Requests to Be Considered by Subcommittee Which Will Draft Legislation

WASHINGTON, D. C. Feb. 7 .- Prep. aration of a deficiency appropriation bill will be begun sharrly before a subcommittee of the house appropria-tions committee, Chairman Maddon announced today. The measure, he said will be ready for the house in few weeks and passage will be ex-pedited to relieve urgent deficiencies which have arisen in various govern-

Estimates totaling $150,704,281 have been transmitted by President Hard-ing for the consideration of the sub-committee which will draft the bill. Accompanying Mr. Harding's letter was one from Budget Director Dawes, giving needs of 17 departments and ureaux which had requested addi-

in his letter, President Harding said: "It will be noted from the letter from the director of the bureau of budget, giving the explanation of these items and the necessity therefor, that of the total sum only $25. $15,222.83 represents those cash withdrawals from the treasury in excess of the expenditures as shown in estimates hitherto submitted, and that information now available indicates decreases in expenditures under other decreases in expenditures under other appropriations which will offset any increase incurred under the appro-priations herewith transmitted." The estimates totaled by depart-ments and establishments were:

Veterans' bureau, $93,993,112; navy department, $60,198,821; shipping board, $78,000,000; state department, $5,160,260; treasury department, $2,572,479; war department, $2,466,521; labor department, $1,880,356; department of junitee, $729,354; employed compensation commissions, $600,000; ment of juntice, $729,554; employed compensation commissions, $690,680; postoffice department, $389,411; District of Columbia, $131,569; department of Agriculture, $214,375; department of commerce, $292,369; interior departament, $148,075; legislative, $49,000; bureau of efficiency, $10,000, and Smithsonian institute, $8450. Budget Director Dawes, in his classification of the estimates, divided them into those of the fiscal year ending June 29, 135,460,467,91, and for previous fiscal years, $45,243,814.48. "Of the total of $135,460,467.01 for the fiscal year 1922," he said, "there are resubmissions of amounts previously submitted amounting to $71,256,737.99; amounts submitted pursuant to legislation enacted since the submission of previous estimates, $6,490,000 and other amounts not hitherto submitted, $57,713,729.02. Of the total amount herowith submitted. total amount herewith submitted, $110,857,318.24 has been included in the estimates of expenditures for the fiscal year 1932, as previously reported. Of the remainder $69,846,698.25, which would, if appropriated. apparently represent an increase in the expenditures, $40,228,740.42 for the ciothing and small stores funds of the navy department represents a bookkeeping transaction and does not involve expenditures in addition to those already estimated, leaving the maximum possible increase in expenditures, due to the appropriations herewith requested, at $29,518,222.83.

Were it possible to spend all this money during the control of monoy during the current fiscal year, the information now at hand indi-cates that reductions in expenditures under other appropriations will off-
