HOME TROUBLES PILE UP

Firm Stand With Administration Gives Impetus to Movement to Bring About Defeat,

PUGET SOUND BUREAU, Scattle. Wash., Feb. 7.-When United States EVERY SOLDIER WILL CARRY Poindexter visited his home state a few weeks ago he made it known in every public address tha he was a stout supporter of the policies of the Harding administra-tion. In private talks he is said to have made it even more clear that he intended to work in close cooperation with other republican sen-ators, and as a member of the sen-ate majority group on which Presi-dent Harding relies to bring his large foreign and domestic understandings

Now comes noisy demand from a single newspaper source that Senator Poindexter repudlate all the results of the international conference at Washington and cast his vote against the treaties that have been framed and must be ratified or rejected by the senate. This demand seeks to for-poindexter and successful to the senate of the senate menas be rathled or rejected by seemats. As to the possible cumulative effect of all these controversial matters, including the improving candidacy of Mr. Paulhanus. Mr. Poindexter's friends refuse to take slarm of to admit that there is any occasion for alarm. Senator Poindexter's recent personal survey of the home field apparently convinced him and his supporters at the time that there was no need of special organization in behalf of his candidacy for re-election.
