlement 25 miles south of here, reported 32 below this morning.

Several inches of snow covers the ground, affording good protection to the wheat and farmers are expecting another bumper crop next summer. Stockmen report sheep and cattle doing well, although the present is said to be the longest spell of feeding weather in several years. Hay is plentiful and cheap, and alfalfa farmers are pleased to get the surplus disposed of.

GOLDENDALE HAS 16 BELOW

Colder Temperatures Reported in Districts Near City.

GOLDENDALE, Wash., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—A sudden cessation of stormy weather and snowfall in the Klickitat valley Tuesday night was followed by an extreme drop in the temperature. The government thermometer at Goldendale registered 16 below zero and from more exposed parts of the valley a temperature of 20 below was reported. Winter weather has prevailed here ever since December 14. The present cold snap is the most severe winter weather that has been experienced here for the past 20 years with the exception of the freeze-up two years ago.

Much freezing and bursting of water pipes occurred at Goldendale. Very little suffering has been reported and feed supplies for stock are holding out well.

WALLOWA HAS 40 BELOW

14 Below Is Lowest Point of Winter at La Grande.

LA GRANDE, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Early this morning the temperature here was 14 degrees below zero, the lowest of the present winter and in spite of sunshine all day long the mercury hovered around the zero mark all day. Trains from the east were on time, but train No. 21, westbound transcontinental train, was two hours late today because of the cold weather.

At Kamela, near the summit of the Blue mountains, a temperature of 30 degrees below zero was reported and at Wallowa a temperature of 40 degrees below was registered. Reports from other sections of eastern Oregon indicate that the extremely low temperatures are general.

COLD WEATHER HITS BOISE

Temperature of 8 Below Zero Is Reported in City.

BOISE, Idaho, Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Boise today experienced the coldest weather since January 4, 1910, when the mercury fell to eight below, the temperature recorded this morning at 8:20 o'clock on the top of the federal building. Reports from the bench and in the valley show several degrees lower.

A government-tested thermometer at the home of Mr. Norquest, three miles southwest of Boise, registered 12 below at 7:30 this morning. A report was made of a temperature of 10 below down the valley and about Boise from 9 to 10 below zero.

ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Last night was the coldest of the present season by eight degrees, according to records at Weather Observer Rosenberg's office, which showed that at an early hour this morning the mercury registered 20 degrees above zero, while at 11 o'clock today, with the sun shining brightly, it stood at 33 degrees. In other sections of the city, private thermometers showed the temperature was several degrees lower. With the weather remaining clear and the wind still blowing from the northeast, a still lower temperature is expected tonight.

Bend Reports 6 Below.

BEND, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Bend was threatened with a water famine this morning when intense cold caused the partial clogging by ice of the Bend Water, Light & Power company's flume. A crew of men rushed to the scene averted the danger. Ice also obstructed the screen at the company's main power plant and necessitated the use of the steam auxiliary plant.

Last night's minimum was 6 degrees below zero, and even colder weather was expected tonight. At 6 P. M. the mercury stood at zero, as compared with 9 above at the same time last night.

Marshfield Has 15 Above.

MARSHFIELD, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Following a clear day after the official temperature of last night was at 24, tonight was expected to make a record for cold weather that would go back many years. The temperature was down to 15 at 6 P. M., according to unofficial thermometers, but it appeared much colder than last night. Much damage to water pipes will occur tonight unless the temperature rises.

Montesano Has Two Inches of Snow

MONTESANO, Wash., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Snow to a depth of two inches fell here last night. Following a thaw at noon today, the slush has frozen and roads are in an extremely dangerous condition. Only minor traffic accidents have occurred so far.

Cold Stops Sawmill.

RIDGEFIELD, Wash., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The coldest weather in two years has Ridgefield and the outlying country in its grasp and as the result the sawmill of the Ridgefield Lumber company on Lake river, which is frozen, was forced to close this morning and will not resume operations until the weather moderates. About 40 men are thrown out of employment. The thermometer at the mill registered 5 degrees above zero this morning.

VANCOUVER REPORTS 9 ABOVE

Weather Declared Coldest in Last Two Years.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—A temperature of 9 degrees above zero was reported this morning by A. A. Quarnberg, official weather observer. The temperature yesterday morning was 25 and the maximum was 34.

The Columbia river is filed with floating ice, and while there is no indication that the river will freeze over, many of the small lakes in the county are now frozen over and afford good skating.

On many of the hills on the main roads in the county, where pavement has been laid, the engineer's office has sent men out to scatter salt to melt the snow and ice and make traveling safe.

Cold Hits California.

REDDING, Cal., Jan. 18.—The lowest temperature in Redding since 1886—27 degrees—was recorded here today, according to the weather observer. Turtle Bay, an inlet of the Sacramento river, was heavily frozen over tonight while for the first time in 36 years its surface was dotted with skaters. A record temperature was also recorded at Penoyar, Siskiyou county, where the mercury fell to 9 degrees below freezing, according to reports here.

