In Toungatown the weekly tickets are now being sold for $1.25 each. They are used by any member of the family, and the plan is reported to have become very popular with both the public and the company. The attractive feature from the company

Brive To Be Started.

"I think I shall bring the matter before the council and see if we cannot get it to request the public service of Tacoma," said Commissioner Shoemaker. The company could not establish it without the state's giving authority, and we may as well get it started. It certainly would be a great benefit to a large number of people and if the results are as they seem to have been in other cities the company ought to be well pleased."

This picture has had phenomenal runs in all the large cities of the United States. It is a production that will not be forgotten, combining as it does polgnant heart appeal with delightful comedy. Mrs. Mary Carr as "Ma" Henton has created a mem-orable role, and her six children in orable role, and her six children in the story are cleverly portrayed. Starting Saturday at the Blue Mouse will come Lon Chaney in his latest success "The Night Rose," written for him by Leroy Scott noted novelist. The offering places this character actor in the role of a king of the underworld. He is seen directing the workings of the underworld from an elaborate apartment. As a gentleman crook and ruler of the political ring of the town he appears to splendid advantage. There is said