17 Above at Salem.

SALEM, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Salem and Marion county early today experienced the coldest weather for the present winter. At 5 o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 17 degrees above zero, or four degrees lower than had previously been recorded here this season. With the exception of a few automobile accidents due to ice in the streets, no damage was reported here as a result of the freeze.

Boardman Registers 20 Below.

BOARDMAN, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The mercury dropped to 20 degrees below zero in the Boardman district last night. Water pipes were frozen and house-plants and vegetables were damaged. School attendance was only about one-half normal. The weather was clear and cold today. The temperature at 11 o'clock this morning was two degrees above zero.

Toledo Gets Cold Weather.

TOLEDO, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—Tonight the sky was clear and it was freezing hard. The mercury last night dropped to 17 degrees, above. Indications were that it would go to 12 or 15 above tonight. The ground is still slightly covered with snow. Range cattle are still out and should the cold spell continue losses will occur.

California Citrus Threatened.

FRESNO, Cal., Jan. 18.—Frosts were predicted by the United States weather bureau here for the citrus section of the San Joaquin valley tonight. The temperature reported here early tonight was 19 degrees. Other San Joaquin valley cities reported as follows: Hanford, 31; Madera, 28; Porterville, 30; Merced, 30; Visalia, 32.

18 Above at St. Helens.

ST. HELENS, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The thermometer here registered 18 above zero early tonight. There was a considerable amount of ice floating in the Columbia river opposite the city, but it had not yet begun to interfere with navigation.

Montana Has Cold Snap.

Mercury 14 Below at Wasco.

WASCO, Or., Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The coldest weather experienced this winter was 14 below zero last night. Moro reports 18 and Grass Valley 22 below.

MOTOR DIRECTORS NAMED

STATE ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING.

Report Shows Increase of Nearly 100 Per Cent in Membership in Year; Drive May Continue.

At the annual meeting of the Oregon State Motor association at the Multnomah hotel last night seven directors were elected as follows: A. H. Lea, secretary Oregon state fair; Charles R. Frazier, manager Crescent Paper company; J. F. Slater of Dant & Russell; F. C. Stettler, Stettler paper box factory; D. B. Seger, Great Western Smelting & Refining company; George O. Brandenburg, editor the Oregon Motorist, and L. Therkelsen of the Braly Auto company. Mr. Frazier, Mr. Stettler and Mr. Therkelsen were re-elected to the board, while the other four are new members.

These seven new directors, together with eight directors who hold over for another year, will constitute the board for 1922. Officers of the association will be chosen by the directors from among their number at a meeting January 26.

A. L. Tetu, president, presided and reports were rendered by F. C. Stettler, treasurer; Charles R. Frazier, secretary, and A. E. Shearer, assistant secretary. The report of the secretary showed an increase in membership the past year of nearly 100 per cent. Plans for increasing the membership by continuation of the drive now in progress were discussed and unanimously favored.

A committee headed by A. B. Manley was named to consider the advisability of having a booth at the forthcoming automobile show to advertise the organization and secure new members.

SOCIAL WORKERS MEET

Ralph McAfee Urges Greater Effort to Influence Public Opinion.

At the meeting of the Oregon Social Workers' association held at the Seward hotel yesterday Ralph McAfee, who has been prominent in the association and who will leave to take charge of the council of churches of Kansas City, Mo., spoke briefly, urging that social workers crystalize their opinions and press forward to influence public opinion. Mr. McAfee introduced his successor, Rev. Ray Close, who will be a speaker at one of the luncheon meetings at an early date.

Dr Frederick Stricker, secretary of the state board of health, made the main address. He spoke briefly on the results of his recent survey of Oregon on narcotics. He cited statistics which indicate that in late years addicts are found more frequently among young persons and that 50 per cent of the addicts are criminals. An interesting discussion followed Dr. Stricker's talk.

Oddfellows Burn Mortgage.

SANDY, Or., Jan. 17.—(Special.)—Sandy lodge of Oddfellows held a meeting last Monday night for the purpose of celebrating their emancipation from all debt on their hall and other property, and to "burn the mortgage."

Ed P. Burns, past district deputy grand master, a charter member of the lodge, made the major address and touched a match to the papers that had represented the indebtedness of the lodge. For the lodge R. E. Eason, district deputy grand master, gave the response. A solo was sung by P. Troy Shelley. Following the ceremony the members had dinner. The officers of the lodge, as installed January 6, are as follows: noble grand, Lewis Hall; vice grand, R. C. Prace; warden, John Mitchell; secretary, A. C. Baumback; treasurer, O. H. Meinig.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked, get sluggish, ache and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy, the bladder is irritated and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble—Adv.

YOU CAN'T WORK WELL WITH A COLD

NOBODY likes to be around a person suffering from a heavy cold. It exposes them needlessly.
